Montana Spaces Essays In Celebration Of Montana:

Montana Spaces William Kittredge, 1988      Performance Ethnography Norman K. Denzin, 2003-06-24 One of the world's most distinguished authorities on qualitative research establishes the connection of performance narratives with performance ethnography and autoethnography the linkage of these formations to critical pedagogy and critical race theory and the histories of these formations      Many Wests David M. Wrobel, Michael C. Steiner, 1997 What does it mean to live in the West today Do people tend to identify with states with regions or with the larger West This book examines the development of regional identity in the American West demonstrating that it is a regionally diverse entity made up of many different wests Great Plains Southwest Rocky Mountains and more in which American regionalism finds its fullest expression These fourteen original essays tell how a sense of place emerged among residents of various regions and how a sense of those places was developed by people outside of them Wrobel and Steiner first offer a compelling overview of the West's regional nature then thirteen other rising or renowned scholars from history American Studies geography and literature tell how regional consciousness formed among inhabitants of particular regions All of the essays address the larger issue of the centrality of place in determining social and cultural forms and individual and collective identities Some focus on race and culture as the primary influences on regional consciousness while others emphasize environmental and economic factors or the influence of literature Some even examine western regionalism in areas that lie beyond the West as it has traditionally been conceived Each of the contributors believes that where a people live helps determine what they are and they write not only about the many wests within the larger West but also about the constant state of flux in which regionalism exists Many books speak of the West as a place but few others deal with the West's different places Many Wests presents a vision of the West that reflects both the common heritage and unique character of each major subregion building on the revisionist impulse of the last decade to help redirect New Western History toward an appreciation of regional diversity and integrate scholarship in the regional subfields It is a book for everyone who lives in studies or loves the West for it confirms that it is home to very different peoples economies histories and regions      SEARCHING FOR YELLOWSTONE Norman K. Denzin, 2008-05-15 Part autoethnography part historical narrative part art criticism part cultural theory Denzin creates a postmodern bricolage of images staged dramas quotations reminiscences and stories that strike to the essence of the postmodern vision of the American West      Updating the Literary West, 1997 Western writers says Thomas J. Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West's literary heritage Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars A selected bibliography is included with each piece In the ten years since publication of LHAW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children s literature ethnicity environmental writing gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW This volume again affirms the West s literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries Selected list of contributors James Maguire Fred Erisman Susan J Rosowski Gerald Haslam Tom Pilkington A Carl Bredahl Richard Slotkin John G Cawelti Robert F Gish Ann Ronald Mick McAllister

Marking the Sparrow's Fall Wallace Stegner, 1998 The first collection published since his death in 1993 contains 15 never before published essays by Stegner a little known novella and his most powerful and best known essays on the American West

Talking Up a Storm Gregory Lynn Morris, 2016-07 In interviews with fifteen contemporary writers of the American West Gregory L Morris demonstrates what these widely divergent talents have in common they all redefine what it is to be a western writer No longer enthralled though sometimes inspired by the literary traditions of openness place and rugged individualism each of the writers has remained true to the demand for clarity strength and honesty virtues sustained in their conversations Morris talks with Ralph Beer Mary Clearman Blew Elizabeth Cook Lynn James Crumley Ivan Doig Gretel Ehrlich Richard Ford Molly Gloss Ron Hansen John Keeble William Kittredge David Long Thomas McGuane Amy Tan and Douglas Unger Their lives and fiction stretch from Montana to Texas from ranches to universities from sea level to mountain slopes

Charles M. Russell Raphael James Cristy, 2004 Well known for his sketches paintings and sculptures of the Old West Charles M Russell 1864 1926 was also an accomplished author in the humorous genre known as local color Raphael Cristy sorts Russell s writings into four general categories serious Indian stories men encountering wildlife cattle range characters and nineteenth century westerners facing twentieth century challenges Russell s art is often misinterpreted as mere longing for a fading open range west but his writings tell a different story Cristy shows how Russell amused his peers with stories that also delivered sharp observations of Euro American suppression of Indians and humorous treatment of wilderness and range issues plus the emergence of women and urbanization as bewildering agents of change in the modern West A welcome departure from the usual biographies and coffee table volumes on Russell and his art Cristy deals with an important yet relatively unexplored aspect of the career of one of the most influential interpreters of the American West
