Marxism in the Postmodern Age Antonio Callari, Stephen Cullenberg, Carole Biewener, 1994-10-01 Diverse Marxian intellectual cultures are having important effects on political struggles over the subjects of history and knowledge international law television the state democratic theories and institutions bodies sexuality masculinity environmentalism postmodernism labor the meanings of the end of the USSR children archaeology the meanings of Columbus cartography the North American economy welfare NAFTA the Gulf War higher education and the many other topics discussed by the contributors to this important volume These essays show readers how Marxism's continuing vitality derives from its profound allegiance to diverse struggles for social justice At this moment we need progressive imaginaries alternative to the tired and ineffectual ones that have left us with enormous challenges and compelling questions on every aspect of contemporary social relations Here well known thinkers are joined by important new voices in exploring fruitful directions for vision analysis and political action This is without question the best collection of mediations so far on postorthodox Marxian tendencies in contemporary global cultures      The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah L. Miles, 2001-08-23 In this constructive study Miles proposes a new feminist theological ethic drawing together the contributions of Reinhold Niebuhr Sharon Welch and Rosemary Ruether Seeking to critically reappropriate the Christian realism articulated by Niebuhr she reinterprets solutions to problems emergent from his theology Miles presents feminist Christian realism as an alternative that can reclaim a positive interpretation of divine transcendence and human self transcendence while maintaining newer emphases on human boundedness and divine immanence Theologians and ethicists will find her critical reassessment of the three authors distinctive and her challenging proposal for a positive creative transformation a significant contribution to the development of feminist ethics

Gender, Power and Politics in Agriculture Jemimah Njuki, Hale Ann Tufan, Vivian Polar, Hugo Campos, Monifa Morgan-Bell, 2024-10-07 This is an open access book In the agriculture sector the language of gender integration often ignores the politics and the power dynamics that are central to critical and feminist analysis of gender relations This volume explores largely neglected topics such as power dynamics masculinities gendered social norms feminist research practice intersectionality critical analysis of tools and more that are fundamental to shifting the entrenched power dynamics and politics of gender research in agriculture The purpose of this book is to reduce the gap existing between theory methods and practice of gender relations in agriculture and agricultural research Through an in depth analysis of current processes in agriculture and drawing on existing experiences in other sectors it seeks to create pathways for learning catalyzing change and positive impact on gender equity and social inclusion This volume seeks to bring forth a change in how gender relations in agriculture are researched practiced and taught

Bubbles and Machines Micky Lee, 2019-05-23 Are financial crises embedded in IT Can gender studies offer insights into financial reporting Feminist theories and Science and Technology Studies STS can enrich a critique of financial crises in capitalism as the author argues their critical political economic approaches to communication can help in understanding because they historicize technology and economy and how these are materially embedded Current literature has neglected finance and capital's gendered aspect even the ideology of a crisis This book develops four themes women as resources in financial markets and as producers of values gender ideology and unequal distribution machine production and distribution of financial information and the varied actuality of markets Working with case histories of tulipmania microcredit Wall Street reporting and the role of screens Bubbles and Machines argues that rather than calling financial crises human made or inevitable they should be recognized as technological Seduction, Sophistry, and the Woman with the Rhetorical Figure Michelle Ballif, 2001 Ballif questions why the profession wants to retain these beliefs in the face of vociferous arguments from new rhetorics that the discipline no longer posits a foundational self or truth and in the face of the poststructuralist critique which has demonstrated that founding truth is always accomplished by first positing and then negating an other As an alternative to this negative and violent rhetorical process Ballif suggests a turn to sophistry as embodied in the figure of Woman one with the power to seduce us literally to lead astray from our truth and our demand for it

BOOK JACKET      Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile, Cort J. Willmott, 2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White

Teaching Marx Curry Malott, John M. Elmore, Mike Cole, 2013-05-01 We are in the midst of yet another global crisis in capitalism In the UK we have the most right wing and ideologically driven government since Thatcher a ruthless cabal of millionaires intent on destroying the welfare state In the US President Obama whose initial record did not live up to the expectations of many on the Left is increasingly driven by right wing republicanism and other corporate interests At the same time there are developments in Latin America in particular Venezuela which are heralding the dawn of a new politics and recovering the voice of Marx but with a twenty first century socialist focus thus giving hope to the lives of millions of working people throughout the world This is why the world media is intent on discrediting President Hugo Chavez and insisting that ordinary people have to pay the cost of the crisis in capitalism The Arab Spring and the Occupy movement also show signs of an anti capitalist movement in embryo In Greece perhaps more than anywhere else in Europe even France the austerity stricken working classes are pushing for real existing socialism It is therefore not surprising that the ruling class of Greece is increasingly supporting the neo Nazi fascist Golden Dawn party threatening civil war should they lose power as a class Now is a prescient time to bring twenty first century socialism to the educational institutions of the world to teach Marx across the curriculum and across the globe Through this volume our goal was to contribute to the literature by concretely demonstrating the practical implications of Marx's theory to curriculum However while this book provides concrete examples of how Marx can and has informed a revolutionary critical education it is not intended to be prescriptive That is the chapters should not be read as a how to guide but they should be taken as inspiration for new creative approaches to Teaching Marx and interpreting and posing The Socialist Challenge

Genders 21 Carol Siegel, Ann M. Kibbey, 1995-07 Forming and Reforming Identity exposes the historical sites of identity formation and seeks to define the mechanisms of modern day gender ideologies Illuminating the power of the family and state in shaping gender identities the book also examines the constitution of these identities Each chapter reveals the complexities and contradictions that inevitably accompany the formation of any new category of identity whether they are deliberately restrictive or intended as a reformation of the old. The volume moves as gender construction does across a field of different media: novels, plays, teleplays, films, official documents, political theory, and advertisements. Four sections—REMODELING WOMAN, REBELLING MAN, HOMEMADE IDENTITIES, and FEMINISMS THAT MAKE A DIFFERENCE—address such subjects as the representation of American women in the 1950s, nationalism and respectable sexuality in India, women in Hollywood cinema, and World War II compulsory heterophobia and the televising of AIDS.

