Asian English Language Classrooms Handoyo Widodo,Alistair Wood,Deepti Gupta,2017-06-14 The teaching of English in the Asian context is always challenging and dynamic because both teachers and learners have diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds Equally important where English is not widely used outside the classroom English language classrooms are an authentic site of learner engagement For these reasons for all those concerned with contemporary English language teaching ELT in Asia Asian English Language Classrooms Where Theory and Practice Meet provides an account of theoretical orientations and practices in the teaching of English to multilingual speakers whose primary language is not English While covering the fundamental ELT areas e g the teaching of language skills educational literature the use of technology in ELT the role of pragmatics in ELT social psychology of the language classroom and language classroom management with which every language teacher and teacher trainer must be concerned this volume showcases how particular orientations shape ELT practices We believe that practicing English teachers must have a heightened awareness of the theory behind their practice At the same time the theoretical stance must be firmly anchored in actual classrooms Containing newly commissioned chapters written by well regarded and emerging scholars this book will appeal not only to beginning teachers or teachers in training but also to established teachers around Asia where English is used as a lingua franca If you are a student teacher of English or an English teacher who would like to see what other progressive teachers like you are doing across Asia this is the book you have been looking for

Second Language Writing Systems Vivian Cook,Benedetta Bassetti,2005-05-23 Second Language Writing Systems looks at how people learn and use a second language writing system arguing that they are affected by characteristics of the first and second writing systems to a certain extent independently of the languages involved This book presents for the first time the effects of writing systems on language reading and writing and on language awareness and provides a new platform for discussing bilingualism biliteracy and writing systems The approach is interdisciplinary with contributions not only from applied linguists and psychologists but also corpus linguists educators and phoneticians A variety of topics are covered from handwriting to spelling word recognition to the mental lexicon and language textbooks to metalinguistic awareness Though most of the studies concern adult L2 learners and users other populations covered include minority children immersion students and bilingual children While the emphasis is on English as the L2 writing system many other writing systems are analysed as L1 or L2 Arabic Chinese Dutch Gujarati Indonesian Irish Italian and Japanese Approaches that are represented include contrastive analysis transfer poststructuralism connectionism and corpus analysis The readership is SLA and bilingualism researchers students and teachers around the world language teachers will also find much food for thought

Language Learner Narrative Helen O'Sullivan, 2014-01-02 Increasing numbers of people have contact with other cultures and languages Language Learner Narrative examines representations of this phenomenon in literary texts using an applied linguistic approach This analysis of written narratives of language learning and cross cultural encounter complements objective studies in intercultural communication and second language acquisition research Kant's use of the term Mündigkeit in his essay What is Enlightenment is used to frame the complex issues of language identity meaning and reality presented by the texts Augmented by Pierre Bourdieu's concept of linguistic capital this framing forms a counterpoint to the positioning of these authors as avatars of poststructuralist wisdom Eva Hoffman The work includes a uniquely detailed linguistic analysis of Emine Sevgi Zdamar's Mutter Zunge and further texts by other widely studied and less familiar authors Yoko Tawada Eva Hoffman Vassilis Alexakis Z Do Rock It also lists literary sources of language learner narrative Through its fundamental examination of what and how language means to us as individuals this volume will be of wide appeal to students and researchers in applied linguistics second language acquisition intercultural communication and literary studies

Sociocultural and Power-Relational Dimensions of Multilingual Writing Amir Kalan, 2021-05-14 This book examines the writing practices of three adult multilingual writers through the prism of their writing in English as an additional language It illustrates some of the social cultural and political contexts of the writers literacy activities and discusses how these impact their literate and intellectual lives It reflects on the para and meta textual dimensions of writing because organic writing practices are almost always performed within sociocultural and power relational contexts In our highly compartmentalized educational structures writing education has been severed from those organic components focusing mainly on writing stylistics This book proposes creating space for organic writing practices in our everyday writing pedagogies and argues for a writing pedagogy that acknowledges the complex interactions of social emotional and identity related layers of writing

