the tabloid press of setting out to shock controversial artworks are vigorously defended by art critics who frequently downplay their disturbing emotional impact This is the first book to subject contemporary art to a rigorous ethical exploration It argues that in favouring conceptual rather than emotional reactions commentators actually fail to engage with the work they promote Scrutinising notorious works by artists including Damien Hirst Jake and Dinos Chapman Richard Billingham Marc Quinn Sally Mann Marcus Harvey Hans Bellmer Paul McCarthy Tierney Gearon and Tracey Emin Aftershock insists on the importance of visceral emotional and ethical responses Far from clouding our judgement Cashell argues shame outrage or revulsion are the very emotions that such works set out to evoke While also questioning the catch all notion of transgression this illuminating and controversial book neither jumps indiscriminately to the defence of shocking artworks nor dismisses them out of hand

What Do Monsters Do Tonight? Donna Daniels,2009-03 Many years ago when my daughter was just a small child the nightly ritual started at least 30 minutes before bedtime To calm her worries that there were monsters in her room I would check every place in the room that they could hide in the closet in the toybox under the bed etc to show her there were no monsters Finally one day after a long hard day of being a mom I just agreed with her that there are monsters but they couldn t possibly come to her room that night because they were too busy doing their own things and living their own lives It worked The ritual went from checking to see if they were there to a simple question as I tucked her in Mommy what do monsters do tonight Thus was born the book of the same title Told in verse with vivid adorable illustrations the ritual has become a tradition in our family and I hope it will in yours as well
