Romanticism Its relevance to more modern ethnic and religious conflicts is becoming increasingly appreciated by scholars worldwide This new and revised edition includes a new Introduction by Roderick Beaton an updated Bibliography and many new illustrations

Camera Graeca: Photographs, Narratives, Materialities Philip Carabott, Yannis Hamilakis, Eleni Papargyriou, 2016-03-09 While written sources on the history of Greece have been studied extensively no systematic attempt has been made to examine photography as an important cultural and material process This is surprising given that Modern Greece and photography are almost peers both are cultural products of the 1830s and both actively converse with modernity Camera Graeca Photographs Narratives Materialities fills this lacuna It is the first inter disciplinary volume to examine critically and in a theorised manner the entanglement of Greece with photography The book argues that photographs and the photographic process as a whole have been instrumental in the reproduction of national imagination in the consolidation of the nation building process and in the generation and dissemination of state propaganda At the same time it is argued that the photographic field constitutes a site of memory and counter memory where various social actors intervene actively and stake their discursive material and practical claims As such the volume will be of relevance to scholars and photographers worldwide The book is divided into four tightly integrated parts The first Imag in ing Greece shows that the consolidation of Greek national identity constituted a material cum representational process the projection of an imagery although some photographic production sits uneasily within the national canon and may even undermine it The second part Photographic narratives alternative histories demonstrates the narrative function of photographs in diary keeping and in photobooks It also examines the constitution of spectatorship through the combination of text and image and the role of photography as a process of materializing counter hegemonic discourses and practices The third part Photographic matter realities foregrounds the role of photography in materializing state propaganda national memory and war The final part Photographic ethnographies

"Turquerie and the Politics of Representation, 1728?876 " Nebahat Avcioglu, 2017-07-05 In this first full length study devoted explicitly to the examination of Ottoman Turkish inspired architecture in Western Europe during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Nebahat Avcioglu rethinks the question of cultural frontiers not as separations but as a rapport of heterogeneities Reclaiming turquerie as cross cultural art from the confines of the inconsequential exoticism it is often reduced to Avcioglu analyses hitherto neglected images designs and constructions and links Western interest in the Ottoman Empire to notions of self representation and national politics In investigating why and to what effect Europeans turned to the Turk for inspiration Avcioglu provides a far reaching cultural reinterpretation of art and architecture in this period Presented as a series of case studies focusing on three specific building types kiosks mosques and baths chosen on the basis that each represents the first full fledged manifestations of their respective genres to be constructed in Western Europe the study delves into the cultural politics of architectural forms and styles The author argues that the appropriation of those building types was neither accidental nor did it merely reflect European domination of another culture The process was essentially dialectical and contributed to transculturation in both the West and the East A Literary Companion to Travel in Greece Richard Stoneman,1994 A wide ranging anthology of responses evoked through the ages by the history and beauty of Greece Management Of Travel Agency L.K.
