The Status of Religion and the Public Benefit in Charity Law Barry W. Bussey, 2020-02-29 The Status of Religion and the Public Benefit in Charity Law is an apologetic for maintaining the presumption of public benefit for the charitable category advancement of religion in democratic countries within the English common law tradition In response to growing academic and political pressure to reform charity law including recurring calls to remove tax exemptions granted to religious charities the scholars in this volume analyse the implications of legislative and legal developments in Canada the UK Australia New Zealand and South Africa In the process they also confront more fundamental sociological or philosophical questions on the very nature and role of religion in a secular society that would deny any space for religious communities outside their houses of worship In other words this book is concerned with the place of religion and religious institutions in contemporary society It represents a series of concerns about the proper role of the state in relation to the differing beliefs of citizens some of which will quite rightly manifest in actions to benefit the wider society This debate then naturally engages with broader issues related to secularism civic engagement and liberal democratic freedoms

Philanthropy, Patronage, and Civil Society Thomas Adam, 2004-02-12 In Philanthropy Patronage and Civil Society Thomas Adam has assembled a comparative set of case studies that challenge long held and little studied assumptions about the modern development of philanthropy Histories of philanthropy have often neglected European patterns of giving and the importance of financial patronage to the emergence of modern industrialized societies It has long been assumed for example that Germany never developed civic traditions of philanthropy as in the United States In truth however 19th century German museums art galleries and social housing projects were not only privately founded and supported they were also blueprints for the creation of similar public institutions in North America The comparative method of the essays also reveals the extent to which the wealthy classes on both sides of the Atlantic defined themselves through their philanthropic activities Contributors are Thomas Adam Maria Benjamin Baader Karsten Borgmann Tobias Brinkmann Brett Fairbairn Eckhardt Fuchs David C Hammack Dieter Hoffmann Simone L ssig Margaret Eleanor Menninger and Susannah Morris
