Aftershock Kieran Cashell, 2009-08-30 Accused by the tabloid press of setting out to shock controversial artworks are vigorously defended by art critics who frequently downplay their disturbing emotional impact This is the first book to subject contemporary art to a rigorous ethical exploration It argues that in favouring conceptual rather than emotional reactions commentators actually fail to engage with the work they promote Scrutinising notorious works by artists including Damien Hirst Jake and Dinos Chapman Richard Billingham Marc Quinn Sally Mann Marcus Harvey Hans Bellmer Paul McCarthy Tierney Gearon and Tracey Emin Aftershock insists on the importance of visceral emotional and ethical responses Far from clouding our judgement Cashell argues shame outrage or revulsion are the very emotions that such works set out to evoke While also questioning the catch all notion of transgression this illuminating and controversial book neither jumps indiscriminately to the defence of shocking artworks nor dismisses them out of hand Remembering Our Future Andrew

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005      Constructions of Childhood and Youth in Old French Narrative Phyllis Gaffney, 2016-05-23 What do we know of medieval childhood Were boundaries always clear between childhood and young adulthood Was medieval childhood gendered Scholars have been debating such questions over half a century Can evidence from imaginative literature test the conclusions of historians Phyllis Gaffney s innovative book reveals contrast and change in the portrayal of childhood and youth by looking at vernacular French narratives composed between 1100 and 1220 Covering over sixty poems from two major genres epic and romance she traces a significant evolution While early epics contain only a few stereotypical images of the child later verse narratives display a range of arguably timeless motifs as well as a growing awareness of the special characteristics of youth Whereas juvenile epic heroes contribute to the adult agenda by displaying precocious strength and wisdom romance children are on the receiving end requiring guidance and education Gaffney also profiles the intriguing phenomenon of enfances poems singing the youthful deeds of established heroes these prequels combine epic and romance features in distinctive ways Approaching the history of childhood and youth through the lens of literary genre this study shows how imaginative texts can both shape and reflect the historical development and cultural construction of emotional values Film & Video Finder ,1989 The Living Age ,1935

Gender and Representation in British 'Golden Age' Crime Fiction Megan Hoffman,2016-05-17 This book provides an original and compelling analysis of the ways in which British women s golden age crime narratives negotiate the conflicting social and cultural forces that influenced depictions of gender in popular culture in the 1920s until the late 1940s The book explores a wide variety of texts produced both by writers who have been the focus of a relatively large amount of critical attention such as Agatha Christie Dorothy L Sayers and Margery Allingham but also those who have received comparatively little such as Christianna Brand Ngaio Marsh Gladys Mitchell Josephine Tey and Patricia Wentworth Through its original readings this book explores the ambivalent nature of modes of femininity depicted in golden age crime fiction and shows that seemingly conservative resolutions are often attempts to provide a modern yet safe solution to the conflicts raised in the texts Serializing Age Maricel Oro-Piqueras,Anita Wohlmann,2015-12-15 Serialized storytelling provides intriguing opportunities for critical representations of age and aging In contrast to the finite character of films television narratives can unfold across hundreds of episodes and multiple seasons Contemporary viewing practices and new media technologies have resulted in complex television narratives in which experimental temporalities and revisions of narrative linearity and chronological time have become key features As the first of its kind this volume investigates how TV series as a powerful cultural medium shape representations of age and aging such as in Orange Is The New Black The Wire or Desperate Housewives to understand what it means to live in time The Silver Age and Other Dramatic Memories Temple Scott,1919
