

The background of the cover is a detailed, isometric illustration of a medieval settlement. A winding blue river flows through the center. On the left bank, there is a stone archway with a large wheel and a small building. On the right bank, there are several palm trees and a small wooden structure. In the upper center, a large wooden cart or wagon is being pulled by a team of oxen. The title 'THE SETTLERS' is written in a large, stylized, orange-gold font with a blue outline. The word 'THE' is smaller and in a gold font. Below the title, the words 'ULTIMATE COLLECTION' are written in a smaller, white, serif font. The Roman numeral 'III' is integrated into the design, with the top part above 'THE' and the bottom part below 'ULTIMATE COLLECTION'.

Existing studies of settler colonial genocides explicitly consider the roles of metropolitan and colonial states and their military forces in the perpetration of exterminatory violence in settler colonial situations yet rarely pay specific attention to the dynamics around civilian driven mass violence against indigenous peoples In many cases however civilians were major if not the main perpetrators of such violence The focus of this book is thus on the role of civilians as perpetrators of exterminatory violence and on those elements within settler colonial situations that promoted mass violence on their part
