Sex And Borders Gender National Identity And Prostitution Policy In Thailand:

Sex and Borders Leslie Ann Jeffrey,2002 The King and the Making of Modern Thailand Antonio

Rappa,2017-04-21 The making of modern Thailand is grounded in specific political institutions Brahmanical tropes and sacred Buddhist traditions stylized with Hindu rituals Over and above these mysterious practices and ancient customs modern Thailand is a product of the late Great Rama IX Bhumibol Adulyadej Most Thai people have only known one King Born in Europe and educated during World War II Bhumibol was the son of a Harvard medical doctor who had a penchant for jazz music and fast cars When he returned to Thailand in 1951 to assume his royal duties he could hardly speak Thai but his French and German were remarkable Bhumibol had inherited an impoverished country with nothing but a symbolic role as a figurehead monarch He was surrounded by envious courtiers and royals from other families now sidelined by the rise of the Chakri Scheming generals and authoritarian field marshals were emptying the Kingdom s coffers Using guile and wit Bhumibol had turned the tide by 1973 He became the most powerful modern warlord in the history of the Kingdom He survived attempted murder crafty politicians corrupt generals sycophantic courtiers and impoverished masses When he died on October 13 2016 Bhumibol was already the longest standing monarch in the world King Bhumibol was deeply respected and well liked by farang and locals alike Despite his massive social and economic achievements many problems continue to plague the Kingdom These are prostitution human rights issues pollution corruption cronyism in Chinese businesses border conflicts with Cambodia and the refugee problem This book examines the role of Rama IX and the variegated set of problems that persist in life under the great white elephant and mango trees Rappa draws from his primary research that includes interviews surveys and first hand observations of a remarkable kingdom and a uniquely remarkable king to reveal the internal security threats to democracy and civil society in the oldest Southeast Asian kingdom in late modernity Culture and Communication in Thailand Patchanee Malikhao,2017-05-02 This book features research papers that examine a host of contemporary issues in Thailand Coverage includes culture gender violence tourism human trafficking environmental and ecological issues sustainability and the sufficiency economy the mis handling of elephants and more It features a sociological and anthropological perspective with a dash of communication for sustainable social change The papers investigate the various phases of communication technology and its impact on cultural change in the country They explore the use of social networks and privacy issues as well as ethical journalism in the contexts of Thai Buddhism Thai culture and other enabling environmental factors The contributors focus on documentary research of both quantitative and qualitative data on Thai social change as a consequence of globalization and digital technology They first provide a general overview of social media and communication in the country Next the authors go on to explore the specifics of digital communication This includes a look at its impact on the various ways of Thai communication given politico economic and religious influences Reclaiming Canadian Bodies Lynda Mannik,Karen McGarry,2015-02-27 The central focus of Reclaiming Canadian Bodies is the relationship between visual media the construction of Canadian national identity and notions of embodiment It asks how particular representations of bodies are constructed and performed within the context of visual and discursive mediated content The book emphasizes the ways individuals destabilize national mainstream visual tropes which in turn have the potential to destabilize nationalist messages Drawing upon rich empirical research and relevant theory the contributors ask how and why particular bodies of Estonian immigrants sports stars First Nations peoples self identified homosexuals and women are either promoted and upheld as Canadian bodies while others are marginalized in or excluded from media representations Essays are grouped into three sections Embodied Ideals The Embodiment of Others and Embodied Activism and Advocacy Written in an accessible style for a broad audience of scholars and students this volume is original within the field of visual media affect theory and embodiment due to its emphasis on detailed empirical and in some cases ethnographic research within a Canadian context

Brokered Subjects Elizabeth Bernstein, 2019-01-01 Brokered Subjects digs deep into the accepted narratives of sex trafficking to reveal the troubling assumptions that have shaped both right and left wing agendas around sexual violence Drawing on years of in depth fieldwork Elizabeth Bernstein sheds light not only on trafficking but also on the broader structures that meld the ostensible pursuit of liberation with contemporary techniques of power Rather than any meaningful commitment to the safety of sex workers Bernstein argues what lies behind our current vision of trafficking victims is a transnational mix of putatively humanitarian militaristic interventions feel good capitalism and what she terms carceral feminism a feminism compatible with police batons

Sex and the contract Vincenzo Zeno-Zencovich, 2015-10-01 DOI 10 13134 978 88 97524 45 8

