Robespierre Or The Tyranny Of The Majority:

Robespierre Or the Tyranny of the Majority Jean Matrat, 1975 Robespierre Jean Matrat, 1975 Jean Matrat has written a biography of Maximilien Robespierre of unusual insight and clarity He has scoured the voluminous correspondence between Maximilien and his sister Charlotte and exhaustively searched the archives of the Jacobin Club His brilliant text illuminating Robespierre has been ably augmented by the numerous contemporary engravings which reveal the people and places as they appeared while the bloody drama of the French Revolution unrolled before the eyes of a horrified world The author sheds new light on the punctilious little man who was born four months after the forced marriage of his parents He shows the puny judge who suffered agonies before signing an order of execution Of course he s a wicked man who deserves to die But to kill a man to put a man to death We watch the martinet having his head meticulously powdered every morning This is Robespierre The Nile green incorruptible who remained icily implacable to all appeals to humanity The advocate of the Rights of Man who choked the people of Paris in their own blood in the name of Liberty The man who driven by his grandiose concepts of duty and what was best for his fellow man found himself forced to employ methods he condemned In a narrative that gains in momentum the author keeps our attention riveted on the most powerful and frightening figure of the French Revolution Jacket flap
