Presents a catalog that surveys the Dutch paintings found in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Still-life Paintings from the Netherlands, 1550-1720 Alan Chong, W. Th. Kloek, 1999 This stunning book presents the very best still lifes produced in the Netherlands at the height of the genre from the early beginnings in the 16th century with Pieter Aertsen and Joachim Beuckelaer to the late highlights in the 18th century with Rachel Ruysch and Jan van Huysum Despite the popularity and abundance of flower paintings in modern collections the book includes a wide range of subjects and styles from the simple to the complex the charmingly small to the opulent and extravagant and from flowers to hunting still lifes or objects in the corner of a painter's studio along with an occasional trompe l'oeil The visual delights of still life painting have a strong historical context Collectors and connoisseurs purchased them because of their realism visual appeal and relevance to their own lives Poets praised the wonders of still life paintings and evoked the power of painting to transcend the seasons and the passing of time Contemporary observers lauded the expensive and elaborate objects often on display The book therefore considers the visual achievement of the Netherlandish still life painters in the context of contemporary reactions to pictures art theory and issues of patronage Numerous artists were tempted to try their hand at still life drawn by a new and enchanting genre that allowed an artist to create independent worlds of inanimate objects on the flat surface of a picture imaginary realms that had an exceptional following among connoisseurs of the time These images continue to work their magic on present day art lovers Dutch Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Walter A.
