Moulding the Female Body in Victorian Fairy Tales and Sensation Novels Laurence Talairach-Vielmas, 2016-04-15

Laurence Talairach Vielmas explores Victorian representations of femininity in narratives that depart from mainstream realism from fairy tales by George MacDonald Lewis Carroll Christina Rossetti Juliana Horatia Ewing and Jean Ingelow to sensation novels by Wilkie Collins Mary Elizabeth Braddon Rhoda Broughton and Charles Dickens Feminine representation Talairach Vielmas argues is actually presented in a hyper realistic way in such anti realistic genres as children s literature and sensation fiction In fact it is precisely the clash between fantasy and reality that enables the narratives to interrogate the real and re create a new type of realism that exposes the normative constraints imposed to contain the female body In her exploration of the female body and its representations Talairach Vielmas examines how Victorian fantasies and sensation novels deconstruct and reconstruct femininity she focuses in particular on the links between the female characters and consumerism and shows how these serve to illuminate the tensions underlying the representation of the Victorian ideal
