Mayblin,2010-03-29 Through the ethnography of a Catholic community in Northeast Brazil Maya Mayblin offers a vivid and provocative rethink of gendered portrayals of Catholic life For the residents of Santa Lucia life is conceptualized as a series of moral tradeoffs between the sinful and productive world against an idealized state of innocence conceived with reference to local Catholic teachings As marriage marks the beginning of a productive life in the world it also marks a phase in which moral personhood comes most actively and poignantly to the fore This book offers lucid observations on how men and women as husbands and wives fathers and mothers negotiate this challenge As well as making an important contribution to the ethnographic literature on morality Christianity and Latin America the book offers a compelling alternative to received portrayals of gender polarity as symbolically all encompassing throughout the Catholic world Economic Ethics and Chinese Culture Xuanmeng Yu,1997 Mobility, Markets and Indigenous Socialities Cecilie Vindal Ødegaard,2016-04-15 Exploring how people from Andean communities seek progress and social mobility by moving to the cities Cecilie degaard demonstrates the changing significance of kinship reciprocity and ritual in an urban context Through a focus on people s involvement in land occupations and local associations labour and trade degaard examines the dialectics between popular practices and neoliberal state policies in processes of urbanization The making and un making of notions of the Indigenous communal work and gender is central in this analysis and is discussed against the historical backdrop of the land occupations in Peruvian cities since the 1930s Through its close ethnographic description of everyday life in a new urban neighbourhood this book reveals how social and spatial categories and boundaries are continually negotiated in people s quest for mobility and progress Cecilie degaard argues that conventional meanings of prosperity and progress are significantly altered in interaction with Andean understandings of reciprocity By combining a unique ethnographic account with original theoretical arguments the book provides new insight into the cultural cosmological and political dimensions of mobility progress and market participation The Archaeology of Identities Timothy Insoll,2007-01-24 The Archaeology of Identities brings together seventeen seminal articles from this exciting new discipline in one indispensable volume for the first time Editor Timothy Insoll expertly selects a cross section of contributions by leading authorities to form a comprehensive and balanced representation of approaches and interests Issues covered include gender and sexuality ethnicity nationalism and caste age ideology disability Chapters are thematically arranged and are contextualized with lucid summaries and an introductory chapter providing an accessible introduction to the varied selection of case studies included and archaeological materials considered from global sources The study of identity is increasingly recognized as a fundamental division of archaeological enquiry and has recently become the focus of a variety of new and challenging developments As such this volume will fast become the definitive sourcebook in archaeology of identities making it essential reading for students lecturers and researchers in the field The Corner of the Living Miguel La Serna,2012-03-12 Peru s indigenous peoples played a key role in the tortured tale of Shining Path guerrillas from the 1960s through the first decade of the twenty first century The villagers of Chuschi and Huaychao high in the mountains of the department of Ayacucho have an iconic place in this violent history Emphasizing the years leading up to the peak period of violence from 1980 to 2000 when 69 000 people lost their lives Miguel La Serna asks why some Andean peasants chose to embrace Shining Path ideology and others did not Drawing on archival materials and ethnographic field work La Serna argues that historically rooted and locally specific power relations social conflicts and cultural understandings shaped the responses of indigenous peasants to the insurgency In Chuschi the guerrillas found indigenous support for the movement and dreamed of sparking a worldwide Maoist revolution In Huaychao by contrast villagers rose up against Shining Path forces precipitating more violence and feeding an international uproar that took on political significance for Peru during the Cold War The Corner of the Living illuminates both the stark realities of life for the rural poor everywhere and why they may or may not choose to mobilize around a revolutionary cause