Exploring the Dynamics of Second Language Writing Barbara Kroll, 2003-04-14 A collection of 13 original articles this book is intended to provide a series of discussions about multiple aspects of second language writing presenting chapters that collectively address a range of issues that are important to new teachers at the post secondary level The chapters provide scholarly visions insight and interpretation oriented toward explaining the field of teaching academic writing to non native speakers The book is designed to provide foundational content knowledge in this area each chapter authored by recognized experts in the field Throughout the chapters presentation and review of scholarship is presented primarily in the interest of understanding how such knowledge directly or potentially impart teaching making this a pedagogically relevant book In addition to helping train new teachers the book will serve as an updated reference book for practicing teachers and scholars to consult Graduate Studies in Second Language Writing Kyle McIntosh, Carolina Pelaez-Morales, 2015-08-15 Authors in this proposed collection approach issues like academic literacy socialization and professionalization from their individual positions as mentors and mentees involved with graduate study in the field of second language L2 writing A Scholar's Guide to Getting Published in English Mary Jane Curry, Theresa Lillis, 2013-11-25 In many locations around the globe scholars are coming under increasing pressure to publish in English in addition to other languages However research has shown that proficiency in English is not always the key to success in English medium publishing This guide aims to help scholars explore the larger social practices politics networks and resources involved in academic publishing and to encourage scholars to consider how they wish to take part in these practices as well as to engage in current debates about them Based on 10 years of research in academic writing and publishing practices this guide will be invaluable both to individuals looking for information and support in publishing and to those working to support others publishing activities Color, Race, and English Language Teaching Andy Curtis, Mary Romney, 2019-08-07 The unique contribution of this book is to bring together Critical Race Theory and narrative inquiry and apply them specifically to a largely overlooked area of experience within the field of TESOL What does it mean to be a TESOL professional of color To address this question TESOL professionals of color from all over the world representing a wide range of racial ethnic and cultural backgrounds offer accounts of their own experiences responding to two related questions Can you identify critical events or conditions in your personal or professional life that are the result of you being a person of color that affect who you are now and what you do as a TESOL professional of color What have you learned from these events or conditions that have had a bearing on your life as a TESOL professional of color Color Race and English Language Teaching Shades of Meaning is intended for researchers professionals and students in the field of English language teaching The book is designed as a text for MATESOL programs and courses that deal with issues of language culture and teaching The introduction presents a brief overview of relevant aspects of Critical Race Theory narrative inquiry and educational research Focus questions for each chapter are included to help readers apply aspects of the narratives to their own experience Demystifying Career Paths after Graduate School Ryuko Kubota, Yilin Sun, 2013-01-01 This edited book offers concrete information and useful suggestions to graduate students who are seeking employment at institutions of higher education in North America and other parts of the world This book also targets entry level faculty members who are exploring increased participation in professional activities The book features critical turning points in career trajectories demystifies hidden institutional structures and illuminates blind spots that are critical for career success The authors are scholars from nonnative English speaking and or racially minority backgrounds in the fields of applied linguistics and teaching English to speakers of other languages The firsthand suggestions offered by these authors are also applicable to non minority professionals and those in other related disciplines Furthermore the book assists faculty mentors and administrators to understand the unique challenges and issues faced by minority professionals Distinctive features of the book are 1 theme based approach with concrete examples and specific advice 2 focus on victory narratives of success and strategies rather than victim narratives of struggles 3 accessible style and 4 wide range of experiences narrated by both novice and established scholars This guidebook can be read independently or adopted as a resource book for graduate seminars

Risk in Academic Writing Lucia Thesen, Linda Cooper, 2013-11-15 This book brings together a variety of voices students and teachers journal editors and authors writers from the global north and south to interrogate the notion of risk as it applies to the production of academic writing Risk taking is viewed as a productive force in teaching learning and writing and one that can be used to challenge the silences and erasures inherent in academic tradition and convention Widening participation and the internationalisation of higher education make questions of language register agency and identity in postgraduate writing all the more pressing and this book offers a powerful argument against the further reinforcement of a northern Anglophone understanding of knowledge and its production and dissemination This volume will provide food for thought for postgraduate students and their supervisors everywhere

Reflections On Multiliterate Lives: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Reflections On Multiliterate Lives : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
