Popular Ballads and Songs ,1806 The Holy Bible Adam Clarke,1833 Female Infanticide in India Rashmi Dube Bhatnagar,Renu Dube,Reena Dube,2012-02-01 Female Infanticide in India is a theoretical and discursive intervention in the field of postcolonial feminist theory It focuses on the devaluation of women through an examination of the practice of female infanticide in colonial India and the reemergence of this practice in the form of femicide selective killing of female fetuses in postcolonial India The authors argue that femicide is seen as part of the continuum of violence on and devaluation of the postcolonial girl child and woman In order to fully understand the material and discursive practices through which the limited and localized crime of female infanticide in colonial India became a generalized practice of femicide in postcolonial India the authors closely examine the progressivist British colonial history of the discovery reform and eradication of the practice of female infanticide Contemporary tactics of resistance are offered in the closing chapters The Literary Construction of the Other in the Acts of the Apostles Mitzi J Smith,2012-06-28 Mitzi Smith engages the reader in explaining how as in the real world the characterization of the Others is used negatively in the biblical texts Smith shows how the concept of difference is constructed in order to distinguish ourselves from proximate others indeed the other who is most similar to us is most threatening and most problematic The process of Othering or Otherness is a synthetic and political social construct that allows us to create and maintain boundaries between them and us Thus this work demonstrates how proximate characters are constructed as the Other in the Acts of the Apostles Charismatics Jews and women are proximate
