Seeking The White Root An Australian Story:

Seeking the White Root Cinda Wombles Pettigrew, Robyn D. Warner, 1998 Independent Publisher, 1999 The Publishers Weekly, 2005 Witnessing Australian Stories Kelly Jean Butler, 2017-07-28 This book is about how Australians have responded to stories about suffering and injustice in Australia presented in a range of public media including literature history films and television Those who have responded are both ordinary and prominent Australians politicians writers and scholars All have sought to come to terms with Australia's history by responding empathetically to stories of its marginalized citizens Drawing upon international scholarship on collective memory public history testimony and witnessing this book represents a cultural history of contemporary Australia It examines the forms of witnessing that dominated Australian public culture at the turn of the millennium Since the late 1980s witnessing has developed in Australia in response to the increasingly audible voices of indigenous peoples migrants and more recently asylum seekers As these voices became public they posed a challenge not only to scholars and politicians but also most importantly to ordinary citizens When former Prime Minister Kevin Rudd delivered his historic apology to Australia's indigenous peoples in February 2008 he performed an act of collective witnessing that affirmed the testimony and experiences of Aboriginal Australians The phenomenon of witnessing became crucial not only to the recognition and reparation of past injustices but to efforts to create a more cosmopolitan Australia in the present This is a vital addition to Transaction's critically acclaimed Memory and Narrative series An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion James Jupp, 2018-04-10 An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion presents Australian traditions myths and legends in an understanding but often critical light in the belief that such devices have often been used by interested parties and even governments to maintain social solidarity and to mould a very complex people into a coherent and obedient whole Australia is not and never has been an equal society It has not always been a peaceful and tolerant society but it is more so than most other states and especially many of those sending immigrants It is not a perfect democracy Many have been mistreated and even persecuted but that most of those suffering at present are either indigenous or refugees should not be a cause of indifference Australians may be suspicious of foreigners and social and political deviants But they have passed a whole series of reforming laws since the Federation in 1901 not all of which have been as racist as the White Australia policy An Immigrant Nation Seeks Cohesion attempts to get a little bit closer to the truth of two hundred years of creating a liveable society in what was a remote and unknown part of the world Vulnerability and Resilience Jione Havea, 2020-01-28 In Vulnerability and Resilience vulnerability is not the final word Rather resilience provides the cutting edge and living breath in the stories of subjects who are vulnerable And they have many stories stories of being trapped in bodies teachings and or situations that make them and others like them vulnerable to discrimination hatred and rejection stories of being trapped because of their bodies theologies and or cultures and stories of being trapped for no good reason For subjects who are vulnerable life is like a maze of traps and stories of resilience keep them going The contributors to Vulnerability and Resilience refuse to be trapped At the intersection of body and liberation theologies they tell their stories in the hope that they will expose cultures that make individuals and communities vulnerable and that those stories will encourage vulnerable subjects to be resilient and bring change to theological institutions that conserve vulnerability Because of the location of the contributors the Americas Africa Asia Europe Caribbean and Oceania this book is a testimony that vulnerability is present all over the world and that resilience is a liberating alternative Looking for Elizabeth Helen

Trinca, 2025-07-15 The full story of an Australian literary enigma Why did Elizabeth Harrower one of Australia's most important postwar authors stop writing at the height of her powers After publishing four books that earned the admiration of Patrick White Shirley Hazzard and Christina Stead Harrower published no more novels She faded from the literary landscape until being rediscovered decades later to international acclaim In Looking for Elizabeth Helen Trinca unravels this mystery Exploring the personal and artistic forces that shaped Harrower's writing she draws a sensitive portrait of a wounded divorced child and the legacy of abandonment she carried throughout her life She probes the contradictions of a woman who wielded extraordinary insight into others' lives but guarded her own fiercely And she vividly brings to life the literary circles of this fascinating era in Australian culture Based on interviews with Harrower and full access to her archive Looking for Elizabeth is the first full biography of this significant figure in Australian letters A masterful deep dive into the enigmatic life of a writer who stunned and then stopped This is a monumental addition to Australian literary biography that's destined to become a classic Nikki Gemmell A biography that is every bit as beguiling and complex as its towering subject Exacting exhaustive and utterly essential The more I read the more compelled I felt to cut out a picture of Elizabeth Harrower and stick it above my writing desk Trent Dalton The ON-nibus Various Various, 2009-12-01 If you missed the first eight titles in MUP's acclaimed Little Books on Big Themes series this is your chance to collect the whole set Released in time for Christmas the ON-nibus brings together eight 10 000 word essays on the big themes in life by leading Australian thinkers Featured authors are Germaine Greer On Rage David Malouf On Experience Blanche d'Alpuget On Longing Barrie Kosky On Ecstasy Don Watson On Indignation Gay Bilson On Digestion Malcolm Knox On Obsession and Anne Summers On Luck

History Of Australia (Volumes 5 & 6) Manning Clark, 1999-09-13 Manning Clark's six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A History of Australia 1888-1945 covers Federation the Boer War and World War I's Gallipoli It finishes with the story of an emerging Australian identity at the point of its greatest trial the outbreak of World War II This is not a general Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive On Rage Germaine Greer, 2020-04-28 ON RAGE is Germaine Greer's timeless essay about Aboriginal dispossession With characteristic acuity and passion Greer looks to the causes of rage and its consequences in Indigenous

