Money Art A Study Based On The Times S:

A Regulatory Framework for the Art Market? Anna Bolz, 2022-11-24 This book addresses practical issues in connoisseurship and authentication as well as the legal implications that arise when an artwork's authenticity is challenged. In addition, the standards and processes of authentication are critically examined and the legal complications which can inhibit the expression of expert opinions are discussed. The notion of authenticity has always commanded the attention of art market participants and the general art-minded public alike. Coinciding with this, forgery is often considered to be the world's most glamorous crime, packed with detective stories that are usually astonishing and often bizarre. The research includes findings by economists, sociologists, art historians, lawyers, academics, and practitioners, all of which yield insights into the mechanics and peculiarities of the art business and explain why it works so differently from other markets. However, this book will be of interest not only to academics but to everyone interested in questions of authenticity, forgery, and connoisseurship. At the same time, one of its main aims is to advocate best practices in the art market and to stress the importance of cooperation among all disciplines with a stake in it. The results are intended to offer guidance to art market stakeholders, legal practitioners, and art historians alike while also promoting mutual understanding and cooperation. The Routledge Companion to Business Journalism Joseph Weber, Richard S. Dunham, 2024-01-10 The Routledge Companion to Business Journalism provides a complete and critical survey of the field of business and economic journalism. Beginning by exploring crucial questions of the moment, the volume goes on to address such topics as the history of the field, differentiation among business journalism outlets, issues and forces that shape news coverage, globalism, personal finance, issues and professional concerns for practicing business journalists. Critical perspectives are introduced, including gender and diversity matters on the business news desk and in business news coverage, the quality of coverage and its ideological impact, and framework, the effect of the internet on coverage, differences in approaches around the world, ethical issues, and education among journalists. Contributions are drawn from around the world and include work by leading names in the industry as well as accomplished and rising star academics. This book is an essential companion to advanced scholars and researchers of business and financial journalism as well as those with overlapping interests in communications, economics, and sociology. Arts-Based Educational Research Trajectories Barbara Bickel, Rita L. Irwin, Richard Siegesmund, 2023-03-17 This book offers reflections from Arts-Based Educational Research (ABER) scholars who since 2005 were awarded the American Educational Research Association (AERA) Special Interest Group's Outstanding Dissertation Award. The book includes essays from ten awardees who across diverse artistic disciplines share how their ABER careers evolve and succeed, inspiring insights into the possibilities of ABER. It also examines the essential role of mentorship in the academy that supports and expands ABER scholarship. Drawing from dissertation exemplars in the field, this book allows readers to look at how ABER scholars learn with the world while creatively researching and teaching in innovative ways.
