Mondo Et Autres Histoires:

J.M.G. Le Clézio Et la Métaphore Exotique Bruno Thibault, 2009 J M G Le Clézio et la métaphore exotique propose une analyse détaillée et approfondie de l'œuvre de J M G Le Clézio prix Nobel de littérature 2008 La question de la métaphore exotique sert ici de fil conducteur et permet d'éclairer le corpus léclézien d'un triple point de vue textuel anthropologique et psychanalytique L'inscription problématique de l'espace et du voyage domine en effet toute la production littéraire de Le Clézio et cette inscription s'accompagne d'une certaine ambiguïté D'une part l'analyse montre que l'écriture du voyage fonctionne chez Le Clézio comme chez Segalen comme une écriture des limites c'est-à-dire comme un déplacement du sujet et du sens Mais d'autre part l'analyse montre que l'écriture du voyage dessine chez Le Clézio un rapport singulier et ambivalent à l'espace postmoderne au désenchantement du monde et la disparition des grands mythes fondateurs interrogeant l'acte même de la création littéraire A la fois humaniste et antidogmatique l'œuvre de J M G Le Clézio se situe ainsi de façon originale dans les marges des grands mouvements littéraires du XXe et du XXIe siècle du Nouveau Roman des années 60 la littérature mondiale d'aujourd'hui

De grands romanciers écrivent pour les enfants Sandra L. Beckett, 1997 Ce sont Henri Bosco Jean Giono Le Clézio Michel Tournier et Marguerite Yourcenar auxquels est consacré pour chacun un chapitre documenté Par analyse et par entretiens avec eux se dégage une conception simple mais vivante de ce qui est l'écriture pour les enfants

J. M. G. Le Clézio Elena Real, Dolores Jiménez, Universidad de Valencia. Departament de Filologia Francesa i Italiana, 1992 Le Clézio est un des romanciers français le plus intéressants de cette fin de siècle mais dont l'œuvre littéraire abondante et bien connue du public semble être restée un peu à l'écart des intérêts universitaires Le Département de Français de l'Université de Valencia a voulu s'interroger sur la valeur et la portée de cette production en organisant ce premier Colloque International auquel ont participé des spécialistes de nationalités différentes

Chemins pour une approche poétique du monde Miriam Stendal Boulos, 1999 This volume deals with Le Clézio's work as a whole and attempts to show how the author infuses a poetic dimension into the novel genre and thereby presents the human confrontation with the outside world with a revitalised intensity Having analysed his unconventional treatment of the characteristics specific to the novel genre plot character references to space and time the book establishes the poetic qualities of an author who presents man through his relationship with matter and who describes primordiality with a rhythm and a system of metaphors that extends the sensory

Architectures of Existence Chris Younès, 2023-08-09 Architectures of Existence proposes that philosophical thinking ecosophical thinking can inform the way we engage with our world and its inhabitants as architects designers and planners but also as individuals as people and as a society In Art et existence Maldiney states For us to inhabit is to exist This book aims to unfold extend articulate and thicken this postulate by interweaving architecture city landscape literature and philosophy It takes up the synergistic lines of long term research carried out from an ecosophical perspective Such an attitude explores an art of existing in multiplicity singularity and openness manifesting the critical dimension through a reinterpretation of the knotting of the trajectories of time humanity and its becoming Insisting on what is between things and beings as well as on what is happening regenerating recycling reviving saving diversifying sparing recreating meditating and so caring These are all eco rhythms of a different type between human and non human to consider ourselves in the world In an era of uncertainty and climate threats this book develops the margins of possibility offered by the subject of architecture This book will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture urban planning and philosophy

Mondo et autres histoires de J.M.G. Le Clézio Gérard Fanchin, 2010 J.M.G. Le Clézio Keith Moser, 2013 This monograph represents the first comprehensive study of the multifaceted representations of the complex phenomenon of globalization in the diverse repertoire of the 2008 Nobel Laureate in Literature This interdisciplinary investigation explores the initial euphoria related to the ambivalent concept of the global village and how this evaporated dream can perhaps be reappropriated to create a better global society for both the human and Cosmic Other through the lens of Le Clézio's fiction Chapter one offers a conceptual framework for understanding the Franco Mauritian author's nuanced ideas concerning globalization It also probes the original ambivalence of McLuhan's celebrated notion of a global village in addition to its euphoric reception Chapter two explores the current state of the interconnected interdependent modern world in which many disenfranchised and marginalized individuals are living a recurring nightmare Chapter three examines Le Clézio's deconstruction of the simplistic ideology of consumerism that is indicative of contemporary consumer republics This section also underscores the intricate systems of hegemonic domination such as the media created by the transnational corporations that dominate the global economic landscape to sustain their supremacy Chapter four delves into Le Clézio's ecocentric humanism that extends to all other living creatures by debunking Manichean dualities that separate human beings from elemental matter and the rest of the universe The final chapter examines recent texts such as Raga Ourania and Histoire du pied et autres fantaisies which encourage the reader to envision what a more just and egalitarian global village might encompass These works dismiss neoliberal fantasies and consumerist ideology that have justified the systematic exploitation of everyone and everything in the name of progress but they also urge the modern subject to be resilient in the face of tremendous adversity Instead of accepting the imposition of a monolithic socioeconomic model that is riddled with inequality and injustice and which serves the interests of the Happy Few Le Clézio suggests that the first step is to resist integration into the global village by stoically confronting reality and having the necessary courage to propose another vision which counterpoints McLuhan's misguided one

