Democratic Curriculum Leadership James G. Henderson,Daniel J. Castner,Jennifer L. Schneider,2018-03-06 This book provides educators with guidance on studying and practicing a curriculum problem solving artistry that is focused on deepening students subject matter understandings through democratic self and social understandings The book begins with a discussion of seven principles of curriculum leadership which provide a framework for the presentation of a theoretical platform that guides a four phased process The curriculum problem solving has four interrelated phases and advice on studying and practicing each phase has been organized into separate chapters using a montage format incorporating inquiry prompts supportive quotations critical commentaries practical tips narrative illustrations and study recommendations There is a continuous recognition of the ways in which the four phases are folded into one another in highly interactive ways hence the problem solving approach is described as a fourfold process The text concludes with an epilogue honoring the disciplined journey of understanding and the pursuit of professional virtues that are central to the cultivation of problem solving artistry

An ethical oath that was created by twenty Ohio teacher leaders serves as a collegial pledge to embrace this disciplinary commitment Creating a Culture of Support for Teacher Leaders Rosemary Gornik, Wendy L. Samford, 2018-02-09 Within the pages of this book you will meet six K 12 practicing public school administrators and two university instructors who give concise study and practice guidance on two aims 1 to build the awareness and capabilities to become a lead professional for democratic ways of living and 2 to develop the school culture needed to support this teacher leadership Teacher leadership is not in addition to the many initiatives administrators face each day Rather you will read stories about teacher leadership incorporated into the initiatives that already exist By distributing leadership administrators organically utilize the gifts and talents that individual teachers already possess defying prescribed roles and specific job descriptions A key feature in this text is its problem solving orientation and the interplay among teaching learning leading research that raises critical questions for professionals ready to understand the nuances of educational growth in societies with democratic ideals In spite of the political demands for efficiency and accountability six administrators worked with teacher leaders in different contexts to develop and exercise the wisdom which honors the democratic ideals upon which our society was built

Anti-Authoritarian Curriculum Practice Daniel J. Castner, Jennifer L. Schneider, James G. Henderson, 2025-07-10 Drawing upon curriculum studies and utilizing curricular concepts this book provides a framework for teachers interested in imagining enacting and reflecting upon their daily practices in ways that defy the standardization and bureaucratic management of curriculum and instruction and responds to the needs and interests of their local contexts Although the specific experiences of teachers can vary significantly based on factors such as location district policies and community dynamics the current socio political landscape surrounding educational institutions from pre K through higher education de professionalizes educators Instead of providing an ideological critique of this state of affairs this book provides practitioners with a pragmatic framework that empowers them to critically and creatively engage curriculum in ways that are meaningful within their particular contexts Curriculum Studies Handbook - The Next Moment Erik Malewski, 2009-09-10 What comes after the reconceptualization of curriculum studies What is the contribution of the next wave of curriculum scholars Comprehensive and on the cutting edge this Handbook speaks to these questions and extends the conversation on present and future directions in curriculum studies through the work of twenty four newer scholars who explore each in their own unique ways the present moment in curriculum studies To contextualize the work of this up and coming generation each chapter is paired with a shorter response by a well known scholar in the field provoking an intra inter generational exchange that illuminates both historical trajectories and upcoming moments From theorizing at the crossroads of feminist thought and post colonialism to new perspectives that include critical race currere queer southern studies Black feminist cultural analysis post structural policy studies spiritual ecology and East West international philosophies present and future directions in the U S American field are revealed IAENG Transactions on Engineering Technologies Haeng Kon Kim, Sio-Iong

Tep Vol 22-N2 Teacher Education and Practice, 2010-08-16 Teacher Education and Practice a peer refereed journal is dedicated to the encouragement and the dissemination of research and scholarship related to professional education. The journal is concerned in the broadest sense with teacher preparation practice and policy issues related to the teaching profession as well as being concerned with learning in the school setting. The journal also serves as a forum for the exchange of diverse ideas and points of view within these purposes. As a forum the journal offers a public space in which to critically examine current discourse and practice as well as engage in generative dialogue. Alternative forms of inquiry and representation are invited and authors from a variety of backgrounds and diverse perspectives are encouraged to contribute. Teacher Education Practice is published by Rowman Littlefield.

Current Perspectives on the TESOL Practicum

Andrzej Cirocki, Irshat Madyarov, Laura Baecher, 2020-01-30 This volume presents the current state of the TESOL Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages practicum in 13 countries including Armenia, Australia, Chile, Costa Rica, Croatia, England, Indonesia, Japan, Malta, Poland, South Korea, Sweden, and the USA. Together the contributions offer a unique and contemporary view of how teachers are being educated and brought into the TESOL worldwide community of practice. This is the first publication to present diverse models/frameworks of the TESOL practicum from several international teaching contexts focusing on exemplary practicum cases in the selected countries.