Australians Originally published six months after Prime Minister Kevin Rudd's Apology to the Stolen Generations in 2008 this is an urgent and provocative examination of disempowerment by one of Australia's leading polemicists Coast to Coast; Australian Stories, 1958 Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02 Critical Autoethnography and Écriture Feminine Elizabeth Mackinlay, Renée Mickelburgh, 2023-10-11 The project offers a collection of new interdisciplinary critical autoethnographic engagements with Hélène Cixous' critique feminine and work Three steps on the ladder of writing Critical autoethnography shares a reciprocal and interanimating relationship with Hélène Cixous' critique feminine feminine writing and in this collection authors explore that interanimation by explicitly engaging with Three steps on the ladder of writing Three steps is a poetic insightful and ultimately moving reflection on the writing process and explores three distinct areas essential for writing The School of the Dead the notion that something or someone must die in order for good writing to be born The School of Dreams the crucial role dreams play in literary inspiration and output and The School of Roots the importance of depth in the nether realms in all aspects of writing Topics covered include ways Cixous' work can address the need for loss and reparation in writing critical autoethnography how Cixous' writing makes our body speak through concepts of birth and the body in through and of critical autoethnography whether writing in this way recast and reform prevailing orders of domination and oppression and how Cixous' writing around the ethics of loving and giving translates into response able and non-violent forms of critical autoethnography in relation to otherness and difference In this collection we invite you to Let us go to the school of critical autoethnographic writing Cixous 1993 p 3 with the work of Hélène Cixous and speak in a different way and through a different medium of academic language in an approach that reveals the tensions the paradoxes the pains and the pleasures of writing with critical autoethnography in the contemporary university Short Stories of Australia Douglas Stewart, 1967 Australian short stories by authors including Henry Lawson Steele Rudd Barbara Baynton A B Paterson Norman Lindsay Hugh McRae Vance Palmer Katherine Susannah Pritchard and Frank Dalby Davidson Bow Bells, 1871 The Outsiders Within Peta Stephenson, 2007 An engaging account of the ways in which over hundreds of years Indigenous and Asian people across northern and central Australia have traded intermarried and built hybrid communities It is also a disturbing expose of the persistent sometimes paranoid efforts of successive national governments to police marginalize and outlaw these encounters South Asian Diaspora Narratives Amit Sarwal, 2017-05-03 This book analyses the metaphysical and poetical notions and the processes of rooting into a culture and routing out of a culture in the context of South Asian diaspora in Australia These diasporic narratives are often characterised by bifurcated and dislocated identities that exist in a liminal space in between two identities two cultures and two histories Yet home remains through acts of imagination remembering and re-creation an important reference point The author argues that a clearer notion of politics of location is required to distinguish between the different kinds of dislocation the immigrants suffer both psychologically and sociologically The diaspora in Australia is an under-studied topic and this book fills a lacuna in South Asian diaspora studies by analysing and calling upon a wide range of works in this field from historical anthropological sociological cultural and literary studies

From Antebellum Light Skinned Slaves to the Globalization of Skin Whitening Biotechnology Amina Mire,2024-12-15 From Antebellum Light Skinned Slaves to the Globalization of Skin Whitening Biotechnology takes historically grounded analysis and delineates how the skin whitening industry has become a contemporary site that facilitates commodification of unregulated whiteness on a global scale Amina Mire investigates the extent to which antebellum South anti miscegenation racial purity laws facilitated unofficial interracial reproduction of light skinned slaves resulting primarily from a systemic rape of enslaved Black women by white slave masters This is because while different in terms of historical context what the unregulated globalization of the skin whitening industry and the antebellum unofficial reproduction and trade in light skinned slaves have in common is the unofficial and unregulated nature of the accumulation of economic symbolic and aesthetic investment in whiteness The central argument of this book is that commodifiable whiteness is a form of racial capital with profound health social and political implications Consequently as long as whiteness remains a salient ideological force that shapes global understanding of standards of beauty and desirability commodification of whiteness will continue to further entrench systems of racism and colorism The author argues this requires taking seriously the resilience and malleability of white supremacy and its ability to rebrand itself endlessly

The 100 Most Important Sporting Events in American History Lew Freedman,2015-11-12 This engaging and informative work highlights the 100 biggest moments in the history of American sports illustrating powerful connections between sporting events and significant social issues of the time In this homage to sports history author Lew Freedman compiles athletic feats that caught fans off guard inspired awe and left viewers on the edge of their seats all while making an impression on the world at large Freedman ranks 100 of the greatest moments in sports reflecting on the dramatic impact of the events as well as their greater influence on American society of the time The work showcases the social historical and cultural background of memorable games teams and athletes highlighting the enduring value and importance of each selection An introduction discusses the history of sports and explains the criteria for choosing the 100 sporting events in the book Fascinating little known facts punctuate entries such as how the athletic accomplishments of Jackie Robinson and Joe Louis helped ease racial tensions in the United States why the passage of Title IX changed gender relations in the United States forever and which technologies have altered the way Americans view sport Content also traces the tremendous advancements of safety gear in sports from the batting helmet and catchers shin guards in baseball to the hardshell helmet and face guard in football to the face mask for goalies in hockey