The Politics of Prostitution Joyce Outshoorn, 2004-01-08 The most effective way to deal with prostitution has always been hotly debated by governments and women s movements alike Feminists want it abolished or regulated as sex work governments have to safeguard public health and order This book first published in 2004 shows how women s movements in Western Europe North America and Australia have affected politics on prostitution and trafficking of women since the 1970s asking what made them successful in some countries but a failure in others It also assesses whether government institutions to advance the status of women so called women s policy agencies have played a key role in achieving policy outcomes favourable to movement demands Written by an international team of experts and based on original sources all chapters follow the same framework to ensure comparability The final chapter offers an overall comparison identifying what makes women s movements successful and women s agencies effective presenting the case for state feminism

Women and Sex Tourism Landscapes Erin Sanders-McDonagh, 2016-08-12 Sexual spaces normally inhabited by mostly female sex workers are understood as masculine spaces and positioned for and around male consumers However red light zones and public sex performances in both Thailand and Holland are being explored and visually consumed by female tourists in significant numbers Their presence in red light districts and sexual venues is at odds with the ways in which sexual spaces have normally been positioned Woman and Sex Tourism Landscapes explores female tourists interactions with highly sexualized spaces and places in two very different contexts the Netherlands and Thailand Addressing this incongruence this text explores the ways in which these spaces are constructed and examines the different relations that govern the management of and female tourist interactions with these liminal sexual zones Ethnographic data collected in both countries suggests that far from being male centred spaces the red light districts and associated sexual entertainment venues are very much open to female tourists Drawing on this research the author argues that some women are indeed interested in exploring sexualized zones challenging assumptions about women s involvements with sexual space Thinking specifically about the visual nature of women s sexualized experiences the analysis draws on a range of different theoretical understandings that address power privilege and the gaze An important contribution to a range of debates this book will appeal to students and researchers in tourism geography sociology gender studies and cultural theory

The Anthropology of Sex Hastings Donnan, Fiona Magowan, 2020-05-31 Sex scholarship has a long history in anthropology from the studies of voyeuristic Victorian gentlemen ethnographers to more recent analyses of gay sex transsexualism and the newly visible forms of contemporary sexuality in the West The Anthropology of Sex draws on the comparative field research of anthropologists to examine the relationship between sex as identity practice and experience Sexual cultures vary enormously and while often the topic of tabloid titillation they are more rarely subjected to strict cultural analysis The Anthropology of Sex is the first work to critically synthesise over a century of comparative expertise knowledge and understanding of diverse sexual forms Explores sexuality from diversity to perversity and asks how diverse sexual practices are linked Probes the cultural and comparative context of contemporary sexual practice and belief Examines the shaping of sex by global and globalizing forces The Anthropology of Sex will be key reading for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in anthropology and related disciplines

Ghostly Desires Arnika Fuhrmann, 2016-05-19 Through an examination of post 1997 Thai cinema and video art Arnika Fuhrmann shows how vernacular Buddhist tenets stories and images combine with sexual politics in figuring current struggles over notions of personhood sexuality and collective life The drama horror heritage and experimental art films she analyzes draw on Buddhist informed conceptions of impermanence and prominently feature the motif of the female ghost In these films the characters eroticization in the spheres of loss and death represents an improvisation on the Buddhist disavowal of attachment and highlights under recognized female and queer desire and persistence Her feminist and queer readings reveal the entangled relationships between film sexuality Buddhist ideas and the Thai state s regulation of heteronormative sexuality Fuhrmann thereby provides insights into the configuration of contemporary Thailand while opening up new possibilities for thinking about queer personhood and femininity

Imagining Gay Paradise Gary L. Atkins, 2012-01-01 This look at gay paradises in Southeast Asia and the men who created them considers the obstacles gay men have faced in securing a voice as citizens and how they have used images of paradise in Bali Bangkok and Singapore to create a sense of refuge construct homes for themselves and dissent from typical notions of manhood and masculinity It focuses on Walter Spies a gay German painter who in the 1930s depicted Bali as an ideal male aesthetic state Khun Toc who founded an architectural paradise called Babylon in Thailand and the cyber paradise of Fridae com created by a young Singaporean named Stuart Koe Collectively Atkins examines their pursuit of sexual justice the ideologies of manhood they challenged the different types of gay spaces they created geographic architectural online and political obstacles they have encountered Gary Atkins is professor of communication at Seattle University He is the author of Gay Seattle Stories of Exile and Belonging

