Reflections On Early Christianity:

Reflections on Early Christianity Wallace S. Jungers, 2005-05-01 The main theme of this book is that beautiful letter which we call 1 John We do not know who wrote it or exactly when it was written But scholars have a theory that it was written by members of a group of Christians whom they call The Johannine School These were Christian thinkers who gathered around the Apostle John some of whom wrote the Gospel of John and Revelation and others of whom wrote this beautiful mystical letter It opens with a prologue much like the prologue of the Gospel of John which also has its roots in Genesis We declare to you what was from the beginning What we have heard What we have seen with our eyes What we have looked at and touched with our hands Concerning the word of life This life was revealed And we have seen it and testify to it And declare to you the eternal life That was with the Father And was revealed to us We declare to you what we have seen and heard So that you also may have fellowship with us And truly our fellowship is with the Father And with his Jesus Christ We are writing these things So that our joy may be complete 1 Jn 1:1 Mission in the Early Church Edward L. Charlesworth, Michael A. Daise, 2003-03-01 After the death of Alexander the Great in 323 B C E Jewish scholars especially those in Jerusalem and Alexandria turned increasingly to the eternal questions that define those who reflect on human life These sages sought to comprehend the origin and essence of things and pondered how it was possible to learn and obtain insight Wisdom they came to see was the fashioner of all things who disclosed what is secret and what is manifest Many of these Jewish intellectuals saw Wisdom as the closest being to God In this book five of the world's foremost scholars in the field reflect on the Wisdom traditions in Second Temple Judaism and earliest Christianity Roland Murphy late of Duke University explores the biblical and Jewish wisdom literature and focuses on ways that Jews sought to understand sin and suffering Peter Schfer Princeton University argues that the association of Wisdom Torah and Israel found in biblical literature was taken up much later in the writings of the Rabbinic sages Peder Borgen formerly University of Trondheim Norway examines the similarities in the writings of the Hellenistic Jewish Wisdom teacher Philo of Alexandria and the writer of the Gospel of John D Moody Smith Duke University focuses on the Passion narrative in the Gospel of John as he demonstrates how much John relies on Jewish Wisdom tradition in his gospel James Charlesworth Princeton Theological Seminary examines the Wisdom aspects of some Jewish apocalypses in order to demonstrate that the Gospel of John draws upon both the Jewish Wisdom literature and Jewish apocalypses James H Charlesworth is George L Collord Professor of New Testament Language and Literature at Princeton Theological Seminary director of the seminary's Dead Sea Scrolls Project and co editor of the Trinity Press Faith and Scholarship Colloquies FSC series Michael A Daise is Assistant Professor of Religion at The College of William and Mary and has published articles on the Old Testament Pseudepigrapha and the Dead Sea Scrolls

Reflections on Religious Individuality Jörg

Rüpke, Wolfgang Spickermann, 2012-07-04 This volume will concentrate its search for religious individuality on texts and practices related to texts from Classical Greece to Late Antiquity Texts offer opportunities to express one's own religious experience and shape one's own religious personality within the boundaries of what is acceptable Inscriptions in public or at least easily accessible spaces might substantially differ in their range of expressions and topics from letters within a sectarian religious group which at the same time might put enormous pressure on conformity among its members regarded as deviant by a majority of contemporaries Furthermore texts might offer and advocate new practices in reading meditating remembering or repeating these very texts Such practices might contribute to the development of religious individuality experienced or expressed in factual isolation responsibility competition and finally in philosophical or theological reflections about personhood or self The volume develops its topic in three sections addressing personhood representative and charismatic individuality the interaction of individual and groups and practices of reading and writing It explores Jewish Christian Greek and Latin texts

Jews and Christians - Parting Ways in the First Two Centuries CE? Jens

Schröter, Benjamin A. Edsall, Joseph Verheyden, 2021-08-23 The present volume is based on a conference held in October

2019 at the Faculty of Theology of Humboldt University Berlin as part of a common project of the Australian Catholic University the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and the Humboldt University Berlin The aim is to discuss the relationships of Jews and Christians in the first two centuries CE against the background of recent debates which have called into question the image of parting ways for a description of the relationships of Judaism and Christianity in antiquity One objection raised against this metaphor is that it accentuates differences at the expense of commonalities Another critique is that this image looks from a later perspective at historical developments which can hardly be grasped with such a metaphor It is more likely that distinctions between Jews Christians Jewish Christians Christian Jews etc are more blurred than the image of parting ways allows In light of these considerations the contributions in this volume discuss the cogency of the parting of the ways model with a look at prominent early Christian writers and places and suggest more appropriate metaphors to describe the relationships of Jews and Christians in the early period

Reflections of Glory Linda Belleville, 2015-01-29 Part I of this work determines where Paul is dependent on Jewish and Hellenistic exegesis of the Moses story where he provides a fresh interpretation Part II brings form critical studies of the Greek papyri to bear on the epistolary function of these verses Part III investigates first century homiletic patterns exegetical techniques and material parallels in order to illuminate the sequence of Paul's thought At issue in these verses is Paul's apostolic credibility Paul selectively weaves together text tradition and haggadah using accepted methods of text interpretation and a common Jewish homiletical form to provide his readers with reliable standards of apostolic accreditation and to defend himself against those who sought to discredit him as a failure in reaching his own people Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections

ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations. However, for friendship to advance, there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions. Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues, seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions. It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations, in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews, his closest personal friend. Contributors: Balwant Singh Dhillon, Timothy J. Gianotti, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Ruben L. F. Habito, Ryan McAnnally Linz, Stephen Butler Murray, Eleanor Nesbitt, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sendor, Johann M. Vento, and Miroslav Volf.

ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present-day relations. Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II. Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes. Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross-religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present-day relations. At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope. If memory informs our past, hope sets the horizon for our future. How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future? And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good? Between memory and hope, this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations. Contributors: Rahuldeep Singh Gill, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Flora A. Keshgegian, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sendor, Muhammad Suheyl Umar, and Michael von Brück.

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here, prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy, explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom, learning, teachings, messages for good living. How should religions go about sharing their wisdom? These chapters, representing six faith traditions—Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Sikh, and Buddhist—explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions, why and how it should be shared internally and externally, and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing. This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition-based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared. Contributors: Pal Ahluwalia, Timothy Gianotti, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Sallie B. King, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sendor, Miroslav Volf.

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces. Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments, polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media, and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions. This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups, ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning. As religion takes on new forms, the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sender Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra A Reflection of the Life and Legacy of St Andrew: The Patron Saint of Scotland. Margaret Light, 2025-06-06 Discover the inspiring journey of St Andrew the Patron Saint of Scotland in A Reflection of the Life and Legacy of St Andrew This comprehensive exploration traces his humble beginnings as a Galilean fisherman his role as one of Jesus apostles and his enduring influence on Scottish national identity Learn how his faith martyrdom and the iconic Saltire cross shaped Scotland s history culture and spirituality Perfect for history enthusiasts and those interested in salvation and Luke's depiction of the universal scope of the gospel. This readable, relevant commentary attends to the linguistic, historical, literary, and theological elements of Luke that are essential to its meaning and considers Luke's significance for the church and the life of faith today.
