Birberick, 1998-12 This study examines author audience relations in the works of the seventeenth century French poet Jean de La Fontaine Focusing on the Fables Les Amours de Psyche et de Cupidon and the Contes Anne L. Birberick explores how La Fontaine remains a largely subversive artist even while he seeks to establish himself within a conventional system of literary patronage Birberick offers an anatomy of readers as she shows how La Fontaine simultaneously appeals to multiple readers whose tastes range from the literal to the ironic from the orthodox to the heterodox To negotiate successfully between and among such diverse audiences the poet employs techniques of concealment and disclosure to foster an anticanonical public The Logic of Idolatry in Seventeenth-century French Literature Ellen McClure, 2020 Idolatry was one of the dominant and most contentious themes of early modern religious polemics This book argues that many of the best known literary and philosophical works of the French seventeenth century were deeply engaged and concerned with the theme In a series of case studies and close readings it shows that authors used the logic of idolatry to interrogate the fractured and fragile relationship between the divine and the human with particular attention to the increasingly fraught question of the legitimacy of human agency Reading d Urf Descartes La Fontaine S vign Molire and Racine through the lens of idolatry reveals heretofore hidden aspects of their work all while demonstrating the link between the emergent autonomy of literature and philosophy and the confessional conflicts that dominated the period In so doing Professor McClure illustrates how religion can become a source of interpretive complexity and how this dynamism can and should be taken into account in early modern French studies and beyond ELLEN MCCLURE is Associate Professor of History and French University of Illinois at Chicago
