

✠ On Mary, the Mother of God ✠

“Since there was no union with a husband, the Holy Spirit acted as initiator and made the conception happen himself. In this way, the very Word of God, when he was conceived and born according to the flesh, made Mary the Mother of God, insofar as she gave birth to the Word, endowed with a body.

Thus it is precisely on the basis of that which is better and more admirable that she is called ‘Theotokos’, because the mystery consists in the victory of the best part, in the elevation of our race, which leads to its perfection.”

—Homily 14:16 (Written ca. 490 A.D.)
