Journal of the Royal Army Medical Corps Great Britain. Army. Royal Army Medical Corps,1910 Uterine and Embryonic Factors in Early Pregnancy Jerome F. Strauss III,C.Richard Lyttle,2012-12-06 Human reproduction is the most dynamic of processes The events which lead to the birth of a normal healthy infant have their origin long before actual fertilization Indeed the whole process can be looked upon as a continuum Human fertilization and early development once sequestered in the protective environment of the fallopian tubes and uterus have now been exposed in the laboratory These events have over time been extensively observed and catalogued in animal models The tools of modern morphology and molecular biology have reopened issues long since considered settled as facets of early reproduction are reexplored This volume consisting of the proceedings of a workshop on uterine and embryonic factors in early pregnancy has been designed to enhance that effort Attention is focused largely on early embryonal development with special attention to the interrelationship between the embryo and the uterus in early pregnancy Each of the contributing scientists brings with him or her the perspective of one specific discipline or another The common denominator is the application of emerging techniques in modern molecular biology to problems pertaining to embryonal uterine interaction The goal is to consider specific areas of concern in a multidisciplinary way and to reexplore the factors behind early development and implantation Uterine complement the function of uterine macrophages immunoregulatory loops in the peri implantation period colony stimulating factors and interferon like factors are reviewed and their interrelationship explored Uterine angiogenesis factors as well as embryonic growth factors are also considered Success Without Fulfilment Au Yong Chee Tuck,2017-03-20 Does fate or free will determine the course of your life What is the purpose of life Why do only a handful of people in any given society could make it big And why do some successful people feel something is missing in their lives In Success without Fulfilment author Au Yong Chee Tuck explores the gap between success and fulfillment while addressing the dichotomy between the theory and practice of Ba Zi astrology He discusses that many Ba Zi students grasp the theoretical aspects of the subject but they have difficulty applying the principles to practical situations Au Yong Chee Tuck examines how some of the Ba Zi theories work by examining the lives of several well known people and tries to discern whether they enjoyed success without fulfillment or if they were fortunate to find satisfaction during their lifetime Dong Gong Date Selection
