Monks Of Tibhirine Faith Love And Terror In Algeria:

The Monks of Tibhirine John W. Kiser, 2002 The Monks of Tibhirine John Kiser, 2002-02-18 Details the true story of seven monks kidnapped from a Trappist monastery in war torn Algeria to be used as negotiation tools to free imprisoned terrorists and whose severed heads were found in a tree two months later The Monks of Tibhirine John Kiser, 2003-02-28 The inspiration for the major motion picture Of Gods and Men A true story of Christian love set against political terrorism in contemporary Algeria In the spring of 1996 militants of the Armed Islamic Group today affiliated with Osama bin Laden's al Qaeda network broke into a Trappist monastery in war torn Algeria Seven monks were taken hostage pawns in a murky negotiation to free imprisoned terrorists Two months later the severed heads of the monks were found in a tree not far from Tibhirine their bodies were never recovered The village of Tibhirine had sprung up around the monastery because it was a holy place protected by the Virgin Mary who is revered by Christians and Muslims alike But after 1993 as the Algerian military government's war against Islamic terrorism widened napalm helicopters and gunfire became regular accompaniments to their monastic routine The harmony between these Christian monks and the Muslim neighbors of Tibhirine contrasts with the fear and distrust among Algerians fighting over power and what it means to be a Muslim Woven into the story of the kidnapping and the political disintegration of Algeria is a classic account of Christian martyrdom But these monks were not martyrs to their faith as preaching Christianity to Muslims is forbidden in Algeria but rather martyrs to their love of their Muslim neighbors whom they refuse to desert in their hour of need The Slavery of Death Richard Beck, 2013-12-23 According to Hebrews the Son of God appeared to break the power of him who holds the power of death that is the devil and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death What does it mean to be enslaved all our lives to the fear of death And why is this fear described as the power of the devil And most importantly how are we as individuals and as faith communities to be set free from this slavery to death In another creative interdisciplinary fusion Richard Beck blends Eastern Orthodox perspectives biblical text existential psychology and contemporary theology to describe our slavery to the fear of death a slavery rooted in the basic anxieties of self preservation and the neurotic anxieties at the root of our self esteem Driven by anxiety enslaved to the fear of death we are revealed to be morally and spiritually vulnerable as the sting of death is sin Beck argues that in the face of this predicament resurrection is experienced as liberation from the slavery of death in the martyrological eccentric cruciform and communal capacity to overcome fear in living fully and sacrificially for others Algeria since 1989 James D. Le Sueur, 2013-04-04 Algeria's democratic experiment is seminal in post Cold War history The first Muslim nation to attempt the transition from an authoritarian system to democratic pluralism this North African country became a test case for reform in Africa the Arab world and beyond Yet when the country looked certain to become the world's first elected Islamic republic there was a military coup and the democratic process was brought sharply to a halt Islamists declared jihad on the state and hundreds of thousands of civilians were killed in the ensuing decade of state repression Le Sueur shows that Algeria is at the very heart of contemporary debates about Islam and secular democracy arguing that the stability of Algeria is crucial for the security of the wider Middle East Algeria Since 1989 is a lively and essential examination of how the fate of one country is entwined with much greater global issues

The Oxford Handbook of Mystical Theology Edward Howells, Mark Allen McIntosh, 2020 This collection provides a guide to the mystical element of Christianity as a theological phenomenon Part I offers a historical overview Part II considers sources and practices of mystical theology Part III examines conceptualities of mystical thought Part IV explores contributions of mystical teaching to theology and metaphysics

Mysticism and Witness in Koinonia Maria Clara Bingemer, 2023-11-10 Testimony until the end in a radical donation of life and blood can be communitarian and not only individual That is the case for the two communities of Trappists and Jesuits so different in their form and so close in their radicality One is contemplative the other active one is in Africa the other in Latin America Both are religious Catholic orders Nevertheless the cause of their violent death is secular For one there is love and dialogue with otherness other cultures other religions other beliefs For the other there is justice for those who are the victims of iniquitous economic and political systems the poor Assuming secular causes into their religious consecration and commitment those communities teach today to the plural society we live in how to be open to otherness to difference and to the various vulnerabilities that clamor for justice They also teach to the churches a new radical way to live the gospel not with a unique institutional point of view but with an unlimited openness to all hungers and thirsts of the world Their martyrdom is a liturgy celebrated publicly instigating reflection and action

