Some Liked It Hot Kristin A. McGee, 2011-07-21 Women have been involved with jazz since its inception but all too often their achievements were not as well known as those of their male counterparts Some Liked It Hot looks at all girl bands and jazz women from the 1920s through the 1950s and how they fit into the nascent mass culture particularly film and television to uncover some of the historical motivations for excluding women from the now firmly established jazz canon This well illustrated book chronicles who appeared where and when in over 80 performances captured in both popular Hollywood productions and in relatively unknown films and television shows As McGee shows these performances reflected complex racial attitudes emerging in American culture during the first half of the twentieth century Her analysis illuminates the heavily mediated representational strategies that jazz women adopted highlighting the role that race played in constituting public performances of various styles of jazz from swing to hot and sweet The International Sweethearts of Rhythm Hazel Scott the Ingenues Peggy Lee and Paul Whiteman are just a few of the performers covered in the book which also includes a detailed filmography Umm Kulthum Laura Lohman, 2013-11-01 How an extraordinary woman shaped her career and legacy through war In 1967 Egypt and the Arab world suffered a devastating defeat by Israel in the Six Day War Though long past the age at which most singers would have retired the sexagenarian Egyptian singer Umm Kulthum launched a multifaceted response to the defeat that not only sustained her career but also expanded her international fame and shaped her legacy By examining biographies dramas monuments radio programming practices and recent recordings Laura Lohman delves into Umm Kulthum's role in fashioning her image and the conflicting ways that her image and music have been interpreted since her death in 1975 Black Rhythms of Peru Heidi Carolyn Feldman, 2006 How Afro Peruvian music was forgotten and recreated in Peru Carriacou String Band Serenade Rebecca S.
