Rediscovered Masterpieces of African Art Gerald Berjonneau, Jean-Louis Sonnery, 1987 Rediscovered Masterpieces of African Art Robert Farris Thompson, 1987 African Arts, 1998 African Masterworks in the Detroit Institute of Arts Detroit Institute of Arts, Michael Kan, Roy Sieber, Mary Nooter Roberts, David W. Penney, Helen Shannon, 1995 African Masterworks in the Detroit Institute of Arts showcases eighty eight of the museum's finest works representing the full range of major sub Saharan sculptural traditions during the past three centuries figures masks containers carved stools jewelry and musical instruments As noted in the introductory material almost all African art has a functional base each sculpture's primary justification is its effectiveness as a ritual or utilitarian object Text accompanying each photograph describes not only the circumstances when known of the object's creation but also the harmonious interplay of its aesthetic features and cultural and spiritual function The catalogue also details the rituals surrounding the religious objects and the social importance of the secular works Organized by region from the western Sudan to southern Africa the book includes essays on the history of each area as well as maps and an extensive bibliography Michael Kan the curator of the collection provides a history of the museum's African art acquisitions since 1900 and the introduction by Roy Sieber traces the evolution of Western appreciation for African art describing also the value placed on the objects by the community from which they arose Art and Risk in Ancient Yoruba Suzanne Preston Blier, 2017-11-02 In this book Suzanne Preston Blier examines the intersection of art risk and creativity in early African arts from the Yoruba center of Ife and the striking ways that ancient Ife artworks inform society politics history and religion Yoruba art offers a unique lens into one of Africa's most important and least understood early civilizations one whose historic arts have long been of interest to local residents and Westerners alike because of their tour de force visual power and technical complexity Among the complementary subjects explored are questions of art making art viewing and aesthetics in the famed ancient Nigerian city state as well as the attendant risks and danger assumed by artists patrons and viewers alike in certain forms of subject matter and modes of portrayal including unique genres of body marking portraiture animal symbolism and regalia This volume celebrates art history and the shared passion and skill with which the remarkable artists of early Ife sought to define their past for generations of viewers Genesis Alisa LaGamma, 2002 The seventy five masterpieces presented here drawn from public and private American collections are among the most celebrated icons of African art works that are superb artistic creations as well as expressions of a society's most profound conceptions about its beginnings All are reproduced in color and are accompanied by entries that illuminate the distinctive cultural contexts that inspired their creation and informed their appreciation BOOK JACKET New York Magazine, 1991-02-11 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Eternal Ancestors Barbara Drake Boehm, 2007 Many masterpieces of central African sculpture were created to amplify the power of sacred relics that affirm a family's vital connection to its ancestral heritage This important volume focusing on some 130 works representing a diverse variety of regional genres illuminates the purpose and significance of these icons of African art which first came to prominence because of their appeal to the Western avant garde While providing an overview of sources ranging from colonial explorers missionaries critics artists and art historians the book breaks new ground in its examination of the complex aesthetic and spiritual dimensions of the reliquaries Its interdisciplinary approach brings together the perspectives of scholars in African and medieval art history along with those in African history religion and ethnography Publisher

Tango Robert Farris Thompson, 2006-12-05 In this generously illustrated book world renowned Yale art historian Robert Farris Thompson gives us the definitive account of tango the fabulous dance of the past hundred years and the most beautiful in the opinion of Martha Graham Thompson traces tango's evolution in the nineteenth century under European Andalusian Gaucho and African influences through its representations by Hollywood and dramatizations in dance halls throughout the world He shows us tango not only as brilliant choreography but also as text music art and philosophy of life Passionately argued and unparalleled in its research its synthesis and its depth of understanding Tango The Art History of Love is a monumental achievement

Continuum Encyclopedia of Native Art Hope B. Werness, 2003-01-01 This lavishly produced volume is the first reference work to focus on the symbols meaning and significance of art in native or indigenous cultures