From Rodin to Giacometti, 2021-09-06 This book is a collection of papers delivered at an international conference in September 1996 at the Scottish National Gallery of Modern Art during a major Giacometti retrospective The contributors are leading curators art historians and literature specialists While the relationship between nineteenth and twentieth century painters and writers has been the subject of intense interest in recent years the parallel relationship between sculptors and writers has been largely neglected These essays seek to redress the balance by looking at a variety of ways in which the conventional barriers between writing and sculpting were broken down by such pioneering figures as Rodin Degas Bourdelle Val ry Apollinaire Reverdy Breton Bataille Arp Picasso and Giacometti Among the topics discussed are the many personal and professional contacts dual artistic talent Ecrits d artistes ekphrasis sculpture as object the sculptorly representation of the poet the poetic representation of the sculptor sculpture as metaphor proprioception and mental images Fully illustrated throughout this book offers new perspectives on familiar masterpieces like Rodin s Gates of Hell but also opens up less well known subjects like Val ry s sculpture and Breton s Object Poems Above all it makes a provocative and original contribution to Word and Image studies

The Letter and the Cosmos Laurence de Looze,2016-08-04 From our first ABCs to the Book of Revelation s statement that Jesus is the Alpha and Omega we see the world through our letters More than just a way of writing the alphabet is a powerful concept that has shaped Western civilization and our daily lives In The Letter and the Cosmos Laurence de Looze probes that influence showing how the alphabet has served as a lens through which we conceptualize the world and how the world and sometimes the whole cosmos has been perceived as a kind of alphabet itself Beginning with the ancient Greeks he traces the use of alphabetic letters and their significance from Plato to postmodernism offering a fascinating tour through Western history A sharp and entertaining examination of how languages letterforms orthography and writing tools have reflected our hidden obsession with the alphabet The Letter and the Cosmos is illustrated with copious examples of the visual and linguistic phenomena which de Looze describes Read it and you ll never look at the alphabet the same way again

Writing the Nomadic Experience in Contemporary Francophone Literature Katharine N. Harrington, 2013 In this book Author Katharine N Harrington examines contemporary writers from the French speaking world who can be classified as literary nomads The concept of nomadism based on the experience of traditionally mobile peoples lacking any fixed home reflects a postmodern way of thinking that encourages individuals to reconsider rigid definitions of borders classifications and identities Nomadic identities reflect shifting landscapes that defy taking on fully the limits of any one fixed national or cultural identity In conceiving of identities beyond the boundaries of national or cultural origin this book opens up the space for nomadic subjects whose identity is based just as much on their geographical displacement and deterritorialization as on a relationship to any one fixed place community or culture This study explores the experience of an existence between borders and its translation into writing that While nomadism is frequently associated with post colonial authors this study considers an eclectic group of contemporary Francophone writers who are not easily defined by the boundaries of one nation one culture or one language Each of the four writers J M G LeClézio Nancy Huston Nina Bouraoui and Régine Robin maintains a connection to France but it is one that is complicated by life experiences backgrounds and choices that inevitably expand their identities beyond the Hexagon Harrington examines how these authors life experiences are reflected in their writing and how they may inform us on the state of our increasingly global world where borders and identities are blurred

Interdisciplinary Approaches to Pedagogy and Place-Based Education Deric Shannon, Jeffery Galle, 2017-06-05 This book brings together scholars from a wide range of disciplines to creatively engage with place in the context of pedagogy Beginning with an exploration of traditional place based forms of education such as outdoor education travel courses and courses on sustainability the authors go on to expand our popular notions of place including the classroom the campus our interior selves and our digital ecosystems This reconsideration of place based education represents not only an engagement of prior literature on pedagogy and place but also a re imagining of the role that place might play in education Authors stretch the notion of place arguing for a holistic approach to disciplines in the humanities social sciences and natural sciences bringing into focus an array of contentious issues in philosophies and methods of teaching for multiple academic disciplines and their many intersections
