Reform And Punishment

Michael H. Tonry, Franklin E. Zimring

Reform And Punishment:

Reform and Punishment Sue Rex, Michael Tonry, 2012-12-06 In this book a group of leading authorities in the field address the key issues surrounding the future of sentencing in Britain in the light particularly of the highly influential Halliday Report These proposals for reform amount to the single most ambitious and comprehensive set of proposals for reconstituting the sentencing system of a common law country and include proposals to replace existing sentencing statutes the establishment of a sentencing commission and sentencing guidelines and the creation of a sentence review function in the judiciary As well as addressing the major issues of the Halliday Report the chapters in this book go beyond this to explore the broader set of policy problems and implications which are raised drawing upon experiences of reform in other jurisdictions and contexts particularly that of the USA This book will be essential reading for anybody with an interest in the future of sentencing or the future direction of the criminal justice system as a whole The Humane Review, 1903 The

Open Court, 1887 Reform and Punishment Michael H. Tonry, Franklin E. Zimring, 1983 Punishment in Latin America Luiz Dal Santo, Máximo Sozzo, 2024-11-21 Challenging the Northern centric approach that has dominated the literature on punishment and society this collection draws on innovative theoretical perspectives to make sense of punishment penal trends institutions and practices in peripheral settings taking Latin American countries as its case studies

The History of the Popes Ludwig Freiherr von Pastor, 1924 The Politics of Punishment Bruce F. Adams, 2019-09-15 Bruce F Adams examines how Russia's Main Prison Administration was created the number of prisoners it managed in what types of prisons and what it accomplished While providing a thorough account of prison management at a crucial time in Russia's history Adams explores broader discussions of reform within Russia's government and society especially after the Revolution of 1905 when arguments on such topics as parole and probation boiled in the arena of raucous public debate

Criminal Law David C. Brody, James R. Acker, Wayne A. Logan, 2001 Criminal Justice Law Enforcement Crimes and Punishments James Anson Farrer, 1880 Report of the Board of State Commissioners for the General Supervision of

Charitable, Penal, Pauper, and Reformatory Institutions Michigan. State Board of Corrections and Charities, 1873 The Principles of Punishment Edward William Cox, 1877 Documents Accompanying the Journal of the House of Representatives Michigan, 1875 God, Relationships, and Evil Loren Meierding, 2000-10 As an undergraduate the author was influenced strongly by Bertrand Russell's rejection of Christianity due to the amount of evil in the world After years of reading and reflecting on this topic this book was written in the hope of providing better insight on this issue The book's first part offers an analysis of the two primary historical approaches to theodicy the free will theodicy originated by Augustine and the soul making or character development theodicy elaborated by John Hick But the great value of human free will and character development does not seem adequately to justify all the evil we perceive The second part shows why development of relationships among God and human beings requires considerable evil Important non relationship oriented explanations are taken into account Justifications for permitting horrific evils including holocausts and world wars are given The final part provides an analysis of the argument from evil including forms of the argument which have appeared in recent years in philosophical journals Although evidence restricted to some evils or evil alone may have some weight when good is included as well as evil theists are justified in claiming the evidence supports their position far better than atheism

Prisons and Borstals Great Britain. Home Office,1960 The History of the Popes, from the Close of the Middle Ages Ludwig Freiherr von Pastor,1924 Justice through Apologies Nick Smith,2014-03-24 In this follow up to I Was Wrong The Meanings of Apologies Nick Smith expands his ambitious theories of categorical apologies to civil and criminal law After rejecting court ordered apologies as unjustifiable humiliation this book explains that penitentiaries were originally designed to bring about penance something like apology and that this tradition has been lost in the assembly line of mass incarceration Smith argues that the state should modernize these principles and techniques to reduce punishments for offenders who demonstrate moral transformation through apologizing Smith also explains the counterintuitive situation whereby apologies come to have considerable financial worth in civil cases because victims associate them with priceless matters of the soul Such confusions allow powerful wrongdoers to manipulate perceptions to disastrous effect such as when corporations or governments assert that apologies do not equate to accepting blame or require reform or redress The SAGE Handbook of Punishment and Society Jonathan Simon,Richard Sparks,2012-09-18 The project of interpreting contemporary forms of punishment means exploring the social political economic and historical conditions in the society in which those forms arise The SAGE Handbook of Punishment and Society draws together this disparate and expansive field of punishment and society into one compelling new volume Headed by two of the leading scholars in the field Jonathan Simon and Richard Sparks have crafted a comprehensive and definitive resource that illuminates some of the key themes in this complex area from historical and prospective issues to penal trends and related contributions through theory literature and philosophy Incorporating a stellar and international line up of contributors the book addresses issues such as capital punishment the civilising process gender diversity inequality power human rights and neoliberalism This engaging vibrantly written collection will be captivating reading for academics and researchers in criminology penology criminal justice sociology cultural studies philosophy and politics Federal Probation ,1949 The Biblical Repertory and Princeton Review ,1871

Transnational Penal Cultures Vivien Miller,James Campbell,2014-11-13 Focusing on three key stages of the criminal justice process discipline punishment and desistance and incorporating case studies from Asia the Americas Europe Africa and Australia the thirteen chapters in this collection are based on exciting new research that explores the evolution and adaptation of criminal justice and penal systems largely from the early nineteenth century to the present They range across the disciplinary boundaries of History Criminology Law and Penology Journeying into and unlocking different national and international penal archives and drawing on diverse analytical approaches the chapters forge new connections between historical and contemporary issues in crime prisons policing and penal cultures and challenge traditional Western democratic historiographies of crime and punishment and categorisations of offenders police and ex offenders The individual chapters provide new perspectives on race gender class urban space surveillance policing prisonisation and defiance and will be essential reading for academics and students engaged in the study of criminal justice law police transportation slavery offenders and desistance from crime
