Settling Down:

Settling Down and Settling Up Andrea Katherine Medovarski, 2019-04-08 Comparing second generation children of immigrants in black Canadian and black British women's writing Settling Down and Settling Up extends discourses of diaspora and postcolonialism by expanding recent theory on movement and border crossing While these concepts have recently gained theoretical currency this book argues that they are not always adequate frameworks through which to understand second generation children who wish to reside in place in the nations of their birth Considering migration and settlement as complex interrelated processes that inform each other across multiple generations and geographies Andrea Katherine Medovarski challenges the gendered constructions of nationhood and diaspora with a particular focus on Canadian and British black women writers including Dionne Brand Esi Edugyan and Zadie Smith Re evaluating gender and spatial relations Settling Down and Settling Up argues that local experiences often conceptualized through the language of the feminine and the domestic in black women's writings are no less important than travel and border crossings Settling Down R. Meaning in Mid-Life Transitions Edmund A. Sherman, Professor Edmund Sherman, 1987-01-01 This book contributes to an understanding of the nature of mid life transitions and crises by focusing on the unique personal meaning of the transitional experience for the individual There is an implicit structure to the way in which such a transition is experienced by the individual and this can be made explicit by the techniques and methods of the approach outlined and illustrated in the book The value of making this structure explicit is that it enables us to understand and assess the nature and dimensions of the transition whether or not it will reach crisis proportions and to assess possible intervention strategies Meaning in Mid Life Transitions should be of interest to human service practitioners as well as teachers and students of human development and behavior It evidences an integrative approach and structural framework including a series of in depth clinical and research studies

Flourishing in Babylon Joe Aldred, 2024-04-30 Black theology has long been about oppression and liberation But is there a different story to tell Can the black story be one about a quest for flourishing through agency and self determination and not only an existence of nihilistic struggle Drawing on a fresh reading of Jeremiah s letter to Jewish exiles and his own Pentecostal tradition Joe Aldred offers a fresh understanding of the Black British experience which draws on a realised eschatology rooted in identity empowerment and an agenda In a contested diasporan context in the shadow of empire there exists opportunity to fully flourish without apology or as Jeremiah puts it to those in exile to settle build and grow
