Beyond Memory Max Mojapelo,2008 South Africa possesses one of the richest popular music traditions in the world from

marabi to mbaqanga from boeremusiek to bubblegum from kwela to kwaito Yet the risk that future generations of South Africans will not know their musical roots is very real Of all the recordings made here since the 1930s thousands have been lost for ever for the powers that be never deemed them worthy of preservation And if one peruses the books that exist on South African popular music one still finds that their authors have on occasion jumped to conclusions that were not as foregone as they had assumed Yet the fault lies not with them rather in the fact that there has been precious little documentation in South Africa of who played what or who recorded what with whom and when This is true of all music making in this country though it is most striking in the musics of the black communities Beyond Memory Recording the History Moments and Memories of South African Music is an invaluable publication because it offers a first hand account of the South African music scene of the past decades from the pen of a man Max Thamagana Mojapelo who was situated in the very thick of things thanks to his job as a deejay at the South African Broadcasting Corporation This book astonishing for the breadth of its coverage is based on his diaries on interviews he conducted and on numerous other sources and we find in it not only the well known names of recent South African music but a countless host of others whose contribution must be recorded if we and future generations are to gain an accurate picture of South African music history of the late 20th and early 21st centuries

What a Difference a Day Makes Steve Bergsman, 2023-10-30 In What a Difference a Day Makes Women Who Conquered 1950s Music Steve Bergsman highlights the Black female artists of the 1950s a time that predated the chart topping girl groups of the early 1960s Many of the singers of this era became wildly famous and respected and even made it into the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame However there were many others such as Margie Day Helen Humes Nellie Lutcher Jewel King and Savannah Churchill who made one or two great records in the 1950s and then disappeared from the scene The era featured former jazz and blues singers who first came to prominence in the 1940s and others who pioneered early forms of rock n roll In a companion volume Bergsman has written the history of white women singers of the same era Although song styles were parallel the careers of Black and white female singers of the period ran in very different directions as the decade progressed The songs of African American vocalists like Dinah Washington and Etta James were segregated to the R B charts or covered by pop singers in the early and mid 1950s but burst into prominence in the last part of the decade and well into the 1960s White singers on the other hand excelled in the early 1950s but saw their careers decline with the advent of rock music In this volume Bergsman takes an encyclopedic look at both the renowned and the sadly faded stars of the 1950s placing them and their music back in the spotlight