Desire and Mental Health in Christianity and the Arts David Torevell, 2023-08-21 This book considers the connection between the world of mental health in the twenty first century and the traditional concept of desire in Christianity and the Arts It draws parallels between the desire for rest from anxiety among mental health sufferers with the longing for peace and happiness in Religion and the Arts The author presents Biblical philosophical and theological insights alongside artistic ones arguing that desire for rest remains at the heart of spiritual living as well as mental health recovery The chapters draw from historical and contemporary voices including Plato Augustine of Hippo Julian of Norwich Gerard Manley Hopkins Simone Weil Samuel Beckett Tennessee Williams Jean Louis Chr tien Eric Varden and others The study demonstrates why longing continues to fascinate and grip individuals creative endeavour and society at large not least in the development of the understanding of mental health It is valuable for scholars and advanced students of Christian theology and those interested in spirituality and the arts in particular

Islam, Christianity and Tradition Ian Richard Netton, 2006-12-22 Offers a unique comparative exploration of the role of tradition in Islam and Christianity The idea of tradition has enjoyed a variety of senses and definitions in Islam and Christianity but both have cleaved at certain times to a supposedly golden age of tradition from the past The author suggests there has been a chain of thinkers from classical Islam to the twentieth century who share a common interest in ijihad or independent thinking Drawing on past and present evidence and using Christian tradition as a focus for contrast and comparison the author highlights the seemingly paradoxical harmony between tradition and itjihad in Islam The author draws on a variety of primary and secondary sources including contemporary newspaper and journal Moving On in Ministry Tim Ling,2014-08-19 While the Church of England provides practical resources for clergy as they make changes in their careers very little theological reflection has been done around this subject Not all change is welcome and driving factors differ from those in secular employment This important volume explores key questions to consider at points of transition Managing Conflicts in Africa's Democratic Transitions Akanmu G. Adebayo,2012-08-31 The democratization process which bolstered a culture of periodic elections has also fostered election related violent conflicts As democratic transitions gained currency in the new millennium orderly transitions through the ballot boxes began replacing military coups but deaths and destructions came in the wake of elections in many countries Inspired by decades long pro democracy movements across Africa that culminated in the Arab Spring of 2010 2011 and motivated by the desire to find long term solutions to election related violent conflicts in the continent this book explores the terrain of democratization elections and conflict management It raises and answers many questions such as What are the root causes of election related conflicts How free fair and credible are elections in many African countries What institutional mechanisms are available for ballot and voter security and for mandate protection What has been the role of civil society organizations in conflict prevention and management What are the responsibilities of the international community especially regional organizations like the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and the African Union AU in conflict resolution What indigenous mechanisms for conflict management have been identified that may be proactively engaged God for All Days Matthew Cheung Salisbury,2025-03-15 Gain deeper insights into Christian de Cherg s search for God in community Christian de Cherg was the prior of the Trappist community of Our Lady of Atlas in Tibhirine Algeria until his assassination with six of his fellow monks in 1996 Drawn from the last two years of his life these chapter talks to his brothers offer deeper insight into the monastic search for God in community during tumultuous times These talks are a treasury of inspiration for those interested in Benedictine spirituality and a valuable source of reflections on Muslim Christian relations to accompany those who engage in religious encounter in a pluralistic environment If Only We Could See Gary Commins,2015-10-12 This analytical polemical and personal book creates a lively interaction between mysticism and activism Looking beyond superficial links between spirituality and justice it creates an in depth engagement of mysticism as an inner revolution and activism as a mirroring socioeconomic transfiguration Based on the twin premises of the mystical tradition and Social Gospel liberation theology that those who experience God in prayer or engage in social action ought to be our primary theologians it examines what these two traditions say about theology to each other and to us The broad synthesis that results from this fascinating dialogue brings new insights into mysticism activism theology and ethics and casts a unique light on how we pray and live If Only We Could See brings together a wealth of spiritual material from the early Desert medieval mystics and modern spiritual writers alongside an equally rich resource of abolitionists anti apartheid activists civil rights leaders nonviolent change agents and peacemakers The results yield valuable insights for a theology that challenges every personal and political status quo Finding Jesus among Muslims Jordan Denari Duffner,2017-12-18 Why should Christians engage in interfaith dialogue with Muslims Does Islam have anything to offer Christians What is Islamophobia and what should we do about it These are just some of the questions addressed in Finding Jesus among Muslims an urgent new book from author Jordan Denari Duffner Drawing from church teaching the stories of saints and martyrs and her extensive personal experiences living among Muslims in both the United States and the Middle East Duffner explains why all Christians are called to participate in a dialogue of life with Muslims Her intelligent and fresh approach makes Duffner a welcome voice on some of the most important social and religious questions of our day Algeria Martin Evans,John Phillips,2008-01-14 After liberating itself from French colonial rule in one of the twentieth century s most brutal wars of independence Algeria became a standard bearer for the non aligned movement By the 1990s however its revolutionary political model had collapsed degenerating into a savage conflict between the military and Islamist guerillas that killed some 200 000 citizens In this lucid and gripping account Martin Evans and John Phillips explore Algeria s recent and very bloody history demonstrating how the high hopes of independence turned into anger as young Algerians grew increasingly alienated Unemployed frustrated by the corrupt military regime and excluded by the West the post independence generation needed new heroes and some found them in Osama bin Laden and the rising Islamist movement Evans and Phillips trace the complex roots of this alienation arguing that Algeria s predicament political instability pressing economic and social problems bad governance a disenfranchised youth is emblematic of an arc of insecurity stretching from Morocco to Indonesia Looking back at the pre colonial and colonial periods they place Algeria s complex present into historical context demonstrating how successive governments have manipulated the past for their own ends The result is a fractured society with a complicated and bitter relationship with the Western powers and an increasing tendency to export terrorism to France America and beyond No Peace Without Prayer Timothy Wright,2013-11-07 Abbot Timothy Wright proposes sowing a small seed from which might grow a greater respect between the world s two largest religions Christianity and Islam Indeed he believes that the seed has already been planted Christians give unique value to their revealed Scriptures as the Word of God Muslims speak of the Qur an as God speaking to them In No Peace without Prayer Wright presents the case for developing this faith in the Word of God to establish groups of Christians and Muslims dedicated to sharing their respective Divine Word in ways that enhance the other This is not a tussle for converts but a way into greater mutual understanding under the eye of the God who communicates this Word to create a new shared memory Such is a work of prayer a prayer that could lead to greater peace The key word says Wright is partnership arising from their shared belief in the One God creator of the universe communicating with the human world and merciful to the repentant Connecting

