contributions this volume considers the broad range of ways in which ethics and politics can be conceived and understood. The chapters look at various ethical traditions as well as the discursive deployment of ethical terminology in organizational settings and they also examine large scale political structures and processes and how they relate to different forms of politics which affect behaviour in organizations. These many possibilities are united by a focus on how ethics can be used to inform and justify the exercise of power in organizations. This collection will be a valuable reference source for students and researchers across the disciplines of organizational studies ethics and politics.

Violence, Prejudice and Sexuality

Stephen Tomsen, 2013-05-13 The binary model of sexuality can be devastating and even fatal for people left outside the category of heterosexuality. Essentialist categories of sexuality and gender are often enforced by harassment and violence as is clear in the case of violence directed against sexual minorities such as homosexual men. This book investigates why men launch assaults on sexual minorities why these attacks are so vicious and frequently irrational the identities of perpetrators and their victims and why such violence seems to have some acceptance in fields such as law psychiatry the media and popular opinion. Tomsen discusses the theoretical and research literatures on models of understanding human sexuality and gender and the nature of hate violence and prejudice in contemporary societies and also provides an analysis from his own original research to draw out the contradictory nature of both sexual identity and violence and the significance of viewing both fields as linked domains. This text makes an important contribution to current and future discussions of the nature of social prejudice and its ties to legal rulings collective beliefs and mainstream culture.

Gender and Political Psychology

Zoe Oxley, 2017-10-02 This book showcases new work done by gender politics scholars and political psychologists covering a variety of political psychology topics. These include stereotyping and prejudice intergroup conflict social identity attitude formation group affinity group decision making anxiety contextual effects on individual behaviour and the evolutionary roots of political behaviour. Political psychological insights are applied to address topics of longstanding concern within the field of gender and politics. Among the citizenry gender differences in political ideology responses to partisan conflict Hispanic identity formation and symbolic racism are explored. Other chapters pose the following questions relating to female candidates: What have been the effects of state parties gender inclusive policies? Who is most likely to gender stereotype candidates? Are general attitudes toward women in political office related to vote choice in specific contests? What are the implications of politicized motherhood? Finally a set of essays engage a variety of themes related to gender decision making rules and authority in small deliberative bodies. This book was originally published as a special issue of Politics Groups and Identities.

The Politics of Professionalism, Opportunity, Employment, and Gender

Sarah Slavin, 1987 This dynamic volume illustrates the expanded notion of political that has evolved as a result of the women's movement. Rich in analysis and description the chapters offer clear cut policy proposals and new conceptualizations of organizational frameworks and concepts that have consequence for the lives of women and men in such areas as the staging of careers the division of labor in family and professional settings and nepotism Contributors focus on the interconnections between traditional political behavior and the larger social context in which it is played out The Politics of Professionalism Opportunity Employment and Gender presents a current and realistic picture of the complexity of the political processes and a better sense of the less obvious elements that determine the political process The EU Enlargement and Gay Politics Koen

Sloutmaeckers, Heleen Touquet, Peter Vermeersch, 2016-06-23 This book offers a well investigated and accessible picture of the current situation around the politics of LGBT Lesbian Gay Bisexual and Transgender rights and activism in Central Europe and the Western Balkans in the context of the enlargement of the European Union EU It provides not only thoughtful reflections on the topic but also a wealth of new empirical findings arising from legal and policy analysis large scale sociological investigations and country case studies Theoretical concepts come from institutional analysis the study of social movements law and Europeanization literature The authors discuss emerging Europe wide activism for LGBT rights and analyze issues such as the tendency of nationalist movements to turn sexual others into national others the actions and rhetoric of church actors as powerful counter mobilizers against LGBT rights and the role of the domestic state on the receiving end of EU pressure in the field of fundamental rights Sex Radical Cinema Carol Siegel, 2015-11-18 In this provocative study of cinematic and televisual representations of sex radicalism Carol Siegel explores how representations of sexually explicit content on film have shaped American cultural visions of sex and sexual politics in the 21st century Siegel distinguishes between a liberal approach to visual representations which has over emphasized normative equal opportunity while undervaluing our distinctive erotic selves and a radical approach to visual representation which portrays forbidden sexualities and desires She illustrates how visual media participates in and even drives political policies related to pedophilia prostitution interracial relationships and war By examining such popular film and television shows as Mystic River The Wire Fifty Shades of Grey Batman Returns and the HBO hits Sex and the City and Girls Siegel takes the discussion of radical sex in the movies out of the margins of political discussions and puts it in the center where she argues it has belonged all along