Governing Sex, Building the Nation Wan-Chen Yen, 2015-09-18

Governing Sex Building the Nation explores the sexual politics of Chinese nationalism in Taiwan between 1945 and 1979 focusing on the politicisation of prostitution and its role in the reproduction of postcolonial nationhood This book examines the political struggle over prostitution policy that was framed within and through contested knowledge rationales and tactics underpinning the nationalist project constructing and policing prostitution as a social national problem yet also creating a market for prostitution and turning it into political opportunities that served a variety of nationalistic interests Locating this in the larger Asian struggle with colonial influence on prostitution the author provides interesting and rare accounts of official perspectives and tactics regarding prostitution in the Taiwanese context in order to explore the interlinkages between post colonialism prostitution and nationalism Featuring insights into Japanese and Chinese colonialism and the Eastern Asian experience of postcolonialism this book shifts academic attention from mainstream postcolonial studies which highlight Western colonialism and Indian and African postcolonialism It thereby discovers more diverse approaches to postcolonial nation building and a more intricate interaction between colonial powers and the colonised society and as such adds new depth to postcolonial studies Bringing the politics of nationalism and postcolonialism into the study of prostitution policies this book also provides an understanding of prostitution in a once colonised society in contrast to the broadly recognised gender and sexual politics of prostitution in the Western context

Getting Past 'the Pimp' Chris Bruckert, Colette Parent, 2018-01-18

The issue of third parties in the sex industry individuals who are neither the client nor the service provider has become especially urgent in our current socio political context Surprisingly in spite of an emergence of critical scholarship on the sex industry as well as recommendations by key governmental committees little attention has been extended to examining the role of individuals labelled pimps procurers and traffickers Addressing the function of third parties on the street and indoors Getting Past the Pimp incorporates solid empirical evidence including documentary analysis 75 interviews with third parties and 52 interviews with sex workers to unpack the roles and relationships of third parties in three sectors of the sex industry incall outcall stripping and street based prostitution Contrary to prevailing stereotypes that portray third parties as inherently abusive and controlling these workers fulfill important roles and provide vital services as associates fee for service hires and agency owners or managers responsible for scheduling and arranging transportation and security The sex industry like mainstream businesses rarely depend exclusively on client and worker to operate efficiently and safely

The Political Economy of Violence Against Women Jacquie True,2012-09-06 Violence against women is a major problem in all countries affecting women in every socio economic group and at every life stage Yet when women enjoy good social and economic status they are less vulnerable to violence across all societies This book develops a political economy approach to understanding violence against women from the household to the transnational level accounting for its globally increasing scale and brutality

Asian Transnational Organized Crime and Its Impact on the United States Barry Leonard,2010-11 Assesses the impact of Asian transnational organized crime on the U S while at the same time determining high priority areas for further research and identifying potential research partners and sources of relevant data and info in Asia The aim was thus not to examine the organized crime situation in the region in detail but rather to lay the foundation for a research agenda that would ultimately accomplish this purpose It describes the divergent perceptions of Asian transnational organized crime held by the Asian versus the U S participants and also offers a researcher s perspective It also explains the scope and patterns of Asian organized crime and offers an initial assessment of the impact of Asian transnational organized crime on the U S

Asian Transnational Organized Crime and Its Impact on the United States James O. Finckenauer,2007

NIJ Special Report, Asian Transnational Organized Crime and Its Impact on The United States, January 2007 ,2007

Women's Movements in Asia Mina Roces,Louise Edwards,2010-06-10 Written by leading international experts this book provides an overview of the history and current context of feminism in 12 Asian countries This breadth of coverage together with suggestions for further study and an integrated cross national timeline makes Women s Movements in Asia ideal for use on courses looking at women and feminism in Asia

Occupying Power Sarah Kovner,2012-02-08 The year was 1945 Hundreds of thousands of Allied troops poured into war torn Japan and spread throughout the country The effect of this influx on the local population did not lessen in the years following the war s end In fact the presence of foreign servicemen also heightened the visibility of certain others particularly panpan streetwalkers who were objects of their desire Occupying Power shows how intimate histories and international relations are interconnected in ways scholars have only begun to explore Sex workers who catered to servicemen were integral to the postwar economic recovery yet they were nonetheless blamed for increases in venereal disease and charged with diluting the Japanese race by producing mixed race offspring In 1956 Japan passed its first national law against prostitution which produced an unanticipated effect By ending a centuries old tradition of sex work regulation it made sex workers less visible and more vulnerable This probing history reveals an important but underexplored aspect of the Japanese occupation and its effect on gender and society It shifts the terms of debate on a number of controversies including Japan s history of forced sexual slavery rape accusations against U S servicemen opposition to U S overseas bases and sexual trafficking
