EPISODE 1

Monsters Medics

KJ Lindholm-Leary

Monsters Medics:

Medical jurisprudence Alfred Swaine Taylor, 1858 A Dictionary of Medical Science Robley Dunglison, 1860
Cyclopaedia of the Diseases of Children, Medical and Surgical John Marie Keating, 1889 The Ethics of Medical Homicide and Mutilation Austin O'Malley, 1919 The American Journal of the Medical Sciences, 1838
Cyclopædia of the diseases of children, medical and surgical v. 1, 1892-94, 1893 Hermaphroditism, Medical Science and Sexual Identity in Spain, 1850-1960 Richard Cleminson, Francisco Vázquez García, 2009-10-31 This is the first book in English to analyse the medical category of hermaphroditism in Spain over the period 1850-1960. It attempts to show how the relationship between the male and female body, biological sex, gender and sexuality constantly changed in the light of emerging medical, legal and social influences. Tracing the evolution of the hermaphrodite from its association with the marvellous to the association with intersexuality and transsexuality, this book emphasizes how the frameworks employed by scientists and doctors reflected not only changing international paradigms with respect to hermaphrodite science but also social anxieties about shifting gender roles, the evolving discourse on sexuality and in particular the increased visibility of the sexual deviancies such as homosexuality and changing legislation on marriage and divorce. Finally, we hope to open a space whereby the voice of hermaphrodites and intersexuals themselves could be heard in the past as agents in the construction of their own destiny as figures deemed in between by medicine and society. Rethinking Medical Humanities Rinaldo F. Canalis, Massimo Ciavolella, Valeria Finucci, 2022-12-19 Medical Humanities may be broadly conceptualized as a discipline wherein medicine and its specialties intersect with those of the humanities and social sciences. As such, it is a hybrid area of study where the impact of disease and healing science on culture is assessed and expressed in the particular language of the disciplines concerned with the human experience. However, as much as at first sight this definition appears to be clear, it does not reflect how the interaction of medicine with the humanities has evolved to become a separate field of study. In this publication, we have explored through the analysis of a group of selected multidisciplinary essays the dynamics of this process. The essays predominantly address the interaction of literature, philosophy, art, art history, ethics and education with medicine and its specialties from the classical period to the present. Particular attention has been given to the Medieval, Early Modern and Enlightenment periods. To avoid a rigid compartmentalization of the book based on individual fields of study, we opted for a fluid division into multidisciplinary sections reflective of the complex interactions of the included works with medicine. Proceedings of the Philadelphia County Medical Society. ... Weekly Medical Review ,1884 The Medical Standard ,1892 Hosting the Monster Holly Lynn Baumgartner,Roger Davis,2008

Hosting the Monster responds to the call of the monstrous with not rejection but invitation. Positioning the monster as that which defies classification, the essays in this collection are an ongoing engagement with that which lies outside of established boundaries. With chapters ranging from the monstrous mother or the deformed child to subjectivity in transition, this volume is not only of interest to film and gender scholars and literary and cultural theorists but also students of popular culture or horror. Its wide appeal stems from its invitation both to entertain the monster and to widen the call to and the listening for the monsters that have not yet and perhaps must not yet come calling back. This sense of hospitality and non-hostility is one guiding principle of this collection, suggesting that the ability to survey and research the otherwise may reveal more about the subjectivity of the self through the wisdom of the other. However monstrous the manifestation, Holly Lynn Baumgartner is an associate professor of Humanities and English at Mercy College of Northwest Ohio. Her articles have appeared in Reflections, Rhizomes, American Book Review and other journals. Roger Davis is an instructor of English at MacEwan College in Edmonton, Canada. He is co-author of Essay Writing for Canadian Students and his literary interests include poetry, poetics, and popular culture.
