Yeats, 2013-11 Seven Poems and a Fragment by W B Yeats Seven Poems and a Fragment William Butler Yeats, 1922 Seven Poems and a Fragment (Classic Reprint) William Butler Yeats, 2015-07-14 Excerpt from Seven Poems and a Fragment Seven Poems and a Fragment By William Butler Yeats All Souls Night Tis All Souls Night and the great Christ Church bell And many a lesser bell sound through the room For it is now midnight And two long glasses brimmed with muscatel Bubble upon the table A ghost may come For it is a ghost s right His element is so fine Being sharpened by his death To drink from the wine breath While our gross palates drink from the whole wine I need some mind that if the cannon sound From every quarter of the world can stay Wound in mind s pondering As mummies in the mummy cloth are wound Because I have a marvellous thing to say A certain marvellous thing None but the living mock Though nor for sober ear It may be all that hear Should laugh and weep an hour upon the clock About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Seven Poems and a Fragment W. B. Yeats, 2010 Seven Poems and a Fragment HardPress, Yeats W B (William Butler) 1865-1939, 2013-06 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy Seven Poems and a Fragment by William Butler Yeats William Butler Yeats, 2010-09 This is a facsimile reprint of the original book by William Butler Yeats rebuilt using the latest technology There are no poor missing or blurred pages and all photographic images have been professionally restored At Yokai Publishing we believe that by restoring this title to print it will live on for generations to come - Works William Butler Yeats, 1970 The Tower William Butler Yeats, 2012-03-06 The first edition of W B Yeats s The Tower appeared in bookstores in London on Valentine s Day 1928 His English publisher printed just 2 000 copies of this slender volume of twenty one poems priced at six shillings The book was immediately embraced by book buyers and critics alike and it quickly became a bestseller Subsequent versions of the volume made various changes throughout but this Scribner facsimile edition reproduces exactly that seminal first edition as it reached its earliest audience in 1928 adding an introduction and notes by esteemed Yeats scholar Richard J Finneran Written between 1912 and 1927 these poems Sailing to Byzantium Leda and the Swan and Among School Children among them are today considered some of the best and most famous in the entire Yeats canon As Virginia Woolf declared in her unsigned review of this collection Mr Yeats has never written more exactly and more passionately The Romantic Fragment Poem Marjorie Levinson,2017-11-01 The fragment poem long regarded as a peculiarly Romantic phenomenon has never been examined outside the context of thematic and biographical criticism By submitting the unfinished poems of the English Romantics to both a genetic investigation and a reception study Marjorie Levinson defines the fragment s formal character at various moments in its historical career She suggests that the formal determinancy of these works hence their expressive or semantic affinities is a function of historical conditions and projections The English Romantic fragment poems share not so much a particular mode of production as a myth of production Levinson pries apart these two dimensions and analyzes each independently to consider their relationship By reconstructing the contemporary reception of such works as Wordsworth s Nutting Coleridge s Christabel and Kubla Khan Shelley s Julian and Maddalo and Keats s Hyperion fragments and juxtaposing this model against dominant twentieth century critical paradigms Levinson discriminates layers phases and kinds of intentionality in the poems and considers the ideological implications of this diversity This study is the first to investigate the English Romantic fragment poem by identifying the assumptions contemporary and belated that govern interpretative procedures In a substantial summary chapter Levinson reflects upon the meaning and effects of these assumptions with respect to the facts and fictions of literary production in the period and to the processes of canon formation Originally published in 1986 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value
