The American Roadside in Émigré Literature, Film, and Photography Elsa Court, 2020-01-06 The American Roadside in migr Literature Film and Photography 1955 1985 traces the origin of a postmodern iconography of mobile consumption equating roadside America with an authentic experience of the United States through the postwar road narrative a narrative which Elsa Court argues has been shaped by and through white male migr narratives of the American road in both literature and visual culture While stressing that these narratives are limited in their understanding of the processes of exclusion and unequal flux in experiences of modern automobility the book works through four case studies in the American works of European born authors Vladimir Nabokov Robert Frank Alfred Hitchcock and Wim Wenders to unveil an early phenomenology of the postwar American highway one that anticipates the works of late twentieth century spatial theorists Jean Baudrillard Michel Foucault and Marc Aug and sketches a postmodern aesthetic of
