Reforming the Doctrine of God F. LeRon Shults, 2005-11 Linking traditional attributes of God with contemporary philosophy F LeRon Shults culminates with a reformed doctrine of God that revolves around themes of God's omniscient faithfulness omnipotent love and omnipresent hope Reformed and Always Reforming (Acadia Studies in Bible and Theology) Roger E. Olson, 2007-10-01 The community of evangelicals sometimes seems so broad as to defy definition but theological conservatism has been one consistent marker Now says theologian Roger Olson postconservatism is moving beyond conventional battles against liberalism and heresy to posit a dynamic and realistic approach While conservatives strive to preserve tradition and protect orthodoxy postconservatives urge openness to doctrinal reform without abandoning orthodoxy Where differences exist between doctrine and Scripture doctrine must be brought into conformity with the Word Postconservatives want to free evangelical theology from its paradoxical captivity to rationalism and its obsession with facts so that it may recognize truth in experience and personal knowledge Theologians pastors seminarians and serious thinkers will find many depths to plumb in this exhaustive survey of critics advocates and fellow travelers on the evangelical journey

Reforming the Christian Faith Mark W. Karlberg, 2017-10-12 Central to the mission of the church with each passing generation is the elucidation of the gospel of Christ which is the heart of the Christian message Witness to God's saving word in Scripture comes in response to discussions and debates arising over the course of church history Our study highlights some of the unity and disunity found within the Reformed tradition Reformation and modern Beginning with the subject of the development of doctrine over the course of church history we take up the foundational issue of biblical hermeneutics the question of how we are to interpret the Bible The year 2017 marks the Protestant Church's 500th anniversary October 31 We consider secondly Protestantism's two leading theological principles the formal the doctrine of Scripture and the material the doctrine of justification by faith alone In the final section we critique departures from the teaching of historic federalism found within contemporary Reformed orthodoxy which strikes at the very heart of what it means to be Reformed in theology Crucial in this long standing and ongoing dispute is the interpretation of the Mosaic Covenant as in some sense a republication of the original Covenant of Works with Adam at creation Covenant and justification are the focal doctrines under study Trinity and Revelation Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2014-04-19 In this book Pentecostal theologian Veli Matti Karkkainen develops a constructive theology of triune revelation and the triune God in dialogue with Christian tradition with contemporary theology in its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Karkkainen's Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World is a five volume project that aims to develop a new approach to and method of doing Christian theology in a pluralistic world at the beginning of the third millennium With the metaphor of hospitality serving as the framework for his discussion Karkkainen engages Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism in sympathetic and critical mutual dialogue while remaining robustly Christian in his convictions Never before has a fullscale doctrinal theology been attempted in such a wide and deep dialogical mode A Very Brief Introduction to Reformation Doctrine Cornelius C. Simut, 2024-12-17 This book is for anyone who has an interest in the theology of the Reformation irrespective of one's prior training in the field Undergraduate students and laypersons will find it particularly helpful because it does not require any previous acquaintance with Reformation doctrines All those who want to become minimally acquainted with Reformation thought would therefore find it useful to read or perhaps only browse because the chapters can be approached individually which means that they can read in any order Those who want to delve a little deeper into Reformation issues have a selection of over four hundred sources in the bibliography that can be consulted for further reference Reforming the Art of Dying Austra Reinis, 2016-12-05 The Reformation led those who embraced Martin Luther's teachings to revise virtually every aspect of their faith and to reorder their daily lives in view of their new beliefs Nowhere was this more true than with death By the beginning of the sixteenth century the Medieval Church had established a sophisticated mechanism for dealing with death and its consequences The Protestant reformers rejected this new mechanism To fill the resulting gap and to offer comfort to the dying they produced new liturgies new church orders and new handbooks on dying This study focuses on the earliest of the Protestant handbooks beginning with Luther's Sermon on Preparing to Die in 1519 and ending with Jakob Otter's Christlich leben vnd sterben in 1528 It explores how Luther and his colleagues adopted traditional themes and motifs even as they transformed them to accord with their conviction that Christians could be certain of their salvation It further shows how Luther's colleagues drew not only on his teaching on dying but also on other writings including his sermons on the sacraments The study concludes that the assurance of salvation offered in the Protestant handbooks represented a significant departure from traditional teaching on death By examining the ways in which the themes and teachings of the reformers differed from the late medieval ars moriendi the book highlights both breaks with tradition and continuities that marked the early Reformation Toward the Future of Reformed Theology David Willis-Watkins, Michael Welker, 1999 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable Toward the Future of Reformed Theology brings together the voices of leading contemporary Reformed theologians from around the world providing a unique summary of the range and wealth of Reformed theology today and exploring its potential for the future These thirty one essays consider the task of Reformed theology in the modern world give Reformed perspectives on key theological themes and suggest fruitful present day trajectories of Reformed thought from the past Contributors Brian Gerrish M Janos Pasztor Nobuo Watanabe Choan Seng Song Edmund Za Bik Wafiq Wahba John de Gruchy Jürgen Moltmann Michael Welker Beatriz Melano Thomas Torrance David Willis William Placher Alexander McKelway Leanne Van Dyk Christian Link Lukas Vischer Walter Herrenbrück Nancy Duff Hans Joachim Kraus John Leith Willem Balke Hans Helmut Esser Dawn DeVries Jan Milic Lochman John Hesselink Sang Hyun Lee Amy Plantinga Pauw Bruce McCormack Daniel Migliore Eberhard Busch The Trauma of Doctrine Paul Maxwell, 2021-01-12 The Trauma of Doctrine is a theological investigation into the effects of abuse trauma upon the

Barth and Ecotheology Adrian Langdon, 2025-03-31 Barth and Ecotheology offers a critical and constructive reading of Karl Barth's theology in the context of the Anthropocene. It reflects on how a contemporary doctrine of creation must be broad enough to address issues such as climate change, colonialism, and racism, sexism, as well as integrating modern science. Such a theology would resist the human domination of nature and the various forms of displacement occurring in modernity. With Barth, the author contends that a theology of creation grounded in the self-revelation of God in Jesus Christ is the best place to rethink what it means to be human and to exist within the community of creation. Nevertheless, if we are to affirm the livingness of the world, creaturely differences, and a central place for land and place, then critical additions to Barth are needed. To accomplish this, the book provides constructive reinterpretations of Barth's theological method, doctrine of God, creation by the Word, and Spirit, anthropology, and reconciliation. What emerges is a vision of the triune God of love as the source and ground of all that is. Along the way, Barth is brought into dialogue with ecotheology, as well as theologians such as Wolfhart Pannenberg, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and Bruce McCormack. The volume will be of particular interest to theologians focused on the doctrine of creation, ecotheology, and Barth studies.

China's Reforming Churches Bruce P. Baugus, 2014-05-26 This is a critical moment in the life of China's reforming churches and the Presbyterian and Reformed mission to China. This book provides both a historical look at Presbyterianism in China and an assessment of the current state of affairs, orienting readers to church development needs and the basic outlines of Reformed Christianity in China today. While laying out the challenges and opportunities facing the church, the authors argue that assisting this reformation in China should be a central objective of the Presbyterian and Reformed mission to China in this generation.
