Miracle on 34th Street Jeffrey Paul Thompson,2024-08-06 Despite having been made into three TV movies a radio drama a stage play a Broadway musical a feature film remake in color and a book adaptation the 1947 black and white film of Miracle on 34th Street still remains the favorite version of this modern Christmas classic The American public seems to echo what Macy's stated when declining to participate in the 1994 remake We felt there was nothing to be improved upon In many ways it is a perfect film in the sense that there really is nothing that could have been done better the story the casting the acting were all spot on The decade from 1941-1951 saw a bumper crop of classic Christmas including Christmas in Connecticut Holiday Inn and It's a Wonderful Life but with the exception of the latter film none have had the staying power of Miracle on 34th Street This book describes the origins of the story the casting and production of the film its marketing and publicity and even how it elevated the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade from a local New York event to a national celebration Finally it looks at the film's legacy including its high ranking among best Christmas movies of all time as well as its placement as ninth overall on the American Film Institute's list of the most inspiring films

Hollywood Sex Comedies, 1953-1964 Hal Erickson,2024-06-27 The Hollywood sex comedy a feature length film in which sex motivates the storyline and the laughs are triggered by sexual situations came into its own with the 1953 release of the once controversial The Moon Is Blue. That film received very positive critical and audience response despite being denied a seal of approval from the Production Code Administration and receiving a Condemned rating from the Legion of Decency. These two formidable watchdog agencies would continue to be challenged and audiences would continue to be convulsed by the abundance of sex comedies still to come. The present informal survey focuses on 25 selected examples of the genre released between 1953 and 1964. Along with such familiar works as The Seven Year Itch, The Tender Trap, Pillow Talk, and Kiss Me Stupid, several lesser known sex comedies like I Married a Woman, The Tunnel of Love, Happy Anniversary, and Period of Adjustment are documented, analyzed, and placed in context with their times. Some are masterpieces, others mildly amusing, and a few downright awful, but all are fascinating artifacts of a bygone era in popular entertainment.

Hollywood Goes Latin María de las Carreras, Jan-Christopher Horak, 2019-05-01. In the 1920s Los Angeles enjoyed a buoyant homegrown Spanish language culture comprised of local and itinerant stock companies that produced zarzuelas, stage plays, and variety acts. After the introduction of sound films, Spanish language cinema thrived in the city's downtown theatres screening throughout the 1930s, 1940s, and 1950s in venues such as the Teatro El Cítrico, the California, the Roosevelt, the Mason, the Azteca, the Million Dollar, and the Mayan Theater, among others. With the emergence and growth of Mexican and Argentine sound cinema in the early to mid 1930s, downtown Los Angeles quickly became the undisputed capital of Latin American cinema culture in the United States. Meanwhile, the advent of talkies resulted in the Hollywood studios hiring local and international talent from Latin America and Spain for the production of films in Spanish. Parallel with these productions, a series of Spanish language films were financed by independent producers. As a result, Los Angeles can be viewed as the most important hub in the United States for the production, distribution, and exhibition of films made in Spanish for Latin American audiences. In April 2017, the International Federation of Film Archives organized a symposium, Hollywood Goes Latin: Spanish Language Cinema in Los Angeles, which brought together scholars and film archivists from all of Latin America, Spain, and the United States to discuss the many issues surrounding the creation of Hollywood's Cine Hispano. The papers presented in this two-day symposium are collected and revised here. This is a joint publication of FIAF and UCLA Film Television Archive.
