Tennessee Librarian ,1994 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002 The Cure of Poetry in an Age of Prose Mary Kinzie,1993-07-15 The role of the poet Mary Kinzie writes is to engage the most profound subjects with the utmost in expressive clarity The role of the critic is to follow the poet word for word into the arena where the creative struggle occurs How this mutual purpose is served ideally and practically is the subject of this bracingly polemical collection of essays A distinguished poet and critic Kinzie assesses poetry s situation during the past twenty five years Ours she contends is literally a prosaic age not only in the popularity of prose genres but in the resultant compromises with truth and elegance in literature In essays on the rhapsodic fallacy confessionalism and the romance of perceptual response Kinzie diagnoses some of the trends that diminish the poet s flexibility Conversely she also considers individual poets Randall Jarrell Elizabeth Bishop Howard Nemerov Seamus Heaney and John Ashbery who have found ingenious ways of averting the risks of prosaism and preserving the special character of poetry Focusing on poet Louise Bogan and novelist J M Coetzee Kinzie identifies a crucial and curative overlap between the practices of great prose writing and great poetry In conclusion she suggests a new approach for teaching writers of poetry and fiction Forcefully argued these essays will be widely read and debated among critics and poets alike

Discourses on the Edges of Life Vicent Salvador,Adéla Kotátková,Ignasi Clemente,2020-04-15 Death inhabits our collective imaginary even though sometimes like a squatter it hides discretely in order to avoid conflicts It is undoubtedly a multi faceted subject of study which requires consideration from an interdisciplinary perspective This book deals with this phenomenon and more specifically with the discourses that surround and construct our perspectives and understanding of death and dying Of course the present volume does not attempt to be exhaustive and considers the subject from several standpoints including linguistics anthropology history of medicine and importantly literary studies It combines various points of view and different methodologies of knowledge in the hope that they come together to constitute a written dialogue or more precisely a polylogue The ordering of the texts in this volume provides readers with an itinerary that begins with more general approaches such as a historical presentation of the medicalisation of death and an in depth reflection on the best way to die and ends with studies of specific literary works from different periods The itinerary that this book provides is framed by a discourse analysis based overview that explores how different approaches to death and dying intersect and complement each other in an interdisciplinary endeavour This analysis focuses on literary and non literary genres in order to shed some new light on a topic that is inexhaustible because of its sociocultural relevance

Literature of Crisis Olga Bezhanova,2017-07-28 The book explores novels essays and poetry published by Spanish writers in response to the global economic crisis that began in 2008 Spain has been experiencing the crisis in a particularly painful way and the artistic response to these traumatic events has been powerful and abundant The literature of the crisis is pointing to the probability that the crisis is not a temporary problem that will be resolved once and for all if correct economic measures are taken To the contrary there is every reason to believe that the losses in long term employment the growing precariousness of work the increased economic insecurity the citizens disillusionment with the capacity of democratic governments to withstand the pressures of global capital the erosion of the welfare state and the explosive growth in inequality that we associate with the crisis are not likely to be reversed Spanish artists are exploring the reasons behind Spain's particularly painful experience of the crisis and at the same time are placing the suffering that the crisis is causing in Spain within the context of global developments that are ensuring its durability Essays by Antonio Muñoz Molina and Lucía Etxebarria novels by Rafael Chirbes Luis García Montero Benjamín Prado and Belén Gopegui and poetry by the artists who contributed to the collections titled En legítima defensa Poetas en tiempos de crisis and Marca da España Retrato político de una sociedad en crisis point to the necessity of expanding our vision of the crisis from the purely financial to a broader definition that will include the changes the crisis augurs for the areas of human existence that lie outside the strictly economic realm The Monthly Literary Advertiser, 1834 Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes Mosaics of Mary Mary Daugharty, 2008-08-14 Mosaics of Mary is a compilation of poems I have written over the past seven years This book is a reflection of years of hard work I have gone through in order to understand and accept being an abandoned child Writing poetry has given me an outlet that I did not have as a child My goal in releasing this book is to have a voice It is not my intention to cause harm or intentionally hurt others Some of the poems are painful where as others are fun and random Life is not perfect nor is this first piece of work I am releasing It will not speak to everyone but I hope that if just one poem speaks to someone who is hurting then the risk I have taken in putting my work out there will be worth it Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1993 Autoethnographies from the Neoliberal Academy Jess Moriarty, 2019-11-06 The shift to a neoliberal agenda has for many academics intensified the pressure and undermined the pleasure that their work can and does bring This book contains stories from a range of autoethnographers seeking to challenge traditional academic discourse by providing personal and evocative writings that detail moments of profound transformation and change The book focuses on the experiences of one academic and the stories that her dialogues with other autoethnographers generated in response to the neoliberal shift in higher education Chapters use a variety of genres to provide an innovative text that identifies strategies to challenge neoliberal governance

Autoethnography is as a methodology that can be used as form of resistance to this cultural shift by exploring effects on individual academic and personal lives The stories are necessarily emotional personal important It is hoped that they will promote other ways of navigating higher education that do not align with neoliberalism and instead offer more holistic and human ways of being an academic This book highlights the impact of neoliberalism on academics freedom to teach and think freely With 40% of academics in the UK considering other forms of employment this book will be of interest to existing and future academics who want to survive the new environment and maintain their motivation and passion for academic life
