Systemic Discrimination in Employment and the Promotion of Ethnic Equality Ronald L. Craig,2007 This book argues that traditional complaint based antidiscrimination laws are inherently inadequate to respond to systemic discrimination in employment It examines the mechanisms and characteristics of systemic discrimination and the shortcomings of complaint based laws Yet these characteristics can also inform employers and government authorities of the kinds of preventive action that help alleviate systemic discrimination at the workplace In its search for a rational government policy response to systemic discrimination the book evaluates selected legal regimes which impose proactive obligations on employers to promote equality at the workplace Proactive regimes are regulatory in nature rather than adjudicatory They induce employer compliance through technical assistance dialogue and regulatory pressure rather than court orders By examining the key elements of these regimes the author explains why some proactive regimes function better than others and why proactive regimes function better than complaint based laws in addressing systemic discrimination International Women's Rights Law and Gender Equality Ramona Vijayarasa, 2021-07-22 The law is a well known tool in fighting gender inequality but which laws actually advance women's rights This book unpacks the complex nuances behind gender responsive domestic legislation from several of the world's leading experts on gender equality Drawing on domestic examples and international law it provides a primer of theory alongside tangible and practical solutions to fulfil the promise of the law to deliver equality between men and women Part I outlines what progress has been made to date on eradicating gender inequality and insights into the law's potential as one lever in the global struggle for equality Parts II and III go on to explore concrete areas of law with case studies from multiple jurisdictions that examine how well domestic legislation is working for women The authors bring their critical lens to areas of law often considered from a gender perspective gender based violence women's reproductive health labour and gender equality quotas while bringing much needed analysis to issues often ignored in gender debates such as taxation environmental justice and good governance Part IV seeks to move from a theoretical goal of greater accountability to a practical one It explores both accountability for international women's rights norms at the domestic level and the potential of feminist approaches to legislation to deliver laws that work for women Written for students academics legislators and policymakers engaged in international women's rights law gender equality government accountability and feminist legal theory this book has tremendous transformative potential to drive forward legal change towards the eradication of gender inequality Good People, Good Practice Hilary Haman, Sally Irvine, 2001 This guide to personnel management has case studies to illustrate common problems and dilemmas It clarifies legislation and its application to primary care This edition focuses more on issues of recruitment discrimination and harassment A Guide to Good Employment Practice in the Community and Voluntary Sector (2nd ed) Jane Clarke, 2002 Equal Opportunities Review, 2005
