to a climate of continuous professional learning Handbook of Squirrel Monkey Research C.L. Coe, Leonard A. Rosenblum, 2012-12-06 As the editors of the first book on the squirrel monkey prophesied in 1968 there has been an incredible expansion in primate research during the past 16 years Their projection that the squirrel monkey would play an increasingly important role in this research effort has also come to be true during the ensuing years One inadvertent result of the rapid growth however is that it has become more and more difficult for investigators to keep track of new information both in their own disciplines and in related fields For scientists who study and use the squirrel monkey in research this problem is particularly pronounced because articles are often published in specialized and disparate journals We felt that a new synthesis of the vast amount of information on Saimiri would resolve this problem and would provide an extremely valuable companion volume to the first book The idea grew out of a small symposium held at the IX Congress of the International Primatological Society in Atlanta Georgia during August 1982 Following the format of The Squirrel Monkey additional authors were invited to discuss advances in areas which had experienced exceptional growth or to review basic information that would be of practical value to future researchers Even with focused topics and synthetic reviews the wealth of new data resulted in many long manuscripts In response to the continuing problems with Saimiri nomenclature Richard Thorington has provided us with a definitive statement on squirrel monkey taxonomy Performing Desire Elizabeth Eva Leach, Jonathan Morton, 2025-06-15 Performing Desire examines the intellectual and philosophical complexity of a monument of medieval literature the mid thirteenth century Bestiaire d'amours of Richard de Fournival Although the Bestiaire was recognized in its time as significant as evinced by numerous surviving manuscript copies and its influence on other literary works modern scholarship has tended to neglect it Performing Desire remedies this omission by detailing the contributions of the Bestiaire to medieval literature and thought Attending to the phenomenology psychology and philosophy of Fournival's Bestiaire Elizabeth Eva Leach and Jonathan Morton reconsider the work as a literary experiment that explores erotic desire and the construction of a self Leach and Morton further show that the Bestiaire is as much a meditation on sound and performance as it is a study of desire Synthesizing methods from musicology literary studies and manuscript studies Leach and Morton consider the complex and hybridized workings of text image sound and cues for performance in the surviving manuscripts of the Bestiaire Through their analysis Leach and Morton find that the distinctive aspect of the Bestiaire's philosophical method is its self-conscious status as a performance between the oral and the literary the voice and the page It is this aspect they contend that left such a mark on the medieval European tradition of philosophical fiction In Performing Desire Richard de Fournival's hybrid text emerges as one of the most philosophically sophisticated and important works of medieval literature not only in French but in any language Journal of the American Oriental Society American Oriental Society, 1920 List of members in each volume A Gift to Imagine Scott Ludwig, 2015-08-22 One of my favorite comic strips is Bill Watterson's Calvin and Hobbes Its based on the adventures and misadventures of six year old Calvin and his stuffed tiger Hobbes However in Calvins mind Hobbes is the real deal and the interactions between the two of them reflect that of a young boy and his living breathing tiger friend Calvins imagination is the stimulus of one of the most beloved humorous and heart warming comic strips of all time Calvin is the antithesis of what is going on in the world today Creativity and imagination seem to have taken a leave of absence recently Movies and television shows are constantly being remade New magazines look a lot like those already found on the newsstands Television commercials are for the most part sorely lacking in appeal Radio commercials Even worse Same old song same old story same old same old One of the things I love most about my grandson Krischan is his imagination Ive seen him invent an entire game using only a couple of sticks a handful of rocks and an ant bed Ive stood by his side as he saw and battled imaginary creatures so passionately I could have sworn I saw them too Ive heard him create words for things that make so much more sense to me than the actual word he should be using The boy has such a vivid imagination I make sure to pay close attention so I dont miss out on what he does or says next He is in a word Calvin Coincidentally my nickname for him since the day he was born is Tiger I have very single book chronicling the exploits of Calvin and Hobbes Ive been saving them for Krischan so one day he can appreciate the magic Bill Watterson has created I cant think of anyone better to pass the books along to and hope Krischan will be eager to tear into them once he learns how to read After he reads this book first of course Cats in the Parsonage Clair

The Abc'S of Children'S Sermons Melanie J. Barton, 2012-10-04 Children's Sermons are often inadequately prepared understood maybe only by the adults and leave the youth wanting something to which they can relate Because children take what you say literally the stories need to be brief to the point and use simple and age appropriate words Leaders need to get and stay on the children's eye level This book will help you do that by offering a written sample story related to one of the weeks lectionary passages An accompanying auditory example is told on the CDs Each lesson tells you what props are needed The storyteller is encouraged to include some of their own personal walk with God to make the sermonettes come alive These tools will prepare you to plan ahead to present a relevant effective message that the boys and girls will not only learn from but will come back wanting to hear more
