Road To Australia Memoirs:

The Road from Coorain Jill Ker Conway, 2011-06-22 In a memoir that pierces and delights us Jill Ker Conway tells the story of her astonishing journey into adulthood a journey that would ultimately span immense distances and encompass worlds ideas and ways of life that seem a century apart She was seven before she ever saw another girl child At eight still too small to mount her horse unaided she was galloping miles alone across Coorain her parents thirty thousand windswept drought haunted acres in the Australian outback doing a man's job of helping herd the sheep because World War II had taken away the able bodied men She loved and makes us see and feel the vast unpeopled landscape beautiful and hostile whose uncertain weathers tormented the sheep ranchers with conflicting promises of riches and inescapable disaster She adored and makes us know her large visioned father and her strong radiant mother who had gone willingly with him into a pioneering life of loneliness and bone breaking toil who seemed miraculously to succeed in creating a warmly sheltering home in the harsh outback and who upon her husband's sudden death when Jill was ten began to slide bereft of the partnership of work and love that had so utterly fulfilled her into depression and dependency We see Jill staggered by the loss of her father catapulted to what seemed another planet the suburban Sydney of the 1950s and its crowded noisy cliquish school life Then the heady excitement of the University but with it a yet more demanding course of lessons Jill embracing new ideas new possibilities while at the same time trying to be mother to her mother and resenting it escaping into drink pulling herself back striking a balance We see her slowly gaining strength coming into her own emotionally and intellectually and beginning the joyous love affair that gave wings to her newfound self Worlds away from Coorain in America Jill Conway became a historian and the first woman president of Smith College Her story of Coorain and the road from Coorain startles by its passion and evocative power by its understanding of the ways in which a total deep rooted commitment to place or to a dream can at once liberate and imprison It is a story of childhood as both Eden and anguish and of growing up as a journey toward the difficult life of the free

The Road to Australia Vladimir Rafailovich Kabo, 1998 Drawing on a 30 year old passion for studying Australia's Indigenous people this memoir records the author's life and work in Australia against the background of Soviet politics and academia since the revolution

HELLO, FROM SOMEWHERE: Stories of the Roads I Traveled (A Memoir) Metty Pellicer, 2015-01-01 Whenever the author has returned from traveling her friends wanted to hear detailed accounts of her experiences She started emailing these accounts Many have kept copies of their favorite pieces and soon everyone wanted the author to compile them into a book From Alaska to Zanzibar the author offers funny and detailed observations of the places people and cultures she has encountered On a visit to Pompeii she tells of frescoes of the various ways ancient Romans copulate In Africa she thrilled to the spectacle of a lion kill of an impala in the wild but was repelled by a cat with its kill of a rat in the alleys of Zanzibar On her 70th birthday she celebrated with a solo walk of the 800 km Camino Santiago de

Compostela from St Jean Pied de Port in the French Pyrenees to Galicia in Spain She got lost in the mountains on the first day but the trek was smooth all the way from there After her husband passed in 2004 she continued to travel and reflected on her life A lapsed Catholic she took a Buddhist retreat in Tassajara trying to inject a spiritual dimension in her life but she found the vegetarian meals and the mountains more alluring Along the way she made many friends young and old who enriched her life and who showed her that life is indeed beautiful

Memoir Warren Thomas Brown,2023-12-08 This is a story of the casual criminality that is required to navigate the bureaucracy and business in general Sometimes this is necessary for the system to operate sometimes a mere convenience sometimes for financial gain or even just a helping hand for another human being The story covers the sloth incompetence and pure evil of the Civil Service and their interaction with private business It tells of what really happens in the inner workings of private businesses and their interaction with their overlords in intimate detail This is a story seldom if ever told because those that know don't write and those who write don't know It covers the wonderful world of dodgy finance and operating a large business without capital It is a story of human endurance and persistence and eventual victory of a sort The story begins with a description of life in rural Queensland about thirty years after the original white settlement covers the construction of major infrastructure when rural industries were expanding rapidly and the early years of the iconic mineral industry at Mount Isa The author knew well at least eight men who spent a considerable stretch in jail and can say that none of them were bad men and at least three were men of higher moral standards and love of their fellow man than the general population This is in contrast to some of the very senior public servants with whom he crossed swords who were pure evil and grossly incompetent to boot

