Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Animals Peter Adamson,G. Fay Edwards,2018-05-10 Philosophical controversy over non human animals extends further back than many realize before Utilitarianism and Darwinism to the very genesis of philosophy This volume examines the richness and complexity of that long history Twelve essays trace the significance of animals from Greek and Indian antiquity through the Islamic and Latin medieval traditions to Renaissance and early modern thought ending with contemporary notions about animals Two main questions emerge throughout the volume what capacities can be ascribed to animals and how should we treat them Notoriously ungenerous attitudes towards animals mental lives and ethics status found for instance in Aristotle and Descartes are shown to have been more nuanced than often supposed while remarkable defenses of benevolence towards animals are unearthed in late antiquity India the Islamic world and Kant Other chapters examine cannibalism and vegetarianism in Renaissance thought and the scientific testing of animals A series of interdisciplinary reflections sheds further light on human attitudes towards animals looking at their depiction in visual artworks from China Africa and Europe as well as the rich tradition of animal fables beginning with Aesop Owls Paul Sterry,1995 Examines the lifestyles hunting and breeding habits and the physical traits of a broad variety of owl species Includes 93 full color illustrations Giants of the Sea Andrew Cleave,1998 80 illustrations Known as monsters of the deep the large creatures of the ocean depths have fascinated and terrified humans for thousands of years The breaching humpback whale the deadly great white shark the

Isolated Cases Nancy Yousef,2018-07-05 The literature of the romantic period has consistently been seen as the source of modern concepts of the individual Nancy Yousef maintains however that the dominant account of the self in romanticism is in need of profound revision While individuals presented in central texts of the period are indeed often alone or separated from others Yousef regards this isolation as a problem the texts attempt to illuminate rather than a condition they construct as normative or desirable As her argument moves from the eighteenth to the nineteenth century through both philosophical and literary writing her book offers a new account of autonomy and of the complex romantic inheritance of enlightenment preoccupations with the origins of human association and the course of human development In her richly interdisciplinary book Nancy Yousef addresses the emergence of autonomy demonstrating that the ideal was beset from its beginnings by profound concerns over the possibilities and grounds of human relations and interdependence Isolated Cases draws attention to the strain of intersubjective anxieties and longings hidden within representations of the individual as self sufficient and self defining Among the writers and thinkers Yousef treats at length are John Locke John Stuart Mill Jean Jacques Rousseau Mary Shelley and William Wordsworth