De-Facing Power Clarissa Rile Hayward, 2000-09-14. A sophisticated new view of power as a network of social boundaries.

Forever Fluid Hanneke Canters, Grace M. Jantzen, 2005. This book provides a rich feast of literary and philosophical insight, offering as it does the first English commentary on Luce Irigaray's poetic text Elemental Passions. It explores Irigaray's images and intentions, developing the gender drama that takes place within her book and draws the reader into the conversation between I woman and you man in the text.

Power and Influence in Organizations Roderick M. Kramer, Margaret A. Neale, 1998-08-11. This volume is a readily accessible compilation of current original research in the area of power and influence in organizations. Power and Influence in Organizations offers a rich exploration of emerging trends and new perspectives. Contributors include leading scholars in organizational behavior and theory and major contemporary intellectual pioneers in research on power and influence, including Samuel B. Bacharach, Robert Cialdini, Edward J. Lawler, and Jeffrey Pfeffer. Each contributor provides insight into his or her own research, an overview of general trends and thoughts about the direction of future research. Topics examined include manipulation of employee perceptions and values, the links between power and accountability, sharing power, the effects of gender on power and influence, illusions of influence and impression management. Advanced students and scholars in organizational behavior, social influence, power, and politics, conflict management, and institutional politics will find Power and Influence in Organizations stimulating and a useful roadmap to present and future research.

Gender and Socialization to Power and Politics Rita Mae Kelly, 1986. This thought-provoking book illustrates how the interaction of childhood socialization and the reality of the adult woman's life produces variations in political attitudes and in perceptions of available options for political behavior. Important suggestions for facilitating resocialization to feminism and increasing political participation are included.

Regulation of Sexual Conduct in UN Peacekeeping Operations Olivera Simic, 2012-05-25. This book critically examines the response of the United Nations (UN) to the problem of sexual exploitation in UN Peace Support Operations. It assesses the Secretary General's Bulletin on Special Protection from Sexual Exploitation and Sexual Abuse (2003) and its definition of sexual exploitation, which includes sexual relationships and prostitution. With reference to people affected by the policy, using the example of Bosnian women and UN peacekeepers, and taking account of both radical and sex-positive feminist perspectives, the book finds that the inclusion of consensual sexual relationships and prostitution in the definition of sexual exploitation is not tenable. The book argues that the SGB is overprotective, relies on negative gender and imperial stereotypes and is out of step with international human rights norms and gender equality It concludes that the SGB must be revised in consultation with those affected by it namely local women and peacekeepers and must fully respect their human rights and freedoms particularly the right to privacy and sexuality rights Good Guys, Bad Guys Emily K. Carian, 2024-05-07 Good Guys Bad Guys The Perils of Men's Gender Activism explores questions of masculinity privilege and identity to explain why some men become feminists while others become men's rights activists The surprising similarities between these groups of men reveal why men's feminist allyship is not enough to solve gender inequality The Ideological Condition: Selected Essays on History, Race and Gender Himani Bannerji, 2020-09-25 The Ideological Condition Selected Essays on History Race and Gender is a reader comprised of many of Himani Bannerji's English writings over a long period of teaching and research in Canada and India Bannerji creates an interdisciplinary analytical method and extends the possibilities of historical materialism by predominantly drawing on Marx Gramsci and Dorothy Smith Essays here instantiate Marx's general proposition that while all ideology is a form of consciousness all forms of consciousness are not ideological Applying this insight to issues ranging from patriarchy through race class nationalism liberalism and fascism Bannerji breaks through East West binaries challenging the mystifying approaches to the constitution of the social and shows that a sustained struggle against ideological thinking is at the heart of a fundamental socialist struggle Shortlisted for the Deutscher Memorial Prize 2021 Feminism and Social Change Heidi Gottfried, 1996 Fresh original and brings together in one place a set of authors who are very important to the field Mary Margaret Fonow coeditor of Beyond Methodology Feminist Scholarship as Lived Research Finally a collection dedicated to demonstrating precisely what it means to do feminist research Madonna Harrington Meyer University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign How likely is feminist research to promote change in society Are some research methods more successful at bringing about change than others Contributors to this volume discuss principles of feminist inquiry providing examples from their own experience and evaluating research practices for their potential to promote social change The twelve chapters cover methodologies including ethnographic study in depth interviewing naming and going public Also explored are consultative relationships between academic researchers and activist organizations participatory and advocacy research processes and coalition building Fertile Ground Irene Diamond, 1997-11-25 Irene Diamond has written a passionate and provocative book that challenges the feminist movement to step beyond its preconceptions We desperately need this synthesis from the Foreword by Starhawk In a wide ranging critique of Western thought and practice ecofeminist Irene Diamond raises unsettling questions about the ethic of control that permeates how we think about fertility sexuality agriculture and the environment
