Bill Mallon, Randon Jerris

Severiano Ballesteros:

Seve Ballesteros, 2007 There are golfers and there are golfers And then there s Seve Severiano Ballesteros is perhaps the most naturally gifted golfer ever to have walked a fairway From the moment his brother Manuel gave him his first club u a 3 iron u he was unstoppable he played shots others could only dream of A few weeks before his seventeenth birthday he turned pro Five years later he won the Open A year after that he became the first European ever to win the Masters A genius had arrived For the best part of two decades Seve dominated the golfing landscape With 94 wins to date as a professional including 5 Majors 6 European Order of Merit titles and the No 1 position in the Official World Golf Rankings he became a sporting phenomenon an athlete who transcended u and still transcends u his sport But Seve stands for more than simple excellence Almost single handedly Seve gave European golf credibility almost single handedly he made the Ryder Cup one of the greatest contests in world sport And when as captain he finally lifted the trophy on home soil in 1997 a whole continent rejoiced His pride and passion have inspired millions and we have taken him to our hearts Now for the first time Seve tells his story From his humble beginnings right up to the present day here at last is the man behind the magic in his own words Like its author SEVE is utterly entertaining blazingly charismatic and unique and like its author it wears its heart on its sleeve But SEVE is more than Seve the golfing magician Seve the proud family man and Seve the fierce patriot It is simply Seve Seve Alistair Tait, 2012-05-31 Seve is the most extrovert player Europe has ever produced Playboy good looks along with a magnetism that attracted non golfers to the game made him the biggest drawing card Europe has ever had He emerged on the world scene with typical Ian hitting one of the most outrageous shots ever seen at the 1976 Open Championship Three years later he became the youngest Open Champion of the modern era when he won the first of his five major championships Ballesteros started Europe s domination of the Majors throughout the 80s and 90s paving the way for Nick Faldo Bernhard Langer Ian Woosnam Sandy Lyle and Jose Maria Olazabal His play in the Ryder Cup fuelled by an intense dislike for Americans helped restore Europe s pride in the event Driven by Basque pride and with a fiery Latin temperament Seve has often let his heart rule his head Seve is the remarkable story of one of the game s most fascinating characters Severiano Ballesteros David Cannon, 1986-01-01 The Captain Myth Richard Gillis, 2016-08-25 The War on the Shore the Battle of Brookline the Miracle of Medinah the Ryder Cup is golf s and arguably one of international sport s most intense high profile tournaments Two teams tussle through 28 matches over three days for no prize money but enormous national pride And purportedly in charge of those two teams are the captains whose reputations are shaped forever by their players results out on the course Justin Rose s unlikely 35 foot on the 17th green at Medinah Country Club set up Europe s triumph and one of modern sport s most remarkable turnarounds in the 2012 Ryder Cup It also established Davis Love II as a bad captain and saw Jos Mar a Olaz bal feted for a series of leadership masterstrokes In reality neither captain had much to do with that putt being sunk Yet the pressure remains on the captains to lead their team to victory As each Cup passes more theories are put forward about how to win Some of these combine traditional golfing nous with cutting edge sports psychology Others are red herrings that have led captains down any number of blind alleys So what can a captain do to win the Ryder Cup Using exclusive interviews and saturation reporting Gillis shows how strategy has evolved since the very first match in 1927 exploring the enduring and often surprising role played by some of the game s greatest stars including Walter Hagen Arnold Palmer Jack Nicklaus Tony Jacklin Seve Ballesteros and Paul Azinger The Captain Myth uses golf s greatest event to examine some fundamental questions about leadership teams and motivation Latino 1986 Masters John Boyette, 2013-03-05 At the age of forty-six, Jack Nicklaus was considered by some to be done as a championship golfer. Entering the 1986 Masters, most folks had written off the Golden Bear. But the winner of a record seventeen professional majors wasn't done yet. After a slow start, Nicklaus got in the hunt during the weekend and he played the final nine holes in a 6-under-par 30. He roared past a who's who of top golfers that day to win his sixth Masters title, a record that still exists. Most experts agree that it was the most thrilling day of tournament golf ever played. Upon the twenty-fifth anniversary of arguably the most exciting Masters in history, THE 1986 MASTERS is nearly a hole-by-hole account written by a veteran sports journalist who was there. Illustrated with more than fifty exclusive photographs of the tournament from the award-winning team at the Augusta Chronicle, it takes you right onto the course with the golfers. Author John Boyette includes commentary from interviews with the key figures connected to the 1986 Masters: From Nicklaus's wife and son to CBS announcers to the players themselves—Greg Norman, Tom Kite, Bernhard Langer, Sandy Lyle, Seve Ballesteros, and many more—an amazing chorus of voices that helps tell this remarkable story. And the voice of Jack Nicklaus shines as well in an interview provided exclusively for the book. A thoroughly absorbing narrative about one of golf's greatest moments created by one of golf's greatest figures, THE 1986 MASTERS is a must-read for any golf fan.

