Monitoring International Human Rights:

International Human Rights Monitoring Mechanisms Gudmundur Alfredsson, Jonas Grimheden, Bertrand G. Ramcharan, 2009 This revised and updated collection is intended to serve as a thematic textbook on the institutions and procedures devoted to the national implementation of human rights and to the international monitoring of State performance. Albeit not exhaustive the coverage extends to most of the monitoring instances available at intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations: complaints, fact finding and investigative procedures, State reporting obligations, good offices actions, dialogue functions, human rights education, dissemination of human rights information, letter campaigns and technical co-operation. The target audience of the book is students of international human rights law but the book can also serve as a guide for both officials and activists involved in the realization of human rights. The success of the first edition has allowed for this second edition. It demonstrates that there is an important demand for literature with a focus on human rights monitoring and follow up activities. Human Rights International Protection Monitoring Enforcement takes an institutional approach to the international protection of human rights, examining first the United Nations system which may be seen as universal and then analysing regional systems of protection. An indispensable source of information on the protection of human rights, the volume can also be employed as a practical guide to the use of existing procedures in the defence of human rights. Human Rights Monitoring Anette Faye Jacobsen, 2008-06-30 Monitoring is a crucial mechanism to secure and improve implementation of human rights. Field officers and other human rights defenders are key agents in monitoring and thus contribute to securing human rights in practice. This manual is meant to provide information on basic monitoring techniques and to give a focused overview of current human rights law and practice in selected areas of importance for most practitioners working with human rights monitoring. It contains checklists for monitors as well as references to key literature, handbooks and web resources for further information. It also includes annotated lists of instrument provisions relevant to each theme. The manual is intended for people of various backgrounds including field officers and activists with no specific legal training

International Human Rights in Context Henry J. Steiner, Philip Alston, Ryan Goodman, 2008 Completely revised and updated to bring it up to date with recent events this popular textbook incorporates a wide range of carefully edited materials from both primary and secondary sources International Human Rights Law in a Global Context Felipe Gómez Isa, Koen de Feyter, 2009-01-01 The international human rights system remains as dynamic as ever If at the end of the last century there was a sense that the normative and institutional development of the system had been completed and that the emphasis should shift to issues of implementation nothing of the sort occurred Even over the last few years significant changes happened as this book amply demonstrates We hope that this Manual makes a contribution to the development of International Human Rights Law and is of interest for those working in the field of promotion and protection of human rights The book is the result of a joint project under the auspices of HumanitarianNet a Thematic Network led by the University of Deusto and the European Inter University Centre for Human Rights and Democratisation EIUC Venice International Monitoring of Plebiscites, Referenda and National Elections Yves Beigbeder, 2021-10-18 International monitoring of plebiscites referenda and national elections has given a guarantee to the populations and the countries directly involved and to the international community that the people themselves have been able to exercise freely their right to self determination through these processes By focusing international attention on an internal electoral process international monitoring may deter fraud by government armed forces or electoral authorities It shows international support for democracy and elections as well as for human rights While the international monitoring of elections does not guarantee that a dictatorship will evolve peacefully into a pluralist democracy free and periodic elections are an essential prerequisite to the creation and maintenance of democracy which is itself a prerequisite for the protection and promotion of human rights The United Nations and other international organizations and groups are openly supporting the world s evolution towards democracy This book will be of great use for those who are actively involved in international monitoring as well as for researchers in the field of democracy and human rights Human Rights at the Dawn of the 21st Century Council of Europe, 1993-01-01 IV Other issues raised Economic and Social Rights and the Maintenance of International Peace and Security Claire Breen, 2017-06-14 This text comprises cutting edge research on one of the greatest global challenges the failure to address systematic economic and social exclusion and attendant violations of economic and social rights ESR as a driver of conflict The text explores what the UN s obligation to maintain international peace and security can mean when it is informed by the requirement to protect and promote ESR rights that play a crucial role in maintaining international peace and security but which are often overlooked The book considers the extent to which Security Council mandated peace operations have been informed by human rights and efforts to promote economic and social development The approach is to analyse the extent to which the Security Council has interacted with the General Assembly the Economic and Social Council as well as other Charter based mechanisms such as the Human Rights Council and its predecessor with particular reference to the role of the Special Procedure Mechanisms The role of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights is also considered In this way the text shows that the connection between peace and security and human rights is well recognised by these organs In addition the text considers States ESR obligations stemming from the extraterritorial application of such rights in the context of peace operations Given that States obligations stemming from ESR have often been neglected the book examines how such provision could be improved using ESR grounded plans reflecting the rights to health food water education work and life The text concludes with a call to reimagine what international peace and security can look like when it is informed by the need to recognise the emergence of post conflict legal obligations based on broader concepts of international peace and security that draw from ESR This text will appeal to legal scholars policy advisors members of the military those working in the area of development NGOs and final year undergraduate and or postgraduate students working in the areas of international law political science and international relations and associated fields of research International Peace Conferences Bertrand G. Ramcharan, 2015-01-27 This book has emerged out of the author s experience as Director of an innovative peacemaking peacekeeping and humanitarian initiative the International Conference on the Former Yugoslavia between 1992 and 1996 What was striking about this conference was the experiment of two full time Co Chairmen one from the United Nations and one from the European Union who laboured tirelessly for peace in different parts of the former Yugoslavia for three and a half years The strategies and organization of the conference had to be pieced together from the start by the Co Chairmen and their colleagues only in retrospect could the question whether there might have been experiences of international peace conferences that might have been useful at the beginning of this process be reviewed This research is contained in Part One of this book which offers a review of the role of international peace conferences in history Part Two contains a case study of the strategies and experiences of the International Conference on the Former Yugoslavia The Companion to International Humanitarian Law Dražan Djukić, Niccolò Pons, 2018-09-24 This important and unique volume begins with seven essays that discuss the contemporary challenges to implementing international humanitarian law Its second and largest section comprises 263 entries covering the vast majority of IHL concepts Written by a wide range of experts each entry explains the essential legal parameters of a particular element of IHL while offering practical examples and where relevant historical considerations and supplying a short bibliography for further research The starting point for the selection were notions arising from the Geneva Conventions the Additional Protocols and other IHL treaties However the reader will also encounter entries going beyond the typical scope of IHL such as those related to the protection of the natural environment and animals and entries that in addition to an IHL perspective discuss relevant issues through the lens of human rights law refugee law international criminal law the law on State responsibility national law and so on The editors have also attempted to take into account certain concepts that have no direct foundation in IHL but that are commonly used in mass media and politics or generate wide interest in contemporary society such as drones economic warfare cyber warfare sniping targeted killings transitional justice terrorism and many other topics The Companion to International Humanitarian Law offers a much needed tool for both scholars and practitioners supplying information accessible enough to enable a variety of users to quickly familiarise themselves with it and sufficiently comprehensive to be a source for reflection and further research for more demanding users Its aim is to facilitate the practical application of IHL and be of use to a wide audience interested in or confronted with IHL ranging from professionals in humanitarian assistance and protection in the field legal officers and advisers at the national and international level trainers academics scholars and students
