Reflections On Development In Southeast Asia:

Reflections on Development in Southeast Asia Teck Ghee Lim, 1988 The rapid pace of economic development in Southeast Asia has involved a changing and often volatile relationship between traditional structures and values and new structures associated with state and administrative power In this volume a variety of original perspectives is offered on crucial subjects including region the bureaucracy the state and non governmental organizations Critical Reflections on Development D.

Kingsbury, 2013-03-05 Designed as a critique of the key failures of international development this book brings together practitioners policy makers researchers activists and academics in an attempt to work toward a shared conceptualisation of development by outlining and critically reflecting on their own understanding of development Reflections on Human

Development Mahbub ul Haq, 1995 Group of Seven Handbook of Comparative and Development Public Administration

Ali Farazmand, 2019-02-21 With contributions from nearly 80 international experts this comprehensive resource covers diverse issues aspects and features of public administration and policy around the world It focuses on bureaucracy and bureaucratic politics in developing and industrialized countries and emphasizing administrative performance and policy implementation as well as political system maintenance and regime enhancement The book covers the history of public administration and bureaucracy in Persia Greece Rome and Byzantium and among the Aztecs Incas and Mayas public administration in small island states Eastern Europe and ethics and other contemporary issues in public administration

An Analysis of Mahbub Ul Haq's Reflections on Human Development Riley Quinn, 2017-07-05 What is the ultimate goal of any human society There have been many answers to this question But by producing a series of notably well structured arguments economist Mahbub ul Haq s Reflections on Human Development persuaded readers that the goal should be defined quite simply as the requirement that each society improve the lives of its citizens If this is the agreed aim Haq continues then economic development should be designed to support human development His well structured reasoning helped development economists recalibrate much of what had previously been regarded as self evident that economic productivity was the main barometer of social well being The work had a profound effect and Haq s thinking helped produce a new understanding of what development actually meant Haq conscientiously mapped out arguments and counter arguments to persuade readers that development did not simply mean an increase in productivity but rather an increase in human development the capability of people to live the lives they want to By bringing the abstract back to the concrete Haq reevaluated the neoliberal reasoning that suggested economic development necessarily benefitted everybody And by virtue of his strong command of reasoning Haq showed how economic development provided no guarantees that rich people would spend money on improving health education or other human development outcomes for the poor Reflections on Principles and Practice of International Law Terry D. Gill, Wybo P. Heere, 2021-10-18 This collection of essays in honour of Professor Leo Bouchez covers a wide variety of topics within the field of international law and related disciplines which Professor Bouchez came into contact with over the course of his long and distinguished career as a practising attorney The contributions by a distinguished group of friends and professional colleagues reflect the diversity of his intellectual interests and professional activities of both a theoretical and a practical nature The essays include such topics as jurisdiction extradition law human rights and self determination the use of force and the enforcement of United Nations sanctions territory and the law of the sea as well as essays on municipal law topics relating to international law and on international relations Professor Bouchez was a senior partner in the firm of Houthoff and Associates and Adjunct Professor of International Law at the University of Utrecht until his retirement in 1998 Land Use: Reflection On Spatial Informatics Agriculture And Development

African Development Perspectives: A Holistic

Reflection T A Ngwana,2024-01-05 Africa remains a continent that is yet to achieve its full potentials despite an abundance of resources and a rich cultural pedigree There have been various attempts to dissect the impediments to the continent s progress in its march towards development and true independence Consequently this book moves away from mere identification of challenges to proffering solutions The ideas put forward about African development in this book draw from a multiplicity of backgrounds They are also offered through the prism of the lived experiences of contributors who are keen on engendering an African solution that weaves global dynamics into Africa s cultural context and did not shy away from identifying themselves as global citizens from Africa The compelling read is a critical appraisal of germane issues in Africa s quest for development which speaks truth to both the powerful and the powerless within and beyond Africa on why prioritising Africa s development is as pressing as the Global climate catastrophe Development and Investment in