Christ Paul Louis Metzger, 2012 Encourages Christians to be open to communication with people of different faiths about religion and offers practical guidance for dealing with controversial topics such as Hell fascism and homosexuality Hatch, Match, and Dispatch Richard Leonard, SJ, 2019 An accessible engaging and educational journey through the history liturgy and theology of the seven sacraments Russian Orthodoxy and the Russo-Japanese War Betsy Perabo, 2017-08-10 How should Christians think about the relationship between the exercise of military power and the spread of Christianity In Russian Orthodoxy and the Russo Japanese War Betsy Perabo looks at the Russo Japanese War of 1904-5 through the unique concept of an interreligious war between Christian and Buddhist nations focusing on the figure of Nikolai of Japan the Russian leader of the Orthodox Church in Japan Drawing extensively on Nikolai's writings alongside other Russian language sources the book provides a window into the diverse Orthodox Christian perspectives on the Russo Japanese War from the officials who saw the war as a crusade for Christian domination of Asia to Nikolai who remained with his congregation in Tokyo during the war Writings by Russian soldiers field chaplains military psychologists and leaders in the missionary community contribute to a rich portrait of a Christian nation at war By grounding its discussion of interreligious war in the historical example of the Russo Japanese War and by looking at the war using the sympathetic and compelling figure of Nikolai of Japan this book provides a unique perspective which will be of value to students and scholars of both Russian history the history of war and religion and religious ethics Essays in Contextual Theology Steve Bevans, 2018-06-12 Essays in Contextual Theology is a collection of essays that reflect on the doing of contextual theology from several perspectives After a general introductory essay subsequent essays reflect on topics such as contextual theology and prophetic dialogue criteria for orthodoxy the nature of tradition the role of culture the dynamics of conversion and the way theology is being done in World Christianity The collection closes with an autobiographical essay tracing the author's journey to becoming a global theologian
