No Other Help I Know Sermons On Prayer And Spirituality:

I Told the Mountain to Move Patricia Raybon, 2005 A troubled marriage clashes with her strong willed daughters and a shameful personal secret had humbled the faith of award winning writer Raybon Raised in a churchgoing family she knew that only God could surmount these obstacles Here s her inspiring account of her heart transforming journey toward intimacy with God an odyssey abounding with lessons on prayer Revives My Soul Again Lewis V. Baldwin, Victor

Anderson, 2018-11-01 MLK and the Practice of Spirituality The scholarship on Martin Luther King Jr is seriously lacking in terms of richly nuanced and revelatory treatments of his spirituality and spiritual life This book addresses this neglect by focusing on King s life as a paradigm of a deep vital engaging balanced and contagious spirituality It shows that the essence of the person King was lies in the quality of his own spiritual journey and how that translated into not only a personal devotional life of prayer meditation and fasting but also a public ministry that involved the uplift and empowerment of humanity Much attention is devoted to King s spiritual leadership to his sense of the civil rights movement as a spiritual movement and to his efforts to rescue humanity from what he termed a perpetual death of the spirit Readers encounter a figure who took seriously the personal interpersonal and sociopolitical aspects of the Christian faith thereby figuring prominently in recasting the very definition of spirituality in his time King s holistic spirituality is presented here with a clarity and power fresh for our own generation No Other Help I Know James Alfred Smith, 1996 These sermons on prayer are presented by prominent women and men who are preachers from the pulpit in higher education and at conference centers throughout the country Noted preachers such as James C Perkins Jeremiah A Wright Jr Jini Kilgore Ross Charles Booth Kevin Cosby Ella Pearson Mitchell Frederick Douglas Haynes and Harold Carter address the theological difficulties that contemporary persons have in praying intelligently in the post modern world The Living Church, 1944 Never to Leave Us Alone Lewis V. Baldwin, An award winning author looks at the personal prayers that Martin Luther King Jr recited explaining how King turned to private prayer and meditation for his own spiritual fulfillment and to public prayer as part of his sermon discourse as an aspect of his pastoral care and as a way of moving inspiring and reaffirming people

Original God of Our Single Years Kevin Morgan, 2005-03-16 Christian singles face many challenges that threaten our peace of mind African American Christian singles must confront these and additional obstacles that arise solely because of our heritage and racial background Compounding these challenges many of us make decisions involving our spirituality our platonic family professional and romantic relationships that potentially introduce devastating long term problems into our lives Additionally many of the choices we make regarding our sexuality harms our relationships destroys our communities and blocks the blessings that God has for us This book seeks to clearly identify what is unique about the African American Christian single experience and to point out the role that Gods purpose plays in defining who we are Secondly this book proposes concrete and practical steps we can take to transform our singleness into blessedness Contemporary African American preaching P3040 , L Susan Bond reveals the full range and diversity of African American preaching in this exploration of African American homiletical theories Portraying the many approaches that are empowering preaching in African American churches today Bond shows how different theological perspectives produce different methods of sermon preparation and delivery different strategies for selecting illustrative material and even different ways of beginning and ending sermons Her goal is not to lift up the right way to preach in the African American tradition but to show the richness and nuance contained within this powerful cultural expression

Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life
