Monsieur Hippopotame:

The Pall Mall Magazine, 1912 Celluloid Spooks & Reel Monsters N.W. Erickson, 2012-06-01 If getting together with old fiends sounds like just your cup of brew you'll be right at home here Couch Pumpkin Let your Thriller Theatre host Margali introduce you to folk who are dying or perhaps coming back to meet you in this latest collection of tales both classic and obscure In this volume you'll find science fiction blended with eldritch evil a classic haunting that made for a rare A list haunting classic a touch of hard boiled noir laced with voodoo and for a bit of a switch a tale based upon a screenplay And some of our monsters are even human or at least started that way So curl up in your favourite chair or get cozy in the blankets and let Auntie M make you UNcomfortable Freaks; Or Spurs (Fantasy and Horror Classics) Tod Robbins, 2012-10-19 Tod Robbins Spurs centres on the macabre consequences of a circus romance between a midget performer and a bareback rider The basis for the Tod Browning film Freaks it is a weird classic of early 20th century horror Many of the horror stories of monsters and ghouls particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork The Pygmy Hippo Story Phillip T. Robinson, Gabriella L. Flacke, Knut M. Hentschel, 2017-03-01 Though the pygmy hippopotamus has been designated as a flagship species of West African forests meaning that by raising conservation efforts for a single species an entire ecological region could benefit very little research has been published on the animal They are solitary nocturnal and highly evasive and until recent developments in camera trap technology they were considered the least photographed large mammal species in the world The information currently available on this endangered species is scattered limited redundant and often inaccurate and no major volume exists as a resource for those interested in the conservation effort for the species until now Phillip Robinson and his coauthors provide a treatment of the natural history biology and ecology of the pygmy hippo along with a discussion of the rare animal's taxonomic niche and a summary of the research initiatives involving it up to this point The authors show the ways in which the pygmy hippo has come into contact with people in West African countries both in terms of ecological and cultural impact This creature has been the subject of local folktales and is treated as almost mythic in some regions Information on issues related to captivity breeding and zoos is provided The book is heavily illustrated with original photographs and anatomic drawings The project should be of use to conservation biologists zoologists and natural history readers and will be the definitive single volume account of an animal that the scientific community has designated to be ecologically significant to West Africa Sacrifice and Self-interest in Seventeenth-Century France Thomas M. Lennon, 2019-07-01 How much of our own self interest should we be willing to sacrifice for love of another The Quietists answered all of it even the salvation of our own soul Opposing them were the Jansenists including Arnauld who saw self interest as inescapable The debate swept across French society in the 17th century with Bossuet and Fnelon on opposite sides and was multi dimensional with political and ecclesiastical intrigue charges of heresy and many shenanigans Initially theological the debate's basis lay in differing philosophical concepts of freewill with both sides claiming support from Descartes's views The debate thus highlights interpretation of the Cartesians especially Malebranche a prominent participant in it Nevertheless this is the first book on the debate in English

The Enormous Room E. E. Cummings, 2022-11-13 E. E. Cummings debut novel The Enormous Room intertwines the themes of love individuality and the absurdity of human existence against the backdrop of World War I Written in a strikingly experimental literary style Cummings employs unconventional syntax vivid imagery and a playful yet poignant voice to reflect the emotional landscape of his characters The narrative follows the experiences of a young American poet who finds himself in a French detention camp navigating the challenges of confinement and the search for personal freedom amidst the chaos of war This novel not only serves as a commentary on the existential dread of the time but also showcases the author's innovative approach to language mirroring the disillusionment prevalent in the early 20th century Cummings an iconic figure in modernist literature was deeply influenced by his experiences during the war which provoked his reflections on identity and societal norms Having studied at Harvard and immersed himself in various artistic movements Cummings emerged as a voice of individualism His penchant for breaking grammatical conventions and exploring the complexities of human emotion is evident in The Enormous Room marking a significant contribution to both literary and cultural discourse Readers interested in avant-garde literature and explorations of the human spirit will find The Enormous Room a compelling addition to their collection Cummings unique ability to navigate the realms of beauty and chaos invites readers to reconsider the nature of freedom and the depth of love in a time of turmoil

Adaptations Stephanie Harrison, 2011-08-10 An Eclectic Collection of Fiction That Inspired Film Memento All About Eve Rear Window Rashomon and 2001 A Space Odyssey are all well known and much loved movies but what is perhaps a lesser known fact is that all of them began their lives as short stories Adaptations gathers together 35 pieces that have been the basis for films many from giants of American literature Hemingway Fitzgerald and many that have not been in print for decades the stories that inspired Bringing Up Baby Meet John Doe and All About Eve Categorized by genre and featuring movies by master directors such as Steven Spielberg Stanley Kubrick Robert Altman Frank Capra and John Ford as well as relative newcomers such as Chris Eyre and Christopher Nolan

Adaptations offers insight into the process of turning a short story into a screenplay one that when successful doesn't take drastic liberties with the text upon which it is based but doesn't mirror its source material too closely either. The stories and movies featured in Adaptations include Philip K. Dick's The Minority Report which became the 2002 blockbuster directed by Steven Spielberg and starring Tom Cruise. The Harvey Pekar Name Story by reclusive graphic artist Harvey Pekar whose life was the inspiration for American Splendor winner of the 2003 Sundance Grand Jury Prize. Hagar Wilde's Bringing Up Baby the basis of the classic film Bringing Up Baby anthologized here for the first time ever. The Swimmer by John Cheever an example of a highly regarded story that many feared might prove unadaptable. The predecessor to the beloved holiday classic A Christmas Story. Red Ryder Nails the Hammond Kid by Jean Shepherd. Whether you're a fiction reader or a film buff Adaptations is your behind-the-scenes look at the sometimes difficult sometimes brilliantly successful process from the printed page to the big screen.

Ceci n'est pas l'Afrique Anne-Cécile Makosso-Akendengue, 2010-04-01 L'auteur nous parle ici de ses vingt ans passés au Gabon. Sans nostalgie et parfois avec humour elle s'exprime sur ce qui l'entoure s'attardant sur des vues du pays des situations souvent surprenantes la vie de tous les jours loin de certains clichés habituels British Museum Catalogue of printed Books, 1884 The Vicomte de Bragelonne Alexandre Dumas, 1893 The Works of Alexandre Dumas: The Vicomte de Bragelonne Alexandre Dumas, 1893 Obaysch Simons, John, 2019-02-01 In 1850 a baby hippopotamus arrived in England thought to be the first in Europe since the Roman Empire and almost certainly the first in Britain since prehistoric times. Captured near an island in the White Nile Obaysch was donated by the viceroy of Egypt in exchange for greyhounds and deerhounds. His arrival in London was greeted with a wave of hippomania doubling the number of visitors to the Zoological Gardens almost overnight. Delving into the circumstances of Obaysch's capture and exhibition John Simons investigates the phenomenon of star animals in Victorian Britain against the backdrop of an expanding British Empire. He shows how the entangled aims of scientific exploration commercial ambition and imperial expansion shaped the treatment of exotic animals throughout the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Along the way he uncovers the strange and moving stories of Obaysch and the other hippos who joined him in Europe as the trade in zoo animals grew The Youth's Companion Combined with American Boy, 1936 Journal of Horticulture and Practical Gardening, 1879