The Road from Coorain Jill K. Conway,1989

A Pedagogist's Memoir Grant Rodwell,2025-10-07 Opportunities to write our memoirs are many and varied To meet emerging demands the memoir genre continually is evolving and it is possible for the memoirist to shape the memoirs with varying themes time and settings to be brought to bear on school education at a senior level and for a range of teacher development programs Thus the developing importance of an accompanying exegesis For better or for worse childhoods shape adult relationships and attachment styles profoundly shaping who we are as teachers teaching styles and generally the things we consider important and not so important The shape of our childhood and adolescence has a profound impact on how relationships are formed in adulthood It can affect our ability to trust be vulnerable and create productive bonds both at school and college and professionally and also our general levels of motivation Through the aforementioned theme and subthemes my memoirs here reveal how childhood struggle has shaped my approach to teaching and my academic career from an unskilled labourer from the country working class in the timber industry deprived of a high school education and recruited into the workforce at 15 years of age to a senior academic in one of Australia's G8 universities holding five PhDs With strong historical backgrounding a special appeal of this book is its drive to place childhood and adolescent events contained in the memoirs in a wider historical context looking to transnational movements such as discussions on anachronisms and eugenics In so doing the exegesis a fresh and exciting innovation is in harmony with the memoirs The memoir is so refashioned as a pedagogical tool

Memoir of Commodore Goodenough ...
 James Graham Goodenough, Victoria Hamilton Goodenough, 1878 Memoir, 1920 Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

British Books, 1903 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1894 Clio's Lives Doug Munro, John G. Reid, 2017-10-09 Including contributions from leading scholars in the field from both Australia and North America this collection explores diverse approaches to writing the lives of historians and ways of assessing the importance of doing so Beginning with the writing of autobiographies by historians the volume then turns to biographical studies both of historians whose writings were in some sense nation defining and those who may be regarded as having had a major influence on defining the discipline of history The final section explores elements of collective biography linking these to the formation of historical networks A concluding essay by Barbara Caine offers a critical appraisal of the study of historians biographies and autobiographies to date and maps out likely new directions for future work Clio s Lives is a very good scholarly collection that advances the study of autobiography and biography within the writing of history itself taking theoretical questions in significant new directions The contributors are well known and highly respected in the history profession and write with an insight and intellectual energy that will ensure the book has considerable impact They examine cutting edge issues about the writing of history at the personal level through autobiography and biography in diverse and innovative ways Together the writers have provided reflective chapters that will be widely read for their impressive theoretical advances as well as being inspirational for new entrants to the disciplinary area Patricia Grimshaw University of Melbourne Clio s Lives brings together a most interesting and varied cast of contributors Its chapters contain sophisticated and well penned ruminations on the uses of biography and autobiography among historians These are clearly connected with the general themes of the volume This delightfully mixed bag makes very good reading and as well will serve as a substantial contribution to the study of the biography and autobiography Eric Richards Flinders University

Local Time a memoir of cities, friendships and the writing life Inez Baranay,2015-06-09 One last look at Europe that was the idea behind a 3 month trip in 2006 The weather was always good and that 3 months led to a life of unanchored travels for years moving among countries and continents In Local Time a memoir of cities friendships and the writing life New York London Bristol Amsterdam Berlin Prague Barcelona all have a chapter devoted to them and Rome has more Other chapters explore themes like sexuality Europe identity among hybrids and hyphens family secrets the self fiction creates ageing beginnings the history of friendships and a life in which writing has been the centre Known for her stylish provocative work the author has once more gone in new directions in this memoir

A Memoir of James Trevenen Charles Vinicombe Penrose,1959

The Invertebrate World of Australia's Subtropical Rainforests Geoff Williams,2020-09-01 The Invertebrate World of Australia s Subtropical Rainforests is a comprehensive review of Australia s Gondwanan rainforest invertebrate fauna covering its taxonomy distribution biogeography fossil history plant community and insect plant relationships This is the first work to document the invertebrate diversity of this biologically important region as well as explain the uniqueness and importance of the organisms This book examines invertebrates within the context of the plant world that they are dependent on and offers an understanding of Australia s outstanding but still largely unknown subtropical rainforests All major and many minor invertebrate taxa are described and the book includes a section of colour photos of distinctive species There is also a strong emphasis on plant and habitat associations and fragmentation impacts as well as a focus on the regionally inclusive Gondwana Rainforests Central Eastern Rainforest Reserves of Australia World Heritage Area The Invertebrate World of Australia s Subtropical Rainforests will be of value to professional biologists and ecologists as well as amateur entomologists and naturalists in Australia and abroad

The Memoir of 1603 and the Diary of 1616-1619 Anne

Clifford, 2006-11-03 Anne Clifford's memoir for the year 1603 and her diary of 1616-1619 are invaluable records of the daily life and social and family relationships of a noblewoman of her time. In them she records her travels, her reading, her religious observances, her relationships with her mother, her husband, and her child, and the progress or lack thereof of her legal efforts to obtain what she viewed as her inheritance: extensive estates in the north of England. The two texts offer a unique view of the life, feelings, experience, and self-fashioning of this extraordinary woman, and they bring to life the history and literary culture of the period in a refreshing and direct way. This Broadview edition includes an illuminating introduction that places these texts in their historical and literary context. The appendices include poems dedicated and addressed to Clifford, her funeral sermon, and the Great Picture of the Clifford family.
