Monsters in Society Rebecca Merkelbach,2019-11-05 Dragons giants and the monsters of learned discourse are rarely encountered in the Sagas of Icelanders and therefore the general teratological focus on physical monstrosity yields only limited results when applied to them This however does not equal an absence of monstrosity it only means that monstrosity is conceived of differently This book shifts the view of monstrosity from the physical to the social accounting for the unique social circumstances presented in the slendingas gur and demonstrating how closely interwoven the social and the monstrous are in this genre Employing literary and cultural theory as well as anthropological and historical approaches it reads the monsters of the slendingas gur in their literary and socio cultural context demonstrating that they are not distractions from feud and conflict but that they are in fact an intrinsic part of the genre s re imagining of the past for the needs of the present Monsters in the Closet Harry M. Egypt as a Monster in the Book of Ezekiel Safwat Marzouk,2015-06-05 Appealing to Monster Theory and the ancient Near Eastern motif of Chaoskampf Safwat Marzouk argues that the paradoxical character of the category of the monster is what prompts the portrayal of Egypt as a monster in the book of Ezekiel While on the surface the monster seems to embody utter difference underlying its otherness there is a disturbing sameness Though the monster may be defeated and its body dismembered it is never completely annihilated Egypt is portrayed as a monster in the book of Ezekiel because Egypt represents the threat of religious assimilation Although initially the monstrosity of Egypt is constructed because of the shared elements of identity between Egypt and Israel the prophet flips this imagery of monster in order to embody Egypt as a monstrous Other In a combat myth YHWH defeats the monster and dismembers its body Despite its near annihilation Egypt in Ezekiel's rhetoric is not entirely obliterated Rather it is kept at bay hovering at the periphery questioning Israel's identity

Dark Thoughts Steven Jay Schneider, Daniel Shaw, 2003 Is horror a fundamentally nihilistic genre Why are those of us who enjoy horror films so attracted to watching things on screen that in real life we would almost certainly find repellent Do monster movies have a deleterious moral effect on their viewers In seeking to answer such questions as well as a host of related ones Dark Thoughts reveals that our fascination with horror cinema and the pleasure we take in it is in the end simply a natural extension of a philosopher's inclination to wonder. This is a collection of highly engaging and provocative essays by top scholars in the increasingly interrelated fields of Philosophy, Film Studies and Communication Arts that deal with the epistemology, aesthetics, ethics, metaphysics and genre dynamics of horror cinema past and present. Contributors include Curtis Bowman, Noël Carroll, Elizabeth Cowie, Angela Curran, Cynthia Freeland, Michael Grant, Matt Hills, Deborah Knight, George McKnight, Ken Mogg, Aaron Smuts, Robert C. Solomon and J. P. Telotte. Over the past several years, one of the hottest topics in the realm of philosophical aesthetics has been cinematic horror. The emotional effects it has on audiences, the mysterious metaphysics of its impossible beings, the controversial ethics of its violent contents, these are just a few of the concerns to have drawn the attention of scholars and students alike, not to mention the genre's legions of fans. Since the publication of Noël Carroll's groundbreaking study The Philosophy of Horror or Paradoxes of the Heart (1990) and including most recently Cynthia Freeland's The Naked and the Undead: Evil and the Appeal of Horror (2000), a plethora of articles have been authored by seemingly normal philosophers about the decidedly abnormal activities of the antagonists of fright flicks.

Monster In The Dark C.J. Darling, 2019-07-02

The ferrets Human pets have gone away for Christmas vacation and they're having fun playing. Suddenly they see a horrible, ugly face in the window. It's a monster and it's trying to get into their house. Goliath might be the biggest ferret in the Mustela Secret Service, but he's really just a frightened baby. How can he protect old Nova and his friends? Somehow he has to be brave and strong.

Excerpt: It was a monster. A gigantic, ugly face was staring into the room. It had little black eyes, a big black nose, and strange little ears that flopped down on either side of its head. Its whole face was a mass of floppy brown and white wrinkles. Sharp white teeth pointed in all directions as it pushed its nose against the clear window glass. Suddenly it threw its head back and howled again. It was a sad, lonely sound that sent the ferrets into a panic. Taz threw himself on top of Nova to protect her. Maggie and Zephyr dashed to the other end of their cage so fast that they fell down the ramp and tumbled over each other. Goliath let out a single shrill scream, but he was too scared to move. Down at the bottom of the cage, the older ferrets shivered and hid under their blankets. Zephyr finally stopped tumbling when she landed right on top of old Gonzo. Maggie fell against her and poor Gonzo yelled at both of them to get off. Let me see. Nova was buried under Taz, who was shaking so hard that the entire cage was swaying. Taz get off me. Taz didn't move. It's gone now. Where did it go? Taz. Nova tried to wiggle free, then reached over and bit his foot hard. Off! Ouch. Taz jumped and Nova crawled out from under him. Nova that hurt. I couldn't breathe. Nova rubbed her whiskers against his sore foot in apology. You're heavy. I'm sorry. Nova. I don't mean to be. She nudged him in the ribs and smiled up at him. You can't help being big. It means you're healthy. Poor Goliath was still standing frozen, staring at the window with huge eyes. Where did it go? Nova climbed up onto his shoulders so she could see the window better. The monster's big nose had left a wet smudge on the glass, but Taz was right. The monster was gone. I don't know. But it's gone now. Goliath. Gently she rubbed at his trembling ears with her nose. You're safe. Nothing can get into the house unless Mom

Human or Dad Human let it in They ll never let a monster into the house Maggie had climbed back up to the top level Goliath got scared so easily that sometimes she got mad at him But this time she had been scared too So she didn t laugh at him or make fun of him They ll never do anything that might hurt us That s right Zephyr was just behind her They take good care of us She rubbed against Goliath and felt him relax We re all safe as long as we stay inside the house Taz was still staring at the window but his fur had calmed down again You ve been outside without a Human guard Zephyr What do you think it was Zephyr loved to talk about the time she d snuck out of the house and had romped all around the farm for two whole days before Dad Human had finally caught her in the barn and brought her back into the house There are lots of wild animals outside she told him with big serious eyes I ve never seen anything like that before It was too ugly to be a farm animal so it must have been something wild Maggie thought about that for a minute It sure was ugly she finally agreed I wonder why it came here It s probably hungry Goliath remembered the crunchy pellets he d hidden under his blanket and quickly ate one Wild animals are always hungry You re always hungry Maggie teased smacking his thick black fur with one tiny white paw Does that make you a wild animal Goliath looked down at her He was nearly twice her size and could have crushed her just by sitting on her It makes me he said reaching for another pellet a growing boy