Infrastructure in Developing Countries: A 10-Year Reflection Innocent Musonda,Erastus Mwanaumo,Adetayo

Onososen,Retsepile Kalaoane,2024-12-20 Development and Investment in Infrastructure in Developing Countries A 10 Year Reflection includes the contributions to the 10th International Conference on Development and Investment In infrastructure DII 2024 Livingstone Zambia 24 26 July 2024 The papers discuss evaluate and devise ways of maximising the benefits of infrastructure development and achieve outputs that will inform policy and wider development goals This Open Access book is invaluable to leaders researchers practitioners and stakeholders involved or interested in infrastructure development in developing countries Development and Welfare Policy in South Asia Gabriele Koehler,Deepta Chopra,2014-03-05

This book sheds light on social policies in six South Asian countries introduced between 2003 and 2013 examining the ways in which these policies have come about and what this reflects about the nature of the state in each of these countries It offers a detailed analysis of the nature of these policies introduced in recent years in Bangladesh India Maldives Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka and illustrates the similarities and differences in policy approaches amongst the six countries Through this analysis the book explores the thesis of whether there is a particular type of developmental welfare state that can be observed across South Asia The focus is on social policies or policies designed to address poverty and deliver welfare at the level of programming and design i.e. the stated intent of these policies. The book also presents an analysis of the fiscal space available in each of the six countries thereby drawing conclusions about the financial feasibility of a developmental welfare state model in the region. This comprehensive book uniquely explores critical aspects of policy debates on a possible move from welfare to rights. It introduces students and researchers in development studies, social policy and South Asian studies to innovative welfare programmes in South Asia and gives a new perspective on the nature and patterns of welfare in South Asia with the view of tackling inequality and promoting well-being. Explaining South Asia's Development Success Sadiq Ahmed, 2006-01-01. South Asia has performed well over the past 25 years in reducing poverty, improving human development and increasing growth, but faster progress with poverty reduction will require a higher rate of growth. This book shows that the development performance is not a puzzle but largely explained by good policies. Countries in the region have maintained good macroeconomic environments, opened up their economies to greater domestic and international competition and reduced the role of corrupt and inefficient public enterprises. Feminist Reflections on Growth and Transformation Debra M. Kawahara, Olivia M. Espin, 2013-04-15. Understanding multicultural feminist perspectives is vital for clinicians working to effectively help women in therapy. Feminist Reflections on Growth and Transformation: Asian American Women in Therapy provides therapists with valuable insight and research into the identities of Asian and Asian American women all toward the crucial goal of being more effective when providing therapeutic help. In-depth explorations into the women's personal experiences and psychological issues provide an empowering multicultural feminist viewpoint that challenges assumptions and stereotypes about their identities while presenting innovative therapeutic approaches. Identity is made up from several factors such as worldview, beliefs, values, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, class, age, and religious orientation. Feminist Reflections on Growth and Transformation: Asian American Women in Therapy explores how these common factors impact psychotherapy approaches for women of Asian American backgrounds. This unique text presents the current research, what the data mean for adjusting clinical strategies, and personal accounts from Asian and Asian American women. Each chapter is extensively referenced. Topics in Feminist Reflections on Growth and Transformation: Asian American Women in Therapy include breaking free of the passive subservient stereotypes defining gender identity, cultural and identity issues, emotional parity negotiations in Chinese immigrant women's marital relationships, suicide as a means of agency rather than simply a cry for help, the use of feminist and multicultural principles with survivors of domestic violence, research on Asian American lesbians' health, integrating multiculturalism and feminism in the treatment of eating disorders, innovative therapeutic approach based on Hindu understandings of Shakti, approaches to work on body image and eating disorders, group counseling with Asian American women, training multicultural feminist therapy practitioners. Feminist Reflections on Growth and Transformation: Asian American Women in Therapy is an insightful exploration of the culturally sensitive knowledge and skills clinicians need to work more effectively with female clients of Asian ancestry. This stimulating work is important reading for therapists counselors psychologists and others in the mental health and social work fields
