Holocaust Literature: Lerner to Zychlinsky, index S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004 The Holocaust - a Literary Inspiration? Nadja Winter, 2004-05-17 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2.0 bzw 64 % B University of Newcastle upon Tyne School of English Literature Language and Linguistics course Seminar language English abstract Half a century after the last liberation of the death camps in 1945 which were located in a vast part of Europe it is not just scientists and historians who are still interested in the Holocaust one of the most traumatic events of modern European history For the rest of us Holocaust literature is seemingly a helpful method to reveal testimonies and survivor experiences Thus this topic has reached a certain status in literature Today a huge variety of texts deal with the Holocaust in multi faceted ways which cover nearly all literary genres This essay will primarily concentrate on the works of Anne Frank A Diary of a Young Girl Charlotte Delbo Auschwitz and After and Art Spiegelman The Complete Maus The second focus then will be on Primo Levi s The Drowned and the Saved who was also studied on the module These texts are outstanding and inimitable in how they treat the Holocaust how they have reached people s hearts and minds and how other people began to deal with the happenings of these dreadful times after their publication All texts represent examples of different literary genres like Anne Frank s diary or Art Spiegelman s comic book Charlotte Delbo s work combines three types of literature in one masterpiece namely prose poetry and drama whereas Levi s account is a more or less philosophical analysis of the question why all this could happen However reading such literature does not automatically imply that the Holocaust in itself can fully be understood On the contrary it can only provide a way of approaching the circumstances which millions of prisoners endured Hence many Holocaust survivors tried to use the art of writing to overcome the terrifying things they had seen and most of all the things they had to endure physically and psychologically in the concentration and death camps or in the Jewish ghettos and from which they had and still continued to suffer They had to struggle between the desire to forget but yet face the memory every day and the impulse to remember uncover and record every detail of its reality To speak about the unspeakable seemed impossible Bearing witness therefore was not likely to be the first thing on the