His Father's Son Tom Callahan, 2010-10-28 A revealing and intimate biography of the man who influenced Tiger Woods the most, his father Earl Woods. Tiger Woods has been with us since he appeared on The Mike Douglas Show as a two-year-old hitting golf balls for Bob Hope. In the three decades since he established himself as the most dominant golfer of all time and became the wealthiest athlete on the planet, and beside him was his father and best friend Earl Woods. In His Father's Son, bestselling author Tom Callahan recounts the life of Earl Dennison Woods, and his son Callahan recounts Earl's boyhood in Manhattan, Kansas; his days as a star baseball player at Kansas State and his military career with the special forces. He details Earl's final tour in Vietnam where he became close friends with a South Vietnamese operative named Tiger Phong. Earl picked up golf after his retirement from the military, and when he became a father for the last time, his son, another Tiger, would watch him hit balls from his high chair. As soon as Tiger could stand, he was swinging a golf club. Under Earl's tutelage, he went on to the most storied amateur career in golf history. He was a millionaire the day he announced he was going pro. Callahan follows Tiger through every one of his major championship wins, discussing his complex and ever-changing relationship with his father He places Tiger into the context of golf history detailing his chase of Nicklaus's records and his interactions with fellow pros He reveals that Tiger stepped away from golf after his father's death and examines Tiger's recent troubles in light of his father's own womanizing Written in lyric prose and based on interviews with Earl Tiger and dozens of insiders Callahan reveals in His Father's Son the man who made Tiger who he is The Obits: New York Times Annual 2012 William McDonald, 2011-11-11 The obits It's the first section many of us turn to when we open the paper not to see who died but rather to find out about who lived to discover the interesting lives of people who've made a mark A new annual that collects nearly 300 of the best of The New York Times obituaries from the previous year The Obits Annual 2012 is a compelling addictive as salted peanuts who's who of some of the most fascinating people of the twentieth century Written by top journalists each entry is a jewel a miniature nuanced biography filled with the facts we love to read with the surprise and serendipity of life There's David L Wolper the producer of Roots and the story of how he got his start purchasing film footage from Sputnik The jazz singer Abbey Lincoln and her change from glamorous performer she owned a dress of Marilyn Monroe's to civil rights activist she burned the Monroe dress Owsley Stanley the quirky perfecter of LSD who blamed a heart attack on the fact that his mother made him eat broccoli as a child Patricia Neal known by most as a movie star but her real life filled with tragedy adversity and incredible professional ups and downs is almost a surreal play of triumph and tragedy Arranged chronologically like the obits themselves it's a deliciously random walk through the recent past meeting the philosophers newsmen spies publishers moguls soul singers baseball managers Nobel Prize winners models and others who've shaped the world One Hand on the Claret Jug Norman Dabell, 2011-07-15 Everyone remembers a winner especially when victory comes in the oldest major golf championship in the world But what about the players who got to the brink and then let the ancient trophy slip through their fingers The Open has always featured triumph and disaster since it began in 1860 and this book is all about the latter of those two impostors From Doug Sanders missed three footer in 1970 to Monty's brave bid to finally end his major wait in 2005 at last the Open's hard luck stories can be told What happened when the chips were down for Tony Jacklin and how did it affect his major chances from then on Whose air shot possibly cost him the Open Why did Tom Watson hit a two iron at the Road Hole How could a marshal have cost Bernhard Langer his best chance of winning an Open Why didn't Jesper Parnevik check the leaderboard in 1994 Who had a vision he was going to sink one of the most famous putts in Open history Why did Jean Van de Velde have such a nightmare at the Barry Burn at Carnoustie in 1999 Read about those who had one hand on the Claret Jug but in the end didn't lift it in triumph Golf Robert Green, 1987
