

REFLECTIVE TEACHING

DEFINITION

Reflective teaching is a process where teachers reflect on their own teaching practices and learn from their own experiences.

This type of reflection allows teachers to see what works well in their classrooms and what needs improvement. Reflective teaching also helps teachers to understand the impact that their teaching has on students.

EXAMPLES

Examples of reflective teaching include:

- Observing other teachers and comparing their practice to your own.
- Taking notes on your own teaching practice and thinking about ways to improve.
- Asking for feedback from your students to achieve self-improvement.

Reflections On The Futures Of Marketing Practice And Education:

Reflections on the Futures of Marketing Donald R. Lehmann, Katherine E. Jocz, 1997 Marketing As Strategy
Nirmalya Kumar, 2004-05-05 CEOs are more than frustrated by marketing's inability to deliver results. Has the profession lost its relevance? Nirmalya Kumar argues that although the function of marketing has lost ground, the importance of marketing as a mind set geared toward customer focus and market orientation has gained momentum across the entire organization. This book challenges marketers to change their role from implementers of traditional marketing functions to strategic coordinators of organization-wide initiatives aimed at profitably delivering value to customers. Kumar outlines seven cross-functional and bottom-line oriented initiatives that can put marketing back on the CEO's agenda and elevate its role in shaping the destiny of the firm.

The SAGE Handbook of Marketing Theory Pauline Maclaran, 2009-12-22 This exciting new Handbook brings together the latest in debates concerning the development of marketing theory featuring original contributions from a selection of leading international authors. The collection aims to give greater conceptual cohesion to the field by drawing together the many disparate perspectives and presenting them in one volume. The contributors are all leading international scholars chosen to represent the intellectual diversity within marketing theory.

A Twenty-First Century Guide to Aldersonian Marketing Thought Ben Wooliscroft, Robert D. Tamlia, Stanley J. Shapiro, 2006-02-23 A Twenty-First Century Guide to Aldersonian Marketing Thought introduces readers to the life, the writings, and the intellectual legacy of Wroe Alderson, the preeminent marketing thinker of the mid-twentieth century. Both Alderson's seminal contributions to marketing theory and his best practices articles in the areas of marketing management and ethics have been reproduced. Contributions by others about Wroe Alderson include a biography and a number of previously published articles that build on Alderson's theoretical contributions. Six original articles further explore Wroe Alderson's life, his work, his character, and his intellectual impact. This book also contains two bibliographies: one of material written by Alderson over a forty-year period and the other of publications that discuss his work. This single volume provides readers with an in-depth understanding of the nature, the scope, and the magnitude of Alderson's highly original and lasting contributions to marketing theory and thought.

Internal Marketing Tatsuya Kimura, 2017-04-21 Establishing, developing, or promoting a brand or product in a market stems from aligning of divisions within an organization with the perspective of providing value to customers, an idea which is known as internal marketing. Unlike external marketing, internal marketing ensures that organizational divisions are aligned in the marketing strategies so that the resultant external marketing is effective and not impeded by internal shortcomings. This book provides a comprehensive review of internal marketing research and illustrates the role of internal marketing in enhancing the capabilities of a company's internal resources. Putting forward a guiding principle for business practices by considering such questions from a multilateral perspective, this book is a must-read for practitioners and academics alike.
