Women on the Defensive Sylvia B. Bashevkin, 1998-06-08 Bashevkin combines individual voices with policy initiatives to provide the first complete picture of the recent past and uncertain future of contemporary feminism BOOK JACKET A History of the Canadian Peoples J. M. Bumsted, 1998 A History of the Canadian Peoples is an abridged edition of the much lauded two volume work The Peoples of Canada Like its predecessor this book provides an overview of the economy society the family and culture as well as political and constitutional issues Sidebars offer fascinating perspectives on the experiences of early explorers settlers ordinary citizens and politicians as well as more in depth portraits of leading figures This book a skilful condensation by the author of the two volume version describes the Native peoples before contact with early European visitors exploration settlement and the development of British North America the federation of the provinces of British North America in the Dominion of Canada industrialization and urbanization and social and political developments that conclude with a look at Canadian culture in the 1990s The highly readable text sidebars suggestions for further reading and illustrations offer an insightful look at Canadian history Book Jacket Sharing the Burden? Benjamin Zyla, 2015-02-26 Since the fall of the Berlin Wall NATO's middle powers have been pressured into shouldering an increasing share of the costs of the transatlantic alliance In Sharing the Burden Benjamin Zyla rejects the claim that countries like Canada have shirked their responsibilities within NATO Using a range of measures that go beyond troop numbers and defense budgets to include peacekeeping commitments foreign economic assistance and contributions to NATO's rapid reaction forces and infrastructure Zyla argues that proportionally Canada's NATO commitments in the 1990s rivaled those of the alliance's major powers At the same time he demonstrates that Canadian policy was driven by strong normative principles to assist failed and failing states rather than a desire to ride the coattails of the United States as is often presumed An important challenge to realist theories Sharing the Burden is a significant contribution to the debate on the nature of alliances in international relations Minding the Public Purse Janice MacKinnon, 2003 Janice MacKinnon became minister of Finance for the province of Saskatchewan in 1993 under NDP Premier Roy Romanow just as the province became the first casualty of the debt and deficit crises that dominated both provincial and federal politics throughout the decade Minding the Public Purse is a unique mixture of political memoir and policy analysis An insider's account of how Saskatchewan avoided fiscal catastrophe it reveals the dynamics of the federal provincial finance ministers meetings that saw the rise of Paul Martin and his radical transformation of Canada's finances MacKinnon Canada's first female finance minister provides keen observations on how personalities and shared regional perspectives cut across party affiliations in the evolution of federal provincial deliberations on managing the debt crisis Although initially opposed to the radical cuts and downloading unilaterally imposed by the federal minister of Finance in his 1995 budget she now argues that they were essential and analyses how they have irrevocably transformed the Canadian federation MacKinnon provides a timely analysis of the implications of the fiscal crisis for the future of medicare and Canada's other social programs and shows why politicians must involve the Canadian public in an open and frank debate about the challenges and choices facing the nation Epic Wanderer D'Arcy Jenish, 2009-06-01
