note that it has accomplished this in the brief period of less than fifty years and consider the radical character of its teaching affecting profoundly its followers religiously medically socially and intellectually we are the more ready to wonder at its rise and progress Christian Science is associated with the name of Mary Baker G Eddy She claims to be the discoverer and founder of it And this claim is reiterated by all loyal Christian Scientists No decrees issuing from the Vatican have found a more ready response from loyal subjects than the expressed will of Mrs Eddy and no Pope it seems has assumed such sublime right to give commandments to mankind I am concerned in this essay with only one thing namely Mrs Eddy s claim to be the discoverer and founder of Christian Science The ability of Mrs Eddy can be and I think should be freely conceded In fact she has proved herself to be a genius Her moral character too has stood very well the fierce fires of criticism though there are some things in her history and some qualities in her disposition that are not flattering These matters however weigh nothing as concerns the question before us in this discussion namely the original source of the principles of Christian Science Reflections Upon Laughter, and Remarks Upon the Fable of the Bees Francis Hutcheson,1750 The Idea of God in Early Religions ,1910 The spiritual diary of Emanuel Swedenborg, Tr. by G. Bush and J.H. Smithson (and J.F. Buss). Emanuel Swedenborg,1902
