Austrias, 1986     The Golden Age Comedia Charles Ganelin, Howard Mancing, 1994 Drawing on the groundbreaking Spanish scholarship and editions of earlier generations and relying on research conducted in Spanish archives this pioneering group of English speaking scholars offers a new treatment of familiar material The editors yoke together widely varying critical practices including incisive New Critical readings and far reaching explorations that draw on the most current European critical thought In addition to these more strictly literary studies there are interdisciplinary essays focusing on seventeenth and twentieth century reception and the social makeup of the comedia audience The whole thus presents a balanced picture of the many ways in which the comedia can be viewed and the contributors complement each other s work in often surprising ways illuminating the same corpus from a number of perspectives     A Foul and Pestilent Congregation Barry Wind, 2019-01-15 First published in 1998 this volume explores how in the seventeenth century depictions of human oddity hunchbacks cripples dwarfs appeared regularly in the work of both minor and major artists including Vel quez Rubens Van Dyck and Rivera In this the first comprehensive study of these images Barry Wind starts with the topoi for the mentally and physically infirm established in antiquity and traces their development into the Baroque period A delight in the unusual was consonant with the contemporary collection of other exotica convoluted shells and strange animals but human freaks provoked more than curiosity Their representation ranged from taxonomic fascination to derisive mockery They were frequently cast as imperfect foils to the fashionable courtiers who sought aggrandizement through juxtaposition The images were also exploited as metaphors for a favourite theme of the period the world turned upside down In this synthesis of repulsion and fascination mockery and dread the portrayal of these others reveals a dark underside of Baroque culture that has never been thoroughly investigated or understood With the support of 75 reproductions of works from Italy Spain and Northern Europe Barry Wind examines representations of human deformity throughout the baroque period He pursues his account into the eighteenth century and the expression of a new sympathetic understanding and compassion His study written with great clarity makes available hitherto obscure and inaccessible material gathered from diverse sources such as medical treatises literary texts popular ballads and court documents to set these images in their context and explain this obsession with difference     Tratado de monstruos Héctor Santiesteban Oliva, 2003-01-01     The Politics of Female Households: Ladies-in-waiting across Early Modern Europe, 2013-10-24 The Politics of Female Households is the first collection that seeks to integrate ladies in waiting into the master narrative of early modern court studies Presenting evidence and analysis of the multifarious ways in which women above stairs shaped the European courts of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries it argues for a re assessment of their political influence The cultural agency of ladies in waiting is viewed in the reflection of portraiture pamphlets and masques their political dealings and patronage are revealed through analysis of letters family networks career patterns gift exchange and household structures as well as their activities in the fields of intelligence gathering and espionage By concentrating on a previously neglected area of female agency this collection demonstrates clearly that the political climate of Europe was often shaped outside the male dominated institutions of government and administration Contributors include Helen Graham Matheson Hannah Leah Crumm Katrin Keller Vanessa de Cruz Birgit Houben Dries Raeymaekers Janet Ravenscroft Una McIlvenna Rosalind K Marshall Oliver Mallick Cynthia Fry Nadine Akkerman Sara J Wolfson Fabian Persson and Jeroen Duindam Collections of Painting in Madrid, 1601-1755 (Parts 1 and 2) Marcus B.