Letters to the Field Boni Wozolek, Walter S. Gershon, Roland Mitchell, 2024-12-30 Letters to the Field: Curriculum Scholars' Stories for Future Generations encapsulates a generation of scholars who revitalized the field of Curriculum Studies across North America in the mid 1970s as well as the generations of scholars who immediately followed, all of whom are now themselves senior scholars. Rather than another edited work of reprints or new monographs, this volume seeks to do something special by providing an opportunity for this group of scholars to speak to their field about understandings they believe to be of significance. The strength of this book generally resides in two overarching factors. First, there is the depth and strength of this well rounded, highly regarded group of scholars whose work speaks to the heart of the interdisciplinary nature of curriculum studies and curriculum theorizing. Second, as you might imagine, this is a significant moment in the United States when the very foundation of curriculum theory, critical inquiry, and often an engagement with questions of race, queerness, disability, and the like, continues to be under attack in K-12 schools and universities across the United States. Contributors speak to the foundations of the field and the contemporary challenges that the field and schools of education more broadly must survive Contributions to this important work are five to seven handwritten or in the case of scholars who are unable to write typed pages There are also chapters that have accompanying photos and drawings The reproduction of actual letters in the book lend authenticity and will appeal to readers by giving an intimate view into the thoughts and wishes of these scholars We also understand that similar to the challenge folks might face when handwriting a document some writing might not be legible to all readers Therefore stable QR codes and or hyperlinks to typed versions of handwritten chapters are included so that readers can easily look at typed versions alongside the handwritten work online Letters to the Field makes an invaluable contribution to Curriculum Studies By providing a history of the rationale used to revitalize the field it will prove a valuable addition to the libraries of educators in a variety of disciplines

Action Research Methods S. Klein, 2012-06-18 In Action Research Methods the authors acknowledge that the methodology component is where most of the struggle and confusion lies with students in research methods courses The overall aim is to assist master's level education students with practical and theoretically grounded approaches to the action research process

The Praeger Handbook of Education and Psychology Raymond Horn, Joe Kincheloe, 2006-12-30 Cognition mind counseling psychology lesson plans learning styles and Vygotsky are just a few of the many subjects discussed in this exciting work Educators students counselors parents and others will find new understanding as they read and browse How does the immigrant experience affect student outcomes What are the effects of poverty on standardized testing How can a teacher or parent develop study skills in the special needs learner What is the effect of the school environment on students What are the larger issues at work in educating students of diverse races cultures and classes This work a rethinking of school psychology will be an essential resource for anyone who is interested in teaching and learning It combines effective traditional knowledge with contemporary insights into the nature of today's schools and students

Reuben's Fall Sheri L Leafgren, 2016-06-16 This study offers a lens on two kindergarten classrooms examining moments of disobedience as children interacted with children their teachers and the space and time elements of the classroom environments Through Eisner's educational criticism author Sherry Leafgren also examines the elements of school kindergarten and teachers within the spaces of their intersections with the children While past research has directed our attention to addressing the problem of classroom disobedience Leafgren provides an opportunity and means to view these familiar actions through fresh lenses of possibilities Predicated by an event in the researcher's teaching life she utilizes Deleuze and Guattari's rhizoanalysis to openly seek lateral paths of understanding by linking and folding the findings with texts other than those that would be normally used toward developing new understandings and questions regarding children's disobediences An earlier version of this book was awarded the distinguished dissertation award from the International Institute for Qualitative Methodology Assessment of Higher Order Thinking Skills Gregory Schraw, Daniel H. Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies Craig Kridel, 2010-02-16

The Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies provides a comprehensive introduction to the academic field of curriculum studies for the scholar, student, teacher, and administrator. The study of curriculum beginning in the early 20th century served primarily the areas of school administration and teaching and was seen as a method to design and develop programs of study. The field subsequently expanded to draw upon disciplines from the arts, humanities, and social sciences and to examine larger educational forces and their effects upon the individual, society, and conceptions of knowledge. Curriculum studies has now emerged to embrace an expansive and contested conception of academic scholarship while focusing upon a diverse and complex dynamic among educational experiences, practices, settings, actions, and theories in relation to personal and institutional needs and interests. The Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies serves to inform and to introduce terms, events, documents, biographies, and concepts to assist the reader in understanding aspects of this rapidly changing field of study. Representative topics include:

- Origins, definitions, dimensions, and variations on Curriculum Studies
- Curriculum development and design for schools
- Curricular purpose, implementation, and evaluation
- Contemporary issues e.g. standards, tests, and accountability
